

HUN WAR LORDS AGREE EMPEROR MUST GET OUT

Party Leaders of Reichstag Quoted as Saying Abdication Is Not Necessary

Washington, Nov. 5.—It has been learned here that the German war cabinet has agreed to the abdication of the Emperor, but the announcement is unofficial and is regarded as one of the rumors which need the stamp of the German government before serious consideration. In their recent discussions, it is announced here, party leaders of the Reichstag decided there was no need for the abdication of Emperor William. The Lokal Anzeiger, of Berlin, makes the assertion that Germany, the organ of the Centrist party, demands his retention on the throne. The National Liberals are reported to have taken the stand that the Emperor and the Hohenzollern dynasty must remain as a symbol of German unity. A majority of the Progressive party also is said to support the Emperor and the Christian social workers are championing his cause.

It was officially announced in Berlin yesterday that Emperor William's military cabinet has been placed under the Minister of War.

The German Socialists are not satisfied with the Emperor's proclamation issued Sunday. The Vorwaerts says:

"The manifesto will not in any way change the standpoint of the Socialists nor weaken the demand for abdication."

The German press is evincing considerable disquiet over the Bolshevik danger in Germany.

The Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung published a long statement yesterday concerning Bolshevik activities, which it attributes to the Russian embassy at Berlin.

The Tageblatt says a leaflet has been distributed to the people of Berlin, and in particular to soldiers, signed by the "Workers and Soldiers' Committee." The newspaper says its object is to incite soldiers to disobey military commands.

MCKINLEY TO GET DATA TOGETHER

Man Active in Historical Matters Will Assemble Information of State in War

Pennsylvania's contribution to the world war—the manifold activities of this state, with a brief biography and war record of every one of more than 300,000 Pennsylvania soldiers and sailors—is to be set down in history by the Pennsylvania War History Commission in which Senator William C. Sprout has taken a great interest.

Preliminary work in gathering data has already been started and Dr. Albert McKinley, secretary of the commission, has opened an office in the Pennsylvania Historical Society building, in Philadelphia.

The Pennsylvania Council of National Defense decided that while all the facts are still obtainable, there should be written the complete annals of the Keystone state's war activities. For that purpose the War History Commission was created. Senator Sprout is president of that commission. Dr. McKinley secretary, and State Librarian Thomas L. Montgomery is curator. There are in Pennsylvania 40 local historical societies and they will be asked to gather complete military records. An appeal will be sent to every county for the parents or relatives of soldiers and sailors to forward war records and photographs.

But colossal as will be this history of the military personnel of Pennsylvania, a still more prodigious work will be the compilation of the true story of what our 3,000,000 people did to help win the war. That will entail a record of our immense industrial contribution to the nation and to our Allies.

German Financial Panic Is Worse Than at War Start

London, Nov. 5.—The Berlin Vossische Zeitung says the financial panic in Germany is of a more stubborn character and greater in extent than at the outbreak of the war. It adds that in the month ending October 23 the note circulation of the Imperial and Loan bank increased 2,650,000,000 marks.

The note circulation of the Reichsbank has risen to 14,500,000,000 marks, as compared with 2,000,000,000 marks at the commencement of the war, and the loan banks now are circulating 9,000,000,000 marks in notes.

GERMAN PROTEST ON AIR ATTACKS COMES TOO LATE

Hun Raids on Towns Outside Operating Zone Justify Its Continuance

Washington, Nov. 5.—Action of the German military forces in the past in conducting air raids on defenseless towns in France, Belgium and England and on hospitals preclude in the opinion of military and diplomatic observers here the giving of any serious attention to the protest from Berlin against the aerial operations of the Allied and American armies.

The plea for cessation of the raids on German towns, delivered to the State Department yesterday through the Swiss legation, declares that since October 1, German air forces have been under orders to operate only against military objects. In view of these instructions, disclosed through the note for the first time to the Allied and the United States the German government says it has assumed that similar orders would be issued by its opponents. Should such directions not be issued, the German government declares it reserves the right to renew its aerial attacks on Allied territory behind the lines.

The long list of German bombing raids on towns outside the zone of operations and on hospitals was pointed to today as justifying continuance by the Allied and American air forces of operations against the nonmilitary objectives in Germany. That Germany's protest was made too late was the general belief in many quarters.

Willard Made a Colonel to Run French Railroads

New York, Nov. 5.—Appointment of Daniel Willard, chairman of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, as a colonel of engineers, U. S. A., for duty in France, became known here today.

The French government, having recently decided to take over operation of all French railways, considered it desirable to have the assistance of an American executive in view of the extensive work which the American expeditionary force is making of those railways, and it is understood the appointment was made at the suggestion of General Pershing.

WAY OPEN FOR NAVAL OFFICERS

Men With Special Training Get Good Berths With Sea Forces

Men who meet the physical requirements of the navy, who are of officer-like material, and have completed the mechanical, electrical or civil engineering course at any recognized university, or possess an equivalent education and experience, are qualified for immediate induction into the navy for a course of education at the United States Navy Steam Engineering School at Hoboken, N. J., with the rank and pay of ensign after graduation.

The immediate voluntary induction of men through their local boards will be made by Ensign C. L. McIntyre, assistant mobilization inspector of the eastern district, who will be in room No. 9, of the courthouse, after tomorrow.

The course will comprise about five months, as follows: One month at Pelham Bay Training Station, Pelham Bay, N. Y., one month technical instruction at the U. S. Navy Steam Engineering School, Hoboken, N. J., two months training on sound steamers, ferries and a trip across the ocean and one month final technical training at the U. S. Navy Steam Engineering School, Hoboken, N. J.

The general opinion is that food will follow peace.

The graduates of this school will be assigned to duties as engineering officers of the transport and supply ships. They will be commissioned as ensigns in the United States Naval Reserve Force. The salary of an ensign at sea is $155 per month, or $195 if he has dependants.

"This is a wonderful opportunity for men who are steam engineers to continue their trade and eventually perform admirable services for Uncle Sam," said Ensign McIntyre, discussing the plan.

Do as much of your Christmas shopping as possible before December 1st

Your Bill at Bowman's Will Not Be Due Till January

IF YOU HAVE A CHARGE ACCOUNT OR INTEND TO OPEN ONE.

You will receive an itemized bill on December 1st, as usual, in order that you may check up your November purchases, and you may pay that bill in December if you so desire, but you are privileged to pay for all November and December purchases in January.

Uncle Sam says: "I want Christmas gifts bought early; only useful presents given; shoppers to carry their own packages whenever possible." What do you say?

How far have you gone with your Christmas shopping? If all your gifts are bought, so much the better. Are you buying only useful presents? Are you doing your "bit" by carrying your own parcels? Everyone of us can help in our own way. What are you doing?

A Women's Sale of Men's Shirts

We say a Women's Sale because seventy-five per cent. of the men's shirts in this store are sold to women. Thrifty women generally know values of this kind and are always on the lookout for husband's, brother's, father's or son's welfare when coming in to do shopping. Therefore, this Sale appeals to the women.

These Men's Shirts are of Madras, with satin stripes, and in Crepes; cut full, with soft cuffs, in the most desirable patterns. Some Percalés, with collars attached. Sizes 14 to 17.

This lot of 300 Shirts was purchased at an advantageous price, which permits our selling them considerably below what the same quality would otherwise sell for. Grouped in three lots—
