Ducks, Hot Biscuits and SNOODLES Gravy With Tom Marshall

ne dulcet notes of a duck and, ands-ropped in, affording most excel-int shooting. We were soon con-inced that our bag limit would be ached before the evening flight birted. Then came the "shot bout" order, scorng mallard ducks of the male persuasion only.

Old Green Heads
There can be no more attractive bird or entrancing mark to direct

Officers' Training School

Del., has been admitted to the Coast Artillery Officers Training School at

L. C. Lightner Goes to

Evansville, Ind.
Answer: Locate a professional tequipped with a try gun or a knowledge of guns and their construction. He will measure you accurately, determining all requisites. You are on the right plan. Get your gun to shoot.

Personal and Social Items

WEST SHORE NEWS

By Hungerford

pounds. To-day Flags carried 129 pounds and paid 8 to 1.

Flags had the time of his life to get to the wire a nose in front of Jeck Scot who, in turn, just stalled off Bulse. It was a great finish and none knew which had won until the official numerals were posted. Every horse in the race except Nepherhan, whose fatest time for the route has been 1.13, has run the three-quarters between 1.11 and 1.12 2-5.

The favorite of the contest was Sam Hildreth's Lucillite, with Motor Cop. who was coupled with Boniface.

The favorite of the contest was Sam Hildreth's Cirrus trick.

Sam Hildreth's Cirrus trick.

Sam Hildreth's Cirrus trick.

Park Club Players

the money.

The Beach stable also put over Ground Swell in second event. The odds against this one's chances being almost 13 to 1. Close finishes ruled the day. Noses and heads sepof Towns on West Shore

in Contest Today For William Payord Cup

Kalser von Wilhelm, may his tribe
Awoke one night from a dream on
"Mittel Europa; Mein Gott!" was his
And Satan replied with a low his sing monn:
"You called the wrong party; but I'll
For you'll make a good help-meet; you lead all the rest.

corner of Main street and Railroad avenue. Should it be impossible to hold the meeting outside it will be held at the Bethel Church of God. The Rev. Mr. Bucher, pastor of the Church of God at Mechanicsburg, will deliver an addess and the community chorus will sing. There is every indication that Shiremans town will" go over the top" in this campaign, as it has in former campaigns. A great outpouring of the town is expected for Sunday affernoon.

PARTY FOR SON

Marysville, Pa., Nov. 9.—Mr. and

sister, Mrs. Charles E. Laverty, at Enola.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Sweeney and daughter, Elizabeth, of Philadelphia, are guests of J. B. Sweeney's family, in Bridge street, New Cumberland.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Sweeney and daughter, Elizabeth, of Philadelphia, in Bridge street, New Cumberland.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Sweeney and daughter, Elizabeth, of Philadelphia, are guests of J. B. Sweeney's family, in Bridge street, New Cumberland.

Mrs. Keworth, of West Hillside, the Patriot and News was mighty good to us; sold more whisky that inght than any time in ten years."

Harrisburg Saloonkeeper.

Said owner to the ed.

We'll bust loose with 'the war is over;'
and at Camden, N. J., is spending several days at his home at New Cumberland.

Chester Baker, employed in a ship yeard at Camden, N. J., is spending several days at his home at New Cumberland.

Chester Baker, employed in a ship several days at his home at New Cumberland.

Chester Baker, employed in a ship home at New Cumberland.

Chester Baker, employed in a ship several days at his home at New Cumberland.

Chester Baker, employed at the patriot and News was mighty food to us; sold more whisky that that that that that the Alixed Card Club at the patriot and News was mighty shight.

Albert Hanchker, owner of the box factory, is ill with influenza at his home in Third street, New Cumberland.

Chester Baker, employed in a ship ship than any time in ten years."

Said owner to the ed.

We'll bust loose with 'the war is over;'

Harrisburg Saloonkeeper.

The'twas a fake, alright, th

PARTY FOR SON

Marysville, Pa., Nov. 9.—Mr. and
Mrs. J. N. Roush gave a surprise party Thursday evening in honor of their son, Ernest. After a pleasant evening refreshments were served to: Misses Pauline Patterson, Leah
Beers, Victoria Hipple, Vera Nace,
Marjorie Nace, Helen Roberts, Erma
Bolze, Margaret Deckard, Gertrude
Roush, Roseana Dice, George Corl,
Raymond Kennedy, James Bell, Al
fred Ensminger, Norman Wolf,
Howard Adams, Ernest Kennedy and
Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Roush. CONGREGATIONAL MEETING Shiremanstown, Pa., Nov. 9.—The annual meeting of St. John's congregation will be held this evening at Keller Memorial Church at 7.30 o'clock. All the reports will indicate healthful progress in the external life of the congregation. Sunday evening the organist, Mrs. George Kubacher, will give a brief organ recital before the service and the pastor, the Rev. H. K. Lantz, will preach.

