ASH COLLECTION CONTRACT PLAN. [Continued from First Page.] ment, he claims, has been a satisfactory one but he is planning now to have the collections of ashes made oftener next year at least during the winter months. Numerous complaints have been received here. It will cost the city more money, he said, but will insure much better service.

Behind in Schedules. At present collections are being made, according to officials of the Bureau of Ash and Garbage Inspection, in accordance with the schedule of the last month there was some difficulty in maintaining this arrangement they said due to the epidemic of influenza, which caused the collection of ashes to be delayed and at times had many of the other men at home sick.

May Collect Rubbish. It was also announced that an ordinance will be introduced in Council in a week or two which will be effective beginning January 1 and will provide for the collection of rubbish and ashes from all buildings in the city. It is planned, it is possible, to remove refuse from hotels and restaurants, fire company houses and other places not included in the present agreement.

WAR FUND IS VITAL. The following telegram was received at noon to-day by the Telegraph: "The united conclusion is that no matter how near or how distant permanent peace may be, the long period of demobilization which will follow will present greater dangers for the service of the United States than any other period. Therefore the request for an over-subscription of the United States War Fund is most necessary. Our advisors in the American Army and Navy believe that the subject of this fund is of the greatest importance and that the period which will follow cessation of hostilities. A letter from President Wilson will appear in two days expressing his satisfaction that our plans have been arranged to render his public service."
