

Washington Does Not Expect Drastic Move Upon Germany's Navy

Washington, Nov. 12.—Officials here are not inclined to expect immediate drastic action to force surrender of the German ships. The authorities at Berlin who ordered that the armistice be signed are responsible for the carrying out of its terms. Should they fail to do so in any particular, the armistice can be brought to an end abruptly and hostilities resumed to the extent necessary.

With the German army presumably under orders from Berlin the situation of the fleet in German harbors would be critical if they defied the Berlin authorities. Shore batteries soon could compel them to put to sea and the Allied naval power concentrated for the task undoubtedly would make short work of them. Officers here can yet see no serious threat of a renewal of hostilities because they believe the crews of the German ships realize the utter hopelessness of their situation if they attempt defiance.

Belgium Wants Complete Independence; Seeks to Throw Off Hun Contact

Washington, Nov. 13.—Belgium wants complete independence. In a statement made by the Belgian legation yesterday it was announced that Belgium will no longer submit to a status of "guaranteed neutrality" like that which existed prior to the war. It aspires to absolute independence; to the rights common to all free peoples.

Berne. — A general strike has begun throughout Switzerland. London. — German revolutionary soldiers were strictly ordered to prevent the former Emperor and his family escaping into Holland, says the Amsterdam correspondent of the Mail.

SAVE YOUR HAIR!

A SMALL BOTTLE STOPS DANDRUFF Every bit of dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out. Try this! Your hair appears glossy, abundant, wavy and beautiful.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its luster, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Does Your Husband Drink?

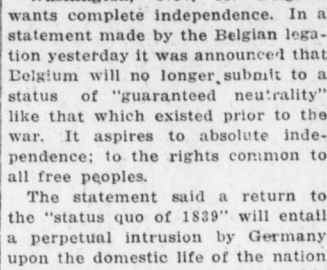

Druggist Tells How to Cure The Liquor Habit at Home

Free Prescription Can Be Filled At Any Drug Store And Given Secretly H. J. Brown, a Cleveland man, was for many years a confirmed drunkard. His friends and relatives despaired of ever redeeming him. His sister sought the best medical men in Europe in the hope that she might find something which would cure him. Finally she was recommended to an eminent chemist, who gave her a private formula (the same as appears below) and told her how to use it. She had it filled at the drug store and gave it to him secretly. The results were startling. In a few weeks he was completely cured. That was over eight years ago and he has not touched a drop since. He now occupies a position of trust and is enthusiastic in his efforts to help others overcome the liquor habit. He feels that he can best do this by making public the same formula which cured him. Here is the prescription: Go to any first-class drug store and get Prepared Tescum Powders. Drop one powder twice a day in coffee, tea or any liquid. It is harmless, tasteless, odorless and cannot be detected. You can use it without the knowledge of anyone. A lady who recently tried it on her husband reports: "My husband was on a spree when I got the powders and he usually stays drunk from three to four weeks at a time. After putting the powder in his coffee for four days he sobered up and has not taken a drink since and says he is through with it forever." He also complained that the whiskey did not taste the same. I shall not tell him what it did, but I am grateful for this help and I shall recommend it whenever possible.

SERVING THE NATION AT HOME AND ABROAD

Chester M. Long, Ross E. Stickel, Ray H. Kumber, Albert H. Yungel, Charles W. Baker, Jos. A. Minnaugh, James C. Snyder, Ray M. Gochenauer.

An interesting letter was received by Mr. and Mrs. John Stickel, Highland Terrace, Carlisle, from their son in France, First Lieutenant Ross E. Stickel, in which he states that he and many of his companions have had some narrow escapes in recent engagements.

After stating in the letter, which is dated October 13, that he is at present located in a beautiful Chateau in France, being a member of the Supply Company, Lieutenant Stickel writes as follows: "Since leaving our training area, some very valuable experience, and hardships as well, have been witnessed and endured by the men and officers of our command. While on the drive, which was a great success we had many narrow escapes and saw some very disastrous things which shall never be forgotten."

"I was under continuous shell fire for several hours at a time, shot at by snipers, and came through without a scratch. It was a miracle that I was many like myself pulled through. "Mother! In behalf of the boys of the 79th Division whose parents are in our locality, you can inform them that their sons have gone through a hard fight, and will never have anything half so hard in the future. But I think the Hun is beginning to realize that the American soldiers are a determined set; the German army has been demoralized and in every instance the Hun has been pushed back and beaten. And some day soon this great war will be over, and those of us who are left will return to the good old U. S. A."

Sails For France Mrs. Herbert S. Mitchell, of 627 Denton street, received word a few days ago that her son, Private Frank S. LeVan has sailed for overseas duty. Mrs. Mitchell's husband is also in the service, being stationed at Fort Logan, Arkansas, and another son, Sergeant Paul B. LeVan, stationed at Langley Field, Virginia. The latter is home on a ten days' furlough.