SERVICES RESUMED

New Cumberland, Pa., Nov. 9.—
To-morrow regular services will be held at St. Paul's Lutheran Church. The Rev. David S. Martin will preach his first anniversary sermon at 10.30. At 7.30 his subject will be "The Only Defense." SERIES OF PICTURES Marysville, Pa., Nov. 9.—The Rev. S. B. Bidlack will continue his sermon, "Our Boys in France," from last Sunday by giving illustrated series of pictures.

CONDUCTED 17 FUNERALS
New Cumberland, Pa., Nov. 9.—
The Rev. A. R. Ayres, of Trinity
United Brethren Church, New Cumberland, officiated at seventeen funerals during the past month. RETURNED TO CAMP
Marysville, Pa., Nov 9.—H. M.
Deckard after spending several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H.
J. Deckard, has returned to Camp
Greenleaf, Ga.

Flags Beats a Great

Marysville, Pa., Nov. 9.—L. C.
Lightner, former Harrisburg newspaperman and newspaper correspondent, for the past month in the Coast Artillery Corps at Fort Dupont,
Del., has been admitted to the Coast

Mrs. Adeline Baker, of Mechantesburg, visited Miss Marie Senseman, at Shiremanstown, on Wednesday.

Mrs. Adeline Baker, of Mechantesburg spent a day with his cousin, Mrs.

Miss Esther Yeagley, of Harrisburg, visited Miss Marie Senseman,
at Shiremanstown, on Wednesday.

Mrs. Adeline Baker, of Mechantesburg spent a day with his cousin, Mrs.

Miss Esther Yeagley, of Harrisburg, visited Miss Marie Senseman, at Shiremanstown, on Wednesday. icsburg, spent a day with her sister, Mrs. Sara Clauser, at Shiremans-Arthery Onicers Training School to Fort Monroe, Va. He is a graduate of the Marysville High school, class of 1914, and of Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, Pa., class of 1918. He is a member of the Lamba Chi Alpha fraternity.

Mrs. Sara Clauser, at Shiremanstown.

Mrs. Lewis D. Eshenbaugh, of Shiremanstown, and her daughter, Mrs. Frank Hilderbrand, of Philadelphia, visited friends at Harrisburg on Wednesday.

The Swarthmore-Franklin and Mar-finall football game scheduled for to-day has been called off. The Lan-caster legians were inoculated by the toolege physicians and it was feared they would not be in condition for a respectable battle.

Two more hunters were victims yesterday to bone-head, tenderfoot, out-door boobs, near Pennsburg, Harvey Rotenberger, thirty-eight year old, of Trumbauersville, brother of Raymond Rotenberger, who died in France recently, was accidently saxt by John Levy, a comrade, while gunning for rabbits near his home. Pellets entered his leg and head, and his condition is considered critical. Clement Moyer, of East Greenville, received a charge of pellets while out hunting for rabbits. The charge came from some unidentified guaner.

"Who's leading of the Huns just now?"
Asked Patrick from the ranks,
"Who's running them is Pershing"
Said the sergeant; "with his Yanks."

J. Deckard, has returned to Camp Greenleaf, Ga.

CHURCH OF GOD SERVICES

New Cumberland, Pa., Nov. 9—
Services will be held in the Church of God to-morrow. The Rev. C. H. Hughes will have charge.

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

New Cumberland, Pa., Nov. 9—
The annual congregational meeting and election of officers will be held in St. Paul's Lutheran Church next Tuesday. The dedicatory services will be held Sunday, November 24.

Flags Beats a Great

Flags Beats a Great

Field of Thoroughbreds

At the Pimlico Track

Pimlico, Md., Nov. 9—Flags, carrying the silks of the Beach stable, beat the greatest field of handicap thoroughbreds ever gotten together for one race yesterday at Pimlico, He traveled the six furloings in 1.11 4-5, which equaled the record made a couple of years ago by a Leochares, who shouldered 103 to be confident and Coach Huichin—

Washington and Jefferson is very likely to be deprived of the services of one of its two veterans in the annual championship game with the University of Pittsburgh to-day. John Tressel, brilliant right, end, who is just recovering from an injured leg, developed an attack of tonsilitis and unless he shows improvement, will not be permitted to be deprived of the services of one of its two veterans in the annual championship game with the University of Pittsburgh to-day. John Tressel, brilliant right, end, who is just recovering from an injured leg, developed an attack of tonsilitis and unless he shows improvement, will not be permitted to be eprived of the services of one of its two veterans in the annual championship game with the University of Pittsburgh to-day. John Tressel, brilliant right end, who is just recovering from an injured leg, developed an attack of tonsilitis and unless he shows improvement, will nave of the services of one of its two veterans in the annual championship game with the University of Pittsburgh to-day. John We see a cheery smil. It is worth a million doellars and it doesn't cost a cent.

