

SENATE STILL IS IN DOUBT; DEMOCRATS HOPE FOR MARGIN

Republicans Have Won 234 Seats in House; Opponents Get 195 Seats; Eyes on Michigan Vote; "Pink Whiskers" Lewis Goes Out; Weeks Loses in Massachusetts

Washington, Nov. 7.—This morning's returns show a Republican majority in the next House of 41. This was established when two of the three seats from South Dakota were conceded to them. The standing of the two political parties in the House will be: Republicans, 236; Democrats, 195. In the Senate without the three doubtful seats, one each in South Dakota, New Mexico

The Quick Way to Stop a Cough

This home-made syrup does the work in a hurry. Easily prepared, and saves about 25¢.

You might be surprised to know that the best thing you can use for a severe cough, is a remedy which is easily prepared at home in just a few moments. It's cheap, but for prompt results it beats anything else you ever tried. Usually stops the ordinary cough or chest cold in 24 hours. Tastes pleasant, too—children like it—and it is pure and good.

Pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle; then fill it up with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. Thus you make a full pint—a family supply—without costing more than a small bottle of ready-made cough syrup.

And as a cough medicine, there is really nothing better to be had at any price. It goes right to the spot and gives quick, lasting relief. It promptly heals the inflamed membranes that line the throat and air passages, stops the annoying throat tickle, loosens the phlegm, and soon your cough stops entirely. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, famous for its healing effect on the membranes. To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded.

Democrats Hope For Senate

With the House firmly in the hands of the Republicans, control of the Senate is more important than ever to the Democratic administration. If the administration can retain control of the Senate it can in a large measure check the activities of a Republican House. It is doubly important to the national administration because of the part which the constitution assigns to the Senate in the ratification of the peace treaties which will end the world war.

SEDAN FALLS TO U. S. ARMY AFTER HARD FIGHT

Important gains are chronicled for the British in the north and the French in the center of the advancing Allied lines, which moved forward six miles Wednesday.

Nearly All France Is Liberated
Field Marshal Haig rapidly is clearing the Germans from that portion of France east and southeast of Valenciennes. The British have smashed farther through the enemy lines defending Mons and Maubeuge and are outflanking the German positions in Belgium, where the German commander at Ghent is evacuating the city. East and southeast of the Mormal forest the British also have made great strides toward the Franco-Belgian border.

The French armies from north of the Oise to southeast of Mezieres maintain contact with the retreating enemy all along the front. The last natural obstacles west of the Belgian frontier have virtually all been cleared and the terrain before the French is admirable for maneuvering. On the extreme right where the French lines join the American, French cavalry are riding toward the Meuse between Mezieres and Sedan.

Gain Four Miles in Short Time
In reaching the Meuse at Sedan, General Pershing's men had achieved an advance of four miles since late Wednesday night. Germany's main line of communication from Metz westward goes through Sedan and it no longer is of use to the enemy.

German Armies in Danger
Germany's troops west of the Meuse, because of the great progress of the French and Americans, must now retreat, if they can, through Belgium. The task of moving this large force of soldiers through the narrow Liege gap is a formidable one.

Internal conditions in Germany apparently are far from satisfactory. In addition to the outbreak in Kiel, the German naval base, which is reported to have placed the German navy and a large part of Schleswig in the hands of the revolutionists, outbreaks are reported in Hamburg. The chancellor also has issued an appeal to the people to maintain calm while the armistice negotiations are in progress.

TWO HARRISBURG BOYS KILLED ON FIELD OF BATTLE

Captain Aul, Wounded, Tells of "Five Days of Hell"

Among the Harrisburgers to give their lives in the supreme sacrifice for Democracy, an announcement from the War Department names Sergeant Charles J. Kral, 702 North Sixth street, and Private Robert J. Kirby, 195 Ann street.

It was stated in the official notice received by Mrs. Daisy Miller Kral, concerning the death of Sergeant Kral, that her husband had been killed in action on October 6. He was a member of Company I, 58th Infantry, received his training at Camp Colt, Gettysburg, and at Camps Green and Mills, sailing for France in May. He enlisted in the Regular Army in 1908.

Private Kirby is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Kirby. He was killed in action October 2, Kirby, who was 23 years old, was a member of Company I, 112th Pennsylvania Infantry, having enlisted at the outbreak of the war in Company I of the old Eighth Regiment, in this city. He received his training at Camp Hancock and later sailed for France.

Private Kirby's brother, John W. Kirby, who is fighting with the Engineers, was reported as wounded some time ago, but has recovered and is reported to be in active service again.

