

N. Market Square, 2nd Floo

that city,
Mrs. William Caveny and Mrs.
Harry Heller, of Altoona, spent Saturday here with relatives.

Greatest Blanket Sale We I ave Ever Held

Will Come on Wednesday Read Details in This Paper Tomorrow

Sergeant May is at his home awaiting his call.

Norman Todd, Dickinson S. A. T.
C. is spending the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Todd, 41
North Nineteenth street.

Mrs. William Linn, with her son, Porter, has gone to Pittsburgh, to visit her husband, who is employed in that city.

Washington—Hundreds of claimants lost their fight to-day to obtain damages from the death of relatives in the steamer Eastland disaster, the supreme court refusing to disturb decrees holding that the Great Lakes Towing Company had a preferred claim for holding the vessel. Lakes Towing Company had a pre-ferred claim for holding the vessel.

quickly remedied and the great mass moved on.

"There's a funny, one," shouted a happy girl as she saw a huge fruit truck come pounding down the street, crowded to the brim with loudly cheering women. It was funny, but it had its serious side. A woman in the load carried a piece of black crepe on her arm. On the crepe was a gold star. Governor Cheers Faraders Governor Brumbaugh mounted a Bethlehem Steel Company truck near the Bolton House. Forgetting official dignity, he waved an American flag and cheered just as loudly as the workingman. "It's great!" he said.

"I'm not going to work to-day." "I'm not going to work to-day," was the general refrain, Hundreds of patriotic Harrisburgers will be missing from the places of employ-Washington-"To the extent that we can, we will turn back those men who have been entrained and have not yet reached training camps," said Secretary of War Baker this afterment to-day. Business will be crippled but who cares? The war is ended!

London—The British government has decided to suspend recruiting.

New York—Graham Patterson, for seven years business representatives of the Christian Herald in the west, has become publisher of the undemoninational paper.

Washington—The American people have been asked by the Food Administration to discontinue afternoon teas, theater supper parties and all meals except the usual three a day.

TONDESTA

SOUTH SET TO Tuesday!!!

Help Us to Celebrate!!

Secure the Great Bargains Offered at This Sale!!!

Prices as in Saturday's Papers