The Mayor's Proclamation

"As was to have been expected, the German government has ac-cepted the terms of the armis-tice prepared by the Allies, The joy and happiness which must tice prepared by the Allies, The joy and happiness which must thrill every American's heart at this moment is indescribable, it is true that Harrisburg and the balance of the Nation have sorrowed at the loss of the blood of our sons and our neighbors' sons, "However, with the fall of autocracy, and the raising of the banner of democracy throughout the European states, we can find solace in the thought that the achievements brought by such sacrifice have not been in vain, "There are tears for those who

"There are tears for those who have fallen on the field of battle, but Honor smiles when she thinks that Pennsylvania valor is now, as it always has been, in the front ranks,

"To our women, I can truthfully say that, while they had nothing to do with the beginning of the war, yet they have served in it, and shared in much of the suffering it entails,

suffering it entails,
"They have served in silence,

VICTORY!

Let everybody be thankful and rejoice.

America helped in the greatest cause the world has ever experienced-and WON.

YOU have helped; every American has done his share.

American men, American women, American boys, American girls, give thanks and praise to the Almighty.

Civilization will go FORWARD; future generations will look back upon these times with reverence.

TODAY IS THE GREATEST DAY IN THE WORLD'S HISTORY

The benefits of this war will be million-fold to humanity.

All men will live as brothers henceforth.

There is no place on this earth for the tyrant. America has fought and bled for a principle; America has always fought for a principleand that PRINCIPLE is LIBERTY.

Let every AMERICAN live henceforth to uphold that principle.

Every NATION in both hemispheres reveres

AMERICANS in the service will not be back immediatel; the Seven War Work Organizations need your help so that they will be able to CARE FOR OUR BOYS.

You have so much to be thankful for that you will GIVE generously to the UNITED WAR WORK FUND.

Be a million per cent American NOW. Give THANKS TO GOD and give to the War Work Fund in seven-fold measure.
