

THIRD OF CITY'S WAR FUND MUST YET BE RAISED

$51,000 of $180,000 Quota to Be Met in Home Drive

MANY BLOCKS GOING 100%

Whole Town Hopes to Be Painted Red Soon

Harrisburgers must contribute more than $51,000 to the United War Work Fund before to-morrow evening if the campaign is to be successful in the city.

Look to Homes The major portion of the $51,255 still unsubscribed will be raised by the home workers this afternoon and to-morrow.

In the meantime, ward leaders and canvassers are working at high pitch to make every door on the huge courthouse map, and on the maps throughout the city, as red as possible.

Ward workers report considerable zeal in the efforts of many citizens to make their blocks red on the map by personally appealing to their neighbors to respond readily to the canvassers who make the call.

Plan for Jubilee Paul Johnson, chairman of the headquarters, emphasized the need of large personal subscriptions from householders if the ward quotas are to be raised.

At a meeting late this afternoon, plans for the jubilee mass meeting to be held in the Chestnut street auditorium to-morrow night were discussed.

To Sing New Song J. H. Kurzenkne, born in Germany, but now a patriotic citizen of America and resident of Harrisburg, with a rendition of his patriotic song "The Flag We Love," will be one of the features of the meeting.

Charles E. Pass, chairman of the fraternal committee, this morning announced $164 subscribed since noon yesterday.