Captain Aul's Wound
Miss Fannie Aul, 230 State street, has received a letter from Captain Frank A. Aul, of the 31st Infantry, who is a nephew, Captain Aul, who was wounded a few weeks ago writes as follows:

"Am waiting here to be evacuated to some base hospital for a short time till I get my nerves and body healed up. Was shot in the side by a machine gun bullet on Sunday morning; a clean wound, no infection and no penetration of the abdominal wall nor the spinal nerve; one of the fortunate wounds that you read about, that just missed everything vital. Will be all right very soon, probably before this reaches you."

"Had five days of hell, however, and many narrow escapes from complete annihilation. God was very good to me and spared me many times. Am quite pretty well shaken up from quite a few explosive shell shocks and hope I am to have a little rest for a few days. Have been through severe climatic exposure but apparently have suffered nothing but the general effects."

"Have so much to tell you of these five days' advance, that it would take too much time and much of it is hardly believable. When I get to base hospital, I will write you at length. I think I may claim to have done my duty as best I could. My men, as nearly as I can figure, are about half of them killed or wounded; only one officer left when I got home and have heard nothing since."

"Was fortunate in not having to lie out wounded for a long time and was able to crawl away under fire. Was thirty-six hours getting to the field hospital, a distance of about ten miles, but finally got there. We are doing well of late and will be back on the job. No need to worry."

Rheumatism
A HOME CURE GIVEN BY ONE WHO HAD IT
In the spring of 1893 I was attacked by muscular and inflammatory Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have since been a number of times terribly afflicted and even bedridden with Rheumatism, and it effected a cure in every case. I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-looked-for means of curing your rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when positive relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today.

FRIENDS WELCOME E. E. BEIDLEMAN

E. E. BEIDLEMAN

E. J. Stackpole, and the parade joined the party there and marched out over Allison Hill, past the Beidleman residence in Market street and through the ward where Mr. Beidleman has had so many political triumphs. Two bands, three Republican clubs, the Harrisburg, the West End and the Colored Club, together with a large number of marchers made up the line.

Colonel Covert Marshal
Colonel Charles E. Covert, a lifelong friend of Senator Beidleman, was chosen as chief marshal of the parade and it was a proud occasion for the colonel who one day hopes to lead a parade welcoming Mr. Beidleman home as Governor of the state. Many of the marchers carried flags and banners. One bore the inscription "For Governor in 1922."

"A self-made man," "We know him as Beldy and scores of others. The line of march took the parade away into the West End, where Mr. Beidleman had piled up great majorities the day before and where he was greeted by cheering crowds, and wound up in the southwest corner of Market square, where an informal reception was held with a big crowd in attendance.

Welcomed Home
Mr. Beidleman rode in former County Treasurer Arthur H. Bales' car, and with him were Mr. Patterson, Mr. Stackpole and former County Chairman Frank A. Smith. Mr. Stackpole introduced Senator Beidleman.

The Lieutenant-Governor-elect had met upon an occasion when politics really was adjourned, to extend greetings to a neighbor who had been signally honored by the citizens of the state with the gift of a high office by such a tremendous majority as had never previously been given a citizen of Harrisburg.

Mr. Stackpole spoke of the gratification Mr. Beidleman must feel in his rise from humble boyhood to his present high position in the state and he referred to the fact that he had carried almost every district in his home city and county both at the primaries and the general elections. He said the people doubtless would receive at his hand the high service they have a right to expect as a result of the confidence they have reposed in him.

Mr. Stackpole also paid a compliment to the leadership of Mr. Harry Baker, secretary of the state committee and personal friend of the Senator, who as field general for him had done great work in the campaign.

Mr. Beidleman was greeted by cheering and applause which arose in response, and he smiled broadly as he beheld in the crowd near his car his wife, his father and other members of his family.

He expressed his appreciation in the results of his election and in the warm welcome his friends had given him. He was, of course, particularly well pleased with his fine showing at home. He said indications pointed to the election of Senator Sprout and himself by majorities approaching 275,000, and he promised service commensurate with the vote of confidence placed in him. He referred to the great record of Pennsylvania in the war and said that in his estimation Senator Sprout is the best qualified man in the state to guide the Commonwealth through the remainder of the conflict and the reconstruction period to follow.

Senator Beidleman laid particular stress upon his service as presiding officer of the pardon board and said that during the four years of his membership he would withdraw from the courts of the Commonwealth, because he wanted to feel himself free and unrestrained in the consideration of the pleas of prisoners coming before the board.

He added, "but so long as I have anything to do with it, the pardon board will not be made an instrument for general jail delivery in Pennsylvania."

Among those who acted as aids in the parade were County Chairman William H. Horner, City Chairman James F. Owens, County Recorder James E. Lentz, Sheriff W. W. Caldwell, Al S. Cooper, assistant Senate librarian, and Representatives-elect David I. Miller and Albert Miller.
