GERMANY REELS UNDER THE WAR BLOWS OF FOES

Army in Serious Condition; 6,000 Guns Lost Since Start of Offensive in July

London, Nov. 4.—Military authorities, who three weeks ago were skeptical over the return of peace because of the military situation, are convinced that the German army is in a serious condition owing to its inability to shorten its line and produce fresh reserves. It is pointed out that German casualties this year amount to 2,500,000, of which one million are permanent casualties. Last March Germany had eighty fresh reserve divisions, which means divisions which had not been in line for a month. Now the German reserve consists of fifty divisions, only seven of which have had as much as a fortnight's rest and none as much as a month, which is considered the minimum for an efficient force. German divisions now are appearing on the firing line with many hundreds of rifles below the German normal of 6,750.

As a number of depositions in the case are in dispute and the questions argued in order to get a court ruling.

ENEMY IN FULL FLIGHT BEFORE ALLIED ARMIES

west of Stenay, a vital point in the German line along the Meuse. They are only fourteen miles south of Sedan, the center of the whole German railroad system in eastern France. It now appears that the Germans who have been holding the line retreating westward through the Champagne country cannot retreat eastward but must be diverted northward through Belgium.

Fall of Ghent Is Imminent
In Belgium, the fall of Ghent is imminent, for the Belgians, French, British and Americans are moving ahead rapidly. The Scheldt has been crossed at Welden, southwest of Ghent, while the Belgians are moving toward the Scheldt northeast of the city. This advance, if continued threatens the whole German army in France, since its retreat eastward through Sedan and Montmedy seems about to be cut off.

Roads Crowded With Huns
East of the Meuse, the roads are crowded with retreating Germans, apparently indicating a retirement to the Briey defenses north of Metz. Austria will join Bulgaria and Turkey as conquered nations this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Terms of the armistice have been signed.

Belgrade, the capital of Serbia, has been recaptured from the Austrians. The city was taken on December 2, 1914. Forty-five days after the Allies launched their offensive along the Macedonian front the Austria and German troops were retreating across the Danube out of Serbia.

Haig Launches New Attack
On the northern end of the front in France, Field Marshal Haig this morning launched a new attack south of the Scheldt in the region of Valenciennes. The operation began successfully on a wide front and this vital sector of the German positions is in great peril.

The French army maintains its pressure but fighting activity is less than on Sunday and last week. German artillery has been active along the Aisne front, probably protecting an enemy retirement which is inevitable in view of the Allied success north and east.

American Army Presses Forward
The Americans are pressing forward east and west of the Meuse and the Germans apparently are not yet prepared to make a stand. Stenay and the gap in which it lies is being encircled and its fall would appear to be near.

No Word of Abdication
Emperor William has written to Prince Maximilian of Baden, the Imperial chancellor, promising co-operation in the development of constitutional reforms. It is pointed out, however, that no word has been said by him relative to abdication.

Timothy Naughton, Well-Known Athlete, Dies of Wounds Received in Battle
Unofficial word has been received here by Timothy Naughton, 25, of the late 2nd Infantry, that the cause of the death of his son, Francis Naughton in France, Private Naughton was in the Medical Corps of the 12th Regiment and was one of the most popular young men in the city. Aged 20 years, he enlisted a year ago, joining the ranks with many other Harrisburg boys. He went to Camp Hancock with the members of his regiment, later sailed for France. A letter from him just after the fight, at Chateau Thierry was the last word received here. He said in the letter he was well and happy.

DRIVE IS TO GO ON IN CITY FOR RED CROSS AID

The People Did Not Respond Heartily in Call For Old Muslin and Linen

Because people of Harrisburg did not respond heartily enough to the appeal of the Red Cross for old muslin and linen, it has been necessary to extend the campaign for another week, it was announced this morning by Mrs. Herman P. Miller, chairman. The headquarters will remain in the old Evangelical Publishing House building, corner of Second and Locust streets.

It was impossible this morning for workers to give any idea as to the total of contributions received. Piled in masses everywhere were rolls of toweling, packets of sheets and other articles which must be folded in uniform size and put to meet Red Cross requirements, before they are sent on their way to France. One of the hardest tasks confronting the workers is that of cutting the huge rolls of toweling to standard size. A half dozen young women were busy on this part of the work this morning. More workers are urgently needed.

The Junior Red Cross Auxiliary of Harrisburg sent through one of its officers, D. D. Hammelbaugh, a contribution of $24.14 toward the campaign. It is known that the receipt of the gift, Mrs. Lyman D. Gilbert, chairman of the local Red Cross chapter, praised the work of the Junior Red Cross, saying she was proud of their excellent work and commending them for their industry.

Boy Scouts were active through the past week, assisting in the collection. They will be on duty in the headquarters rooms, which will remain open until 9 o'clock to-night for the convenience of those who wish to contribute.

U. S. Flier Burns Machine Before Capture by Huns
Washington, Nov. 4.—Lieutenant Artemus L. Gates, a naval aviator, previously reported missing in action, fell behind the German lines and calmly burned his machine before being captured, said a supplemental report received yesterday from Vice-Admiral Sims. He apparently was uninjured, eye witnesses said.

Gates was flying with a naval squadron and was brought down by a direct hit, which carried away the tank and landing gear of his plane.

Most Widely Read Democratic Newspaper in Pennsylvania Approves Bond Issue
In pleading the cause of good roads for South Carolina, The Charleston News and Courier quotes with approval a recent editorial in "The Record" in favor of the proposed constitutional amendment authorizing the issue of $50,000,000 in bonds for highway work in Pennsylvania, and is also so kind as to refer to "The Record" as the most soundly edited newspaper in the state, and one of the best in America. This is high praise, but we trust, not unmerited.

Rapture Kills 7,000 Annually
Seven thousand persons each year are laid away—the burial certificate bears the mark "Rapture." Why? Because the unfortunate ones had neglected themselves or had been merely taking care of the sign (swelling) of the affliction and paying no attention to the cause. What are you doing? Are you neglecting yourself by wearing a truss, appliance, or whatever name you choose to call it? At best, the truss is only a makeshift—a false prop against a collapsing wall—and cannot be expected to act as more than a mere mechanical support. The binding pressure retards blood circulation, thus robbing the weakened muscles of that which they need most—nourishment.

Belts of Rome Ring Out in Joy Over the Trieste Occupation
Rome, Nov. 4.—News of the occupation of Trieste has caused great joy and enthusiasm throughout Italy. Pennington's triumph is everywhere in the streets, cheering the King, the army and the navy. In Rome the bells of Monte Citorio and at the Capitol were rung.

Michael Dwyer Dies
Marletta, Nov. 4.—Michael Dwyer, a well-known young man of East Pennsylvania, died at two o'clock on Sunday morning, after an illness of two weeks from pneumonia. Mr. Dwyer was born in Marletta, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dwyer. He was employed a number of years at the Dery Silk Mill and at the time of his death was an employee of the Marletta Furnace. He was a member of St. John's Episcopal Sunday school. Besides his mother, there survive a brother, Thomas, in California; a sister, Miss Margaret, a trained nurse in the United States service, Georgia, and John, at home.
