

ARMISTICE NOW SIGNED; HOSTILITIES HAVE ENDED

SURRENDER OF ENEMY ARMIES ENDS THE WAR

Fighting Ends 6 A. M. Today Paris Time

Washington, Nov. 11.—Armistice terms have been signed by Germany, the State Department announced at 2.45 o'clock this morning. There was no announcement as to whether hostilities had ceased or the hour at which they would cease.

The department's announcement simply said: "The armistice has been signed."

The world war will end this morning at six o'clock, Washington time, 11 o'clock Paris time. The armistice was signed by the German representatives at midnight. This announcement was made by the State Department at 2.45 o'clock this morning.

The announcement was made verbally by an official of the State Department in this form:

"The armistice has been signed. It was signed at 5 o'clock a. m., Paris time and hostilities will cease at 11 o'clock this morning, Paris time."

The terms of the armistice, it was announced, will not be made public until later. Military men here, however, regard it as certain that they include:

Immediate retirement of the German military forces from France, Belgium and Alsace-Lorraine.

Disarming and demobilization of the German armies.

Occupation by the Allied and American forces of such strategic points in Germany as will make impossible a renewal of hostilities.

Delivery of the German high seas fleet and a certain number of submarines to the Allied and American naval forces.

Disarmament of all other German warships under supervision of the Allied and American navies which will guard them.

Occupation of the principal German naval bases by sea forces of the victorious nations.

Release of Allied and American soldiers, sailors and civilians held prisoners in Germany without such reciprocal action by the associated governments.

THERE WAS NO INFORMATION AS TO THE CIRCUMSTANCES UNDER WHICH THE ARMISTICE WAS SIGNED, BUT SINCE THE GERMAN COURIER DID NOT REACH MILITARY HEADQUARTERS UNTIL 10 O'CLOCK YES-

Geddes Sure German Fleet Was Ordered Out, But Men Rebelled Rather Than Fight British

London, Nov. 10.—(British Wireless Service)—At the banquet following the Lord Mayor's "Victory" show Sir Eric Geddes, First Lord of the Admiralty, made interesting disclosures. He said that those who were charged with responsibility had waited hourly for the possibility of a naval Armageddon. The whole state was set for a great sea battle but something was wrong. The arm that was going to try the last desperate gambling stroke was paralyzed. "The German Navy, I am as convinced as I am standing here to-night," said the First Lord, "was ordered out, and the men would not come." Half the German fleet, he declared, was flying the red flag—and the German fleet was flying the red flag because it realized that it was not engaged in a good cause.

GERMAN TROOPS GO OVER TO THE REVOLUTIONISTS

Berlin, Saturday, Nov. 9.—(German Wireless to London, Nov. 10.—12.56 P. M.)—The German people's government has been instituted in the greater part of Berlin. The garrison has gone over to the government.
