

Captain Chapman Killed in Battle Leading Charge
Lancaster, Nov. 8.—News reaching Lancaster county yesterday regarding casualties mentions the names of three commissioned officers and a noncom, two of whom were killed in action. Captain Henley H. Chapman, of the 120th Infantry, advancing in the first wave in the attack north of St. Quentin on September 2, was riddled with machine gun bullets, according to the letter telling of his death. He was buried where he fell with other men of his company. Captain Chapman was graduated from West Point two years ago. He was a grandson of General William S. McCaskey. His brother, Lieutenant William Chapman, recently graduated from West Point, is on duty in Russia.

Judge John B. McPherson Able to Leave Hospital

After being ill one week in the Presbyterian Hospital, Philadelphia, where he was taken last Friday, Judge John B. McPherson, of the United States Court of Appeals, and formerly a judge in the Dauphin County Courts here, will leave that institution to-morrow. In Philadelphia, Judge McPherson makes his home in the Aldine hotel.

Send Kaiser to St. Helena, Say Bills Posted in Berlin

The Hague, Nov. 8.—Travelers from Germany with whom I have conversed confirm the stories of the Hohenzollerns.

Berlin, where many disloyal bills now are posted. He saw there bills which said: "The Kaiser should be sent to St. Helena." "Down with the Hohenzollerns." "Long live the social revolution," and "Long live Liebknecht."