Besides having a husband and two sons in the service, Mrs. Mitchell has shown her patriotism by subscribing for several Liberty Bonds, and has purchased a number of government War Saving Stamps. Moreover, she is a member of the Red Cross and has been doing her share and more of knitting for the boys "over there."

Has Three Stripes In a letter dated October 3, to his sister, Private Ray H. Kumber, of Mechanicsburg, writes that he is about to receive his second service stripes and that he also has a wound stripe to his credit. In a letter dated a few days later, young Kumber writes: "A soldier's life is a wonderful life. It will make a man out of anyone. I would not give my uniform for the most expensive civilian suit in the world. The letter of October 3 follows: "I am about to receive my second service stripe and have a wound stripe to my credit also. Both my arms and legs were burned with mustard gas. But do not worry, as I am doing fine now. "Gee, but it did look good to see real American, kind hearted nurses once more. They treat one like a brother or sweetheart. We have many things to thank them for."

Arrives in France Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Minnaugh, 624 Race street, have been advised of the safe arrival overseas of their son, Private Joseph A. Minnaugh, who is attached to the Motor Transport Corps. Private Minnaugh was formerly chief clerk in the office of City Treasurer C. E. Weber. Prior to that he was a clerk in one of the largest city banking institutions. Anxious to get into service Mr. Minnaugh applied for induction and was sent to Pittsburgh a few months ago for training.

Held in Camp Private Ray M. Gochenauer, 1563 Vernon street, who was reported missing in action after an engagement September 1, has been reported to an official announcement of the War Department. Private Gochenauer is a member of Company G, 112th Infantry of the 28th Division. He went into action July 3 and was reported as missing September 1. The location of the camp where he is held prisoner was not given in the report.

Enjoys Camp Life Another of our Harrisburg boys is enjoying his life in camp. He is Corporal Chester M. Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Long. Corporal Long was sent to Columbus, Ohio, in June, and from there to Camp Sheridan, Alabama. While in training at the latter camp he was made corporal. He was formerly connected with the Kendall Optical Company of this city.

Arrives Overseas Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Yungel have received word of the safe arrival overseas of their son, Albert H. Yungel. Mr. Yungel was formerly manager of the DandY Line shoe stores of Harrisburg and Lebanon, which stores are operated by the Devine and Yungel Shoe Manufacturing Company of this city. Mr. Yungel had his training at the Lehigh University at Bethlehem, and has been attached as First Sergeant to Company B, 347th Labor Battalion at Camp Stewart, Newport News, from which place he sailed overseas. An interesting letter was received from Private James C. Snyder by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James F.

Serbians Free Capital of Montenegro; Disperse German Guards and Booty

London, Nov. 13.—Cettinje, the capital of Montenegro, has been liberated by a Serbian official statement issued Tuesday. On Sunday Serbian troops entered the town of Versecz, in Hungary, twenty-five miles north of the Danube, dispersing and capturing elements of German rearguards. A number of guns and war material were captured. The Serbians also entered Novissad.

County Firemen Organize With Demming as Chief

A successful organization of the firemen of Dauphin county was effected last night with the founding, at the Washington Chemical House, of the Dauphin County Volunteer Firemen's Association. No less than thirty-two fire companies have joined in the organization with a membership of over 7,000.

The association elected by unanimous vote the following officers: President, Col. Henry C. Demming, of Good Will No. 7. Vice-Presidents, John E. Shupp, Baldwin Hose Company No. 4, Steelton; Clayton R. Bauman, Rescue Hose Company, Middletown; and W. L. Jauss, Washington Chemical No. 4, Harrisburg.

Germans Protest Hunger War and Wde Suffering

Copenhagen, Nov. 1.—A dispatch from the Wolff Bureau says the German Socialists have telegraphed Hjalmar Branting, the Swedish socialist leader, laying emphasis on the statement that the continuation of the blockade is causing suffering in Germany, involving women and children. "The proletariat of all enemy countries protest against a hunger war," says the dispatch, which requests Branting to communicate the appeal of the Socialists to the international organization.

To Send Fighters Home as Places Are Found

Washington, Nov. 13.—Demobilization of men in the military and naval service of the United States after their return from France will be carried out largely on a basis of the ability of trades and occupations to absorb them, under a plan being worked out by the labor, war and navy departments and the war industries board. It was said yesterday that the plan will be submitted to President Wilson in a few days.

Women Sufferers May Need Swamp-Root

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney and bladder trouble and never suspect it. Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease. If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition they may cause the other organs to become diseased. Pain in the back, headache, loss of ambition, nervousness, are often times symptoms of kidney trouble. Don't delay starting treatment. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a physician's prescription, obtained at any drug store, may be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions. Get a medium or large size bottle immediately from any drug store. However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer and Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When word be sure to mention the Harrisburg Daily Telegraph.
