British Naval Officer Hero of Otranto Disaster

Lieutenant F. W. Craven, of the British Royal Navy, has earned for himself a place in the annals of the world's naval heroes. When the American transport Otranto, carrying American troops overseas, was seriously crippled in a collision with the steamer Kashmir, it was Lieutenant Craven, in command of the British torpedo boat destroyer Moundsey, acting as convoy, who ordered those aboard the stricken Otranto to lower the lifeboats, to act as buffers, and then brought his tiny vessel alongside the Otranto and held her close while the soldiers jumped from the transport to the deck of the destroyer. Lieutenant Craven has been mentioned in official dispatches for his heroic deed.

Harry C. Baum, Former President of Council, Is Dead After Long Illness

After an illness covering a period of more than nine weeks, Harry C. Baum, former president of Common Council and a prominent employe of the Pennsylvania Railroad, died at his home, 38 North Seventeenth street, of pleurisy.

Mr. Baum, who was well-known through the city, took an active part in local politics. In the fall of 1917 he was elected a member of Common Council from the Ninth ward. In 1909 he was returned to his position by the voters of the Ninth for his second term, and shortly afterwards was made president of common council, holding his office until the expiration of his term in 1911.

Mr. Baum has been in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad for the past twenty-five years, being assistant division operator of the Philadelphia Division at the time of his death. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Margaret Baum, one brother, William Baum, of Cleveland, Ohio, and three sisters, Mrs. Emma Goodhart, of Reading, and Misses Fannie and Minnie Baum, and Miss Fernald. Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the residence of his father, Elmer E. Strohm, Lucknow. Burial will be in the Heckton cemetery. His father and three brothers, Elmer Strohm, Jr., John M. Strohm, and Robert H. Strohm survive.

Funeral services for Allen E. Witmer were held Tuesday afternoon at his late home, 2213 Brookwood street. The Rev. M. E. Shafer, pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, officiated. His wife, parents and the following brothers and sisters survive: Roy Witmer, Harry Witmer, Isaac Witmer and Mable Witmer, Mrs. Annie Johnson and Mrs. Mary Johnson.

Mrs. Margaret Shaffner, wife of James P. Shaffner, 2118 Greenwood street, yesterday afternoon at the Emergency Hospital. She was aged 33 years. Surviving her are her husband, three children, her mother, a brother and a sister. Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

French Capture 1,500 in Drive

French advance elements reached Liart, thirty kilometers north of Rethel.

"Further to the right we captured early to-day Signy and Frenois and penetrated into the outskirts of Sedan. The number of prisoners taken yesterday was more than 1,500. The amount of material captured was increased considerably."

Members of the National War Aid who have not already made contributions to the Red Cross Linen Shower, were urged by Mrs. William Jennings, president, in a statement issued this morning, to do so at once. Mrs. Jennings, in her plea, laid emphasis on the great need for linens in the hospitals overseas, and asked the cooperation of the members in the drive. She urged that if linen could not be given, financial contributions could be made, and asked that money be sent to Mrs. Herman Astrich, treasurer.

Yankee Infantry Rests After Capturing Sedan

With the American Forces on the Sedan Front, Nov. 8.—2 p. m.—Beyond artillery and machine gun fire which was particularly active in the region of Sedan there has been little to report from the battle front since last night. No infantry action has been reported on any sector of the American front.

The roads leading eastward from Sedan, Stenay, Conflans and Longuyon are reported by the American aviators to be packed to repletion with cannon and various vehicles making in the direction of Metz. The vehicles are laden with everything portable.

The southern portion of Sedan, and the towns of Stenay and Mouzon are reported on fire.
