

A Runaway's Glimpse of Glory

The International Sunday School Lesson for November 17 is: "Jacob Fleeing From His Angry Brother"—Genesis 28:10-22

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS

Some persons need to be scared or smitten into reformation. There is plenty of precedent and warrant for the chastening of Germany in order to insure a change in her character. Jacob, son of Isaac, who had not a few points in common with the Kaiser, had to be soundly frightened, and his ambitious schemes wrecked, before he ever found his better self.

Called the Land of Beginning Again. Where all our mistakes, and all our heartaches. And all our poor, selfish grief could be dropped like a shabby old coat, at the door. And never put on again.

tous journey than on Haran; he was on his way to a great idea. For the first time, apparently, he was taking vital account of God.

The Dream and the Song. Night had fallen. The frightened Jacob had kept going, fearful ever of hearing the shout of his avenging brother behind him.

"Your Little Pets Need Cascarets"

When children quarrel and fight, See if the little tongues are white. Hurry! clean the clogged-up places; Bring back smiles to little faces.

MOTHERS! You need never worry after giving your cross, feverish, bilious or constipated child a Cascaret. This harmless candy cathartic thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels of all the toxins, sour fermentations and poisons.

SCHOOL-DAY STRAIN

A parent troubled over a child or a fast-growing youth, could do no better than to utilize the definite help that affords as a strengthening and nourishing factor. A very little of Scott's every day, during a time of stress, furnishes elements of nourishment essential to the blood and tends to confirm a growing child in robustness.
