Simultaneously with an appeal to volunteer workers asking them to return towels they had taken out for hemming, before to-morrow night, it was stated by Mrs. Herman P. Miller, chairman of the Red Cross Linen Shower, this morning, that if present receipts continue the campaign will be successfully closed by Saturday night.

RIFLE RANGES WILL BE LIVELY

Order For Men to Get Busy to Make Up For Lost Time Is Generally Followed

Outdoor rifle practice for the Pennsylvania Reserve Militia which was extended from October 31 to November 30 by an order of Adjutant General Frank D. Beary because of the influenza epidemic halting so many activities, has been renewed with considerable vigor, according to reports reaching this city.

The Globe Announces

A LIBERTY SALE

Of Men's and Young Men's

SUITS & OVERCOATS

At $25.00

A SALE WITHOUT ANY CAMOUFLAGE.

Here are the reasons for this remarkable selling event, right at the very beginning of the Winter season.

There is no denying the fact that the Spanish influenza epidemic seriously interfered with business.

The ban has now been lifted and THE GLOBE offers wide-awake men and young men several hundred Suits and Overcoats at the popular price of $25, that it would be impossible to replace at the same price.

The Suits---

Models for young men and men who would stay young. All-Wool fabrics - Cassimeres, Worsteds and Cheviots. Smart styles that leave nothing to be desired.

The Overcoats---

Of All-Wool fabrics, in plain colors and neat mixtures. Form-fitting Overcoats - single and double-breasted Ulsterettes and easy-fitting Box Coats. All elegantly tailored and nicely trimmed.

See Our Window Display

Our windows tell the story better than our advertisement. You must see them for yourself, so that you will appreciate all the more the wonderful values now offered.

Remember that gifts for the boys overseas must be mailed by November 15.

Middletown

Corporal Charles Smith, a guard at the internment camp, Staten Island, N. J., is spending several days in Royaltown with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, Water street.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Hayes and three children, of East Main street, are all confined to their beds with Spanish influenza and Miss Weidner, the trained nurse who has been secured by the local board of health and the Red Cross, was called to their aid.

The linen show drive of the Red Cross, which has been held in town for the past week, netted nearly $500 and a large quantity of different linens. The chapter must furnish as its part 120 dozen pairs of linen sheets.

Middletown's quota for the war drive which will be held November 11-18 is $5,000 and the captains and lieutenants for the four Liberty Loan drives will do the work.

Mrs. E. S. Gerberich, who was chairman, has been made chairman for the war drive in Dauphin county.

John Sheuvelt, Sr. of Pike street, is spending some time with his daughter, Mrs. William Farmer, at Harrisburg.

Mrs. Frank Frank and son, and Jerome Easterday, all of Royaltown, visited the former's son, Frank Frank, Jr., at the Harrisburg Hospital. He was accidentally shot Monday afternoon while playing with his jawbone torn off and is still in a serious condition.

Raymond Oondran, who had been quite ill with the influenza at his home, Commercial avenue, for the past two weeks, is able to be out again.

Word was received in town yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Mansberger that their nephew, Earl Mansberger, aged 22, son of Frazier Mansberger, and who formerly resided in town, had died in France from pneumonia.

Miss Elizabeth Overdeer, teacher in the continuation school of town, was unable to return to school post Monday morning. During the influenza epidemic she went to Hagerstown to visit friends.

While there she took care of several families where the influenza existed, working so hard that she herself had become ill, but is recovering. Her school is being substituted by H. B. Garver.

A special meeting of the teachers of the Church of God Sunday school will be held this evening after the prayer meeting service, and all are urged to be present as business of importance will be transacted.

Miss Blanche Pickett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Pickett, North Spring street, was taken to the Harrisburg Hospital where she will undergo an operation.

Sister Lydia Seipelmyer, deaconess of St. Peter's Lutheran Church, is ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Laverty.

Miss Ettie McCord, who resides in North Union street, will make a trip to Lancaster where she will make
