Reserve Companies to Be Maintained

Major Henry M. Stine, commandant of the Harrisburg Reserves, today issued orders for the Reserves to resume drills at the armory on Friday night at 7.30. The coptains were directed to ascertain the number of men active prior to the influenza epidemic which caused suspension of drills at the end of September who intend to continue drilling and to open their commands to men of draft age who may desire military instruction.

Friday night the work for the remainder of the year will be outlined as it is intended to continue the Reserves until the end of the war for any purposes which may arise, and to arrange details for the continuation of the drills of the students of the Harrisburg High schools.

The first drill at Technical will be next Wednesday at 9 a. m.

School Libraries to Be Redistributed
