

LANSING'S WIFT TO BRAND-FAKE PEACE REPORTS

New Dispatch Sent Out by United Press Denounced as the Most Colossal Fake

Washington, Nov. 8.—What is regarded in officialdom here as the most colossal news fake ever perpetrated upon the American people was the publication yesterday through a dispatch from the United Press that Germany had signed the terms of armistice laid down by Marshal Foch and that the war was over.

This news dispatch, sent from Paris, was utterly without foundation of fact. Official denial of its authenticity was made by Secretary of State Lansing after he had taken the trouble to cable to Paris about it.

The news organization's dispatch on the ending of the war had the effect of startling the entire country. In every city the news spread, "the war is over," and the country at large took it to be authentic.

The official denial of the accuracy of the United Press report was made by the Secretary of State in the afternoon, immediately after having received a dispatch from Paris.

Fifth Avenue to Be Paved With Silver When Actors Work For United Drive

New York, Nov. 8.—Fifth Avenue will be paved with silver, and the silver runs out with George M. Cohan.

Two great big banks are saving up the dollars and hope to have enough. Although coppers don't count, the police will watch to see that nobody steals anything, which nobody will try to do.

"George," said William, "did you say I said it, Willie?" said George. Challen is accepted.

Even by inference it must not be suggested that Messrs. Cohan and Cohan, both family men, ever gambled. But five minutes after they stopped telephoning they met in the presence of a third person, who could not possibly have been a stakeholder, and in some unidentified way the Lambs and the Friars were pledged to go out into Fifth Avenue during the War Work Week.

"Why, we'll pave that old street with silver," snorted George M. Cohan.

"All right, your low gang can have one side of the avenue and we'll take the other, and see how we come out," agreed William Collier.

They are going to call Fifth Avenue the Silver Road to Berlin. Starting north at Thirty-fourth street the Friars in crows, on the sidewalk of the street and the Lambs in lamb skins and carrying shepherd's staves will solicit silver from all who pass, and as fast as the coins are obtained, they will be laid along the curb.

"Myriads of Broad's most beautiful," raves the official announcer, "are aligning themselves with the general stars they have chosen to win. Every plump, prim proselyte of Manhattan's showhouses will appear in Fifth Avenue. It is the most unique, most bizarre, original staging of New York's theatrical talent ever used to further the best cause in the world."

PARCEL MAY BE SENT TO WORKERS

Christmas Boxes For Y. M. C. A. and Red Cross May Be Mailed

Christmas parcels weighing not more than three pounds may now be sent to individuals serving in the ranks of the American Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus and other associations or persons connected with the American Expeditionary Forces for whom arrangements for sending Christmas gifts have not heretofore been arranged.

This is the substance of an order received at local headquarters of the Red Cross in the basement of the Harrisburg Public Library this morning. The order bears the signature of W. J. Barrows, Acting Third Assistant Postmaster General.

The parcels may be mailed through the local chapter of the American Red Cross by the nearest relative in the United States of the proposed recipient. Two or more relatives may join in sending a Christmas parcel but only one package may be sent to one individual.

Outlining instructions for sending the parcel, the official Post Office Department order continues: "Upon approval of such request, the Red Cross will furnish the sender a carton of the prescribed size (3 inches by 4 inches by 9 inches) in which to enclose the articles to be mailed. When filled, the carton must be returned unsealed and unwrapped to the nearest receiving station designated by the Red Cross for inspection, wrapping, affixing of stamps, etc., under the supervision of the Red Cross. The parcel must be left at the Red Cross receiving station which will affix thereto a certificate in the form of a seal showing that the parcel has been inspected and passed and shall mail it on or before November 20, 1918, (except in Alaska, Hawaii and Porto Rico, where Christmas parcels will be accepted up to and including December 1, 1918).

"Christmas parcels sent under the foregoing arrangement will be subject in all respects to the conditions governing the acceptance of similar parcels for members (officers, soldiers, etc.) of the American Expeditionary Forces in Europe as set forth in the instructions of this office. The parcels must be addressed substantially as follows: Christmas Box Department, Fort of Embarras, near West Hoboken, New Jersey.

For Organization American Expeditionary Forces Christmas parcels will be chargeable with postage at the fourth-class or parcel post zone rate applicable between the place where mailed and Hoboken, N. J.

No individual postal expense is required in connection with the mailing of Christmas parcels, the War Trade Board having amended its General Export License No. 143 to cover such parcels.

PRESIDENT WILL ANNOUNCE WHEN PEACE IS MADE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The statement was authorized at the White House this morning that whenever word came of the signing of an armistice in France, President Wilson himself would announce it immediately.

When this assurance was given the Government had not been advised whether the German armistice delegation had reached Marshal Foch's headquarters behind the French lines, where they were expected about noon to-day, Paris time.

Mary Pickford Is Sued For $138,000

New York.—For services alleged to have been instrumental in enabling Mrs. Gladys Mary Moore, better known as Mary Pickford, to draw a salary of $10,000 a week for 104 weeks from June 24, 1916, from the Pickford Film Corporation, Mrs. Cora Carrington Wilkening, theatrical and literary agent, brought suit before Supreme Court Justice DeLoach and a jury to recover $138,000 in commissions from the star. Mary Pickford's income for the last two years from the film company, the lawyers for both sides agreed, was $1,000,000. Mary took the witness stand, but played to a small house.