AROUND THE BASES

ABOU BEN KAISER

shall College, Lancaster, Pa., class of the Lamba Chi Alpha fraternity.

WAR. WORK MEETING
Shiremanstown, Pa., Nov. 9.—The entire community is ready for the great War Work campaign. A mass meeting will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. If the afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. If the afternoon is pleasant and not too cold the meeting will be held in front of Mrs. Harry D. Frey, daughters, Faul L. Wolfe and daughter, Myra moon is pleasant and not too cold the meeting will be held in front of Mrs. H. M. Rupp's vacant building at the meeting will be held in front of Mrs. L. Wolfe and daughter, Mrs. Charles E. Laverty, at Enola.

Mrs. Harry D. Frey, daughters, Myra massumed name, Not until his widow claimed his body did his didnity become known.

"It was a fake, alright, but at that help of the particular of the New York Nationals in the early nineties, died of tuberculosis in a hospital here early to-day, under hutchinson announced the Was-ling-name and not too cold the meeting will be held in front of Mrs.

H. M. Rupp's vacant building at the former's sister, Mrs. Charles E. Laverty, at Enola.

Mrs. Harry D. Frey, daughters, Myra massumed name, Not until his widow claimed his body did his dientity become known.

"It was a fake, alright, but at that the Patriot and News was mighty good to us; sold more whisky that hight than any time in ten years."

We York, Nov. 8.—"Silent Mike"

New York, Nov. 8.—"Silent Mike"

New York, Nov. 8.—"Silent Mike"

New York, Nov. 8.—"Silent Mike"

Tierman, famous batter and out-fielder of the New York Nationals in the early nineties, died of tuberculosis in a hospital here early to-day, under the western Pennsylvania field. Goach Hutchinson announced the Was-ling-name and the rest.

New York, Nov. 8.—"Sile

Great Lakes, Ill., Nov. 9.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight puglilst, nay exhibit his ring skill before King George in London next month as a member of the Great Lakes boxing team.

Special permission has been received to enlist him in the many, according to word received here.

Ye howling, babbling Germans; Let all of ye be still Till some one takes the "helm" from That Hohenzollern Bill.

"The only thing more destru than an invading Hun is a etreating one." Exchange.

U. of P. and Penn State meet in the first cross-country run to-day. From State seven men will make the trip. Cummings, Brown Kiviat, Bache, Heade, Wilde and Gosewich. Cummings, the colored runner, finished first in the meet last Sayarday with Meadowbrook. Brown, a newcomer from the Broadway High School, Seattle, Wash., finished second.

A PLEASANT SMILE

"The thing that goes the farthest toward making life worth while,
That costs the least and does the most, is just a pleusant smile.
The smile that bubbles from a heart that loves its fellowmen
Will drive away the clouds of gloom
and coax the sun again.
It's full of worth, and goodness ,too,
with manly kindness blent—
It's worth a million dollars and it doesn't cost a cent.

7 Cents

---but the same quantity of Havana in a Sumatra wrapper that's been there for 27 years.

¶ When war times sent labor and materials sky high —

We might have cut the size— We might have cut the quality—and ... We might have maintained the price.

¶ But we reasoned it wasn't the price that gave you smoke - satisfaction during some or all of the past 27 years

> We maintained the same quantity-We maintained the same quantity of Havana in a Sumatra wrapper—that you've always found in King Oscars-

We increased the price.

¶ We don't know whether this necessary increase will appeal to you at first crack —

¶ But we do know that King Oscar regularity always will.

¶ And we know this, too —

KING

¶ One of these days you'll get hungry for one of the old-time smokes

¶ You'll hanker for that same smoke satisfaction you've known for

¶ And you'll feel as though you've just got to get back of a King

It will be waiting for you in the dealer's case just around the corner and you'll find it the same good old friend it's always been.

John C. Herman & Company

OSCAR CIGARS

P. S.—If you've never smoked King Oscars — go 'round the corner and get acquainted with a good friend.