

GERMAN HIGH SEAS FLEET SAILS FROM HOME PORTS TO SURRENDER TO ALLIES

American Navy Will Participate in Grand Review

GREAT VESSELS TO BE TAKEN

U-Boats Sail For Rendezvous Fixed by Entente

London, Nov. 19.—German submarines to be handed over to the Allies have passed through the Kaiser Wilhelm canal on their way to England, according to advices received in Copenhagen from Kiel and transmitted by the Exchange Telegraph Company.

Copenhagen, Nov. 19.—The section of the Kiel fleet which has started for the North Sea to surrender to the Allies comprises the battleships Bayern, Grosser Kurfuerst, Kronprinz Wilhelm, Markgraf, Konig Albert and Kaiserin and the cruisers Seydlitz and Moltke.

London, Nov. 19.—The program for the surrender of the German fleet as the result of conferences held between British and German naval authorities, is that the ships will leave German ports on Wednesday and will be taken over by the Allies on Thursday.

The Times naval correspondent writing of the subject of the submission of the fleet, says: "Surrender to be Impressive. The surrender in accordance with the armistice conditions will be made to a force in which the navies of France and America, as well as our own, are represented. In its outward signs the business cannot fail to be impressive.

"The appearance of the long lines of vessels to be surrendered, carrying reduced crews and no armament; the method of their transference to the allied escorts; the exchange of flags on the German ships when that happens and the striking of the colors which have replaced the imperial ensign, the ancient token of yielding, will be among the more interesting features of the manifestation.

There is another significance which attaches to this act of submission, for it represents the non-fulfillment of one of the principal purposes for which the German navy was created—to protect Germany's sea trade and colonies.

Germany's Loss Is Great. "The war has come to an end and Germany has lost her colonies and Vienna, via Geneva, Nov. 19.—The situation in Vienna, where the first American correspondent, that of the Associated Press, arrived last week, appears to be that there is more talk than disorder, with urgent need for bread, especially for the poor of Austria. Table with 3 columns: County, Quota, Subscribed. Lists Harrisburg, Dauphin, Cumberland, West Shore, Franklin, Juniata, Lebanon, Perry, and York with their respective quotas and subscription amounts.

The Sixth Pennsylvania district, comprising ten counties, subscribed $847,543 in the United War Work Campaign. The quota was $800,000. The district subscribed 106 per cent of its quota and was one of six Pennsylvania districts to go over the top on schedule time.

Dauphin county subscribed $52,551, or $2,551 more than its quota. Harrisburg subscribed approximately $12,000 more than its $180,000 quota. The original quota apportioned Dauphin county was $197,000. The city and county committees decided to fix the quota at $230,000 and to date have oversubscribed it by $11,734 or more.

Work Hard For Success Five of the ten counties have not subscribed their quotas but are working hard to secure the necessary amounts before to-morrow evening, when the campaign officially closes. The Sooner We Can Engage a Governess the Better

GERMANS MARCH FIRST TIME TO 'MARSEILLAISE'

Teuton Band Leading Procession Plays the Famous French Anthem

Berlin, Nov. 19.—For the first time since the founding of the German empire the "Marseillaise" was played by a German band heading a procession down Unter den Linden. Present indications are that saner councils will dictate governmental policy in Germany. The convening of the constituent assembly is being urged in diplomatic and political quarters not identified with the present cabinet on the sole ground that it will facilitate peace negotiations. Friedrich Ebert, the premier, has frankly declared in an address that there was no necessity for the Red Guard. "I have no anxiety for the new government because it is sustained by the confidence of the masses. We have received news that the troops were orderly when the armistice was declared in the back areas, however, it was different. Many cases of haste to return home are reported. In Baden and Wurttemberg the troops streaming back from the front constitute a great danger to security. Negotiations are in progress to obtain food from America, for food is what we need. Peace and order means transport facilities. All soldiers' councils must place themselves at the service of the government to hasten demobilization. Democracy can march only if its head is untouched. Then, too, we have prospect of getting peace conditions which at least may be somewhat favorable. "If the enemy sees anarchy amongst us he will dictate conditions which will entirely destroy German economic life. Therefore, go forward to common work for the future."

President of Mormon Church Dies of Stroke

Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 19.—Joseph F. Smith, president of the Mormon Church, died at his home early today after a long illness. Death was due indirectly to a paralytic stroke suffered last April. Notwithstanding his illness President Smith attended the recent semiannual conference of the church, held the first week of October, and spoke strongly against polygamous marriages, which it was rumored had been surreptitiously performed during the last few years.

COUNCIL THANKS NAVY HEAD FOR HIGH HONOR

Big American Transport Bears Name of "Harrisburg" on the High Seas; City Pleased at Consideration Shown Council passed unanimously today a resolution introduced by Mayor Daniel E. Keister, expressing the appreciation of the city to Secretary of the Navy Daniels for giving a transitory name of Harrisburg. The resolution follows: "Whereas, the Secretary of the Navy has given an American transport the name of Harrisburg, thus honoring the Capital City of a state whose sons have served with great gallantry in the cause of freedom and justice and humanity; therefore, be it resolved, that the City Council of Harrisburg, in regular session assembled, express in behalf of the

Square Yourself With the Boys Over There

THE War Work drive is not over. You have until to-morrow evening to give, if you have not already given. Says the New York Times: "It is not agreeable to contemplate the fact that the drive has had to be extended two days because it could not raise the money needed in the eight days first allotted. In the last Liberty Loan campaign a pungent Western versifier wrote—in the columns of The Des Moines Register, according to our recollection: "I'd rather