Mrs. Wilkening testified the defendant expressed her inability to see why Charlie Chaplin was getting a higher salary than herself and agreed to pay the plaintiff 10 per cent. commission on the latter's successful efforts in getting a better contract for her. She told of her visit to a Benjamin B. Hampton and a Mr. H. E. Wheeler, president of the National Coal Association to contribute at least one-quarter of one per cent. of their capital stock to the $170,000,000 United Work Campaign Fund, the nation-wide drive for which begins Monday.

After several other dickers with film magnates, Mrs. Wilkening declared she was successful in negotiations that resulted in Adolph Zukor of the Famous Players Film Corporation signing a contract with Miss Pickford, whereby the latter was to get $10,000 weekly, a bonus of $500,000 and $40,000 to recompense her for looking after scenarios for four weeks.

Miss Pickford denied all these statements. She admitted meeting Mr. Hearst in the plaintiff's office, but insisted that Mrs. Wilkening had not introduced her to him.

"I had met Mr. Hearst before," smiled Miss Pickford, "but not in a business way. I danced with him."

The actress explained that Mrs. Wilkening telephoned to her shortly after a heart offer at her office and had a good offer to make. When she met Mr. Hearst, he spoke about the war and "other things" until she said she asked him about the business offer. She declared he expressed surprise, saying he had heard the defendant offer was to come from her. Nothing came of the meeting.

Miss Pickford seemed relieved when the court ordered adjournment for ten minutes while the City Hall bell and countless sirens announced the Austrian surrender.

JEWS TO COMPARE CHANUKAH TO HUN

Eight-Day Festival Commemorating Historic Incidents Begins November 28

The festival of Chanukkah, commemorating the historic incidents related in the apocryphal Books of the Maccabees, will be celebrated in the Jewish homes for eight days, beginning November 28.

The festival embodies the elements of the present world struggle, as the heroic suffering of the Jews of that day finds a modern parallel in the plight of the Belgian people. In many a Jewish household the famous Antiochus Epiphanes of the story will be compared to his successor in spirit, the inhuman, and now no less infamous Emperor of Germany, Wilhelm II.

Like his modern embodiment, the ancient tyrant of Syria found the land of Israel a stumbling block in the pathway of his willful territorial expansion. In order to destroy all vestiges of independence in Judea, this tyrant sought to crush the Jewish religion and to set up his pagan cult in its place. Then Judah the Lion arose and with God's help smote the hosts of the Syrian and rolled back the armies of oppression.

The anniversary is therefore known as the Festival of Rededication (Chanukkah). It is a home festival, and is signalized by lighting candles on each of the eight evenings in these troubled days the heart of every Jew will go forth to the Belgian sufferers and will find agreement in the message of the festival, which is addressed to Belgium as well as to Israel and to all humanity.

Soldier Votes in Some Confusion

Confused returns are being brought to the State Capitol by some of the commissioners appointed to take the votes of soldiers and sailors and it will take days to unravel some of the statements made in the books.

Several books filed yesterday and today fall to give the name of the camp where the votes were taken and the figures are jumbled, making endless possibilities where close contests may be involved. Less than half of the commissioners have brought in their returns.

When H. L. Reinhold, of Ardmore, who took the votes of the soldiers at League Island Navy Yard, arrived, he presented just one book and reported the ballots had been burned. His reason for this course was that "they used to do that way fifty-six years ago" when he was active in election work.

Deputy Secretary of the Commonwealth George D. Thorn, promptly rose to the occasion and finding out what had been done got a statement and will certify the figures on the book filed here to the interested counties. Mr. Reinhold is advanced in years.

It transpired to-day that when William M. Hargett, Deputy Attorney General, who was a commissioner to Fort Oglethorpe, found that no one had been sent to Camp Forrest where there were many men, he organized a board there, too, and held an election.

After the Grippe

To regain your health and strength again you must take a tonic, and for this purpose the Medical Profession is prescribing Iron, Nux Vomica, Gentian, Capsicum and Zinc Phosphate in some form. Many preparations containing Iron are very constipating, but this is overcome by the addition of Aloin in Chase's Blood and Nerve Tablets, which contain all of the above tonic remedies.

In these Tablets you have all that is good in tonic medicines without any harmful effects. They are safe and sure health builders and at this particular time it would be hard to overestimate their value.

Nearly all druggists sell Chase's Blood and Nerve Tablets at sixty cents a box. Special ninety cents.

Whitman May Seek a Re-count in City

New York, Nov. 8.—Governor Whitman departed for Albany yesterday without admitting defeat. Before going to the railroad station he called at Republican State Committee headquarters in West Thirty-ninth street and instructed Republican State Chairman George A. Glynn not to concede the election of

Only Ten Patients Left in Emergency Hospital

Ten patients are now being treated at the Emergency Hospital which was opened at the Open Air School, Fifth and Seneca streets, as soon as they can be sent home the building will be thoroughly fumigated and cleaned and will be used again for school sessions. All other public schools in the city will open on Monday, but it may be necessary to delay opening the building now used for the hospital until later in the week. Two of the patients there now are in a serious condition and cannot be moved. Four others may be sent home late in the afternoon. In the county districts many of the schools in the lower end opened last night, but a large number of buildings in the upper end of the county are still closed.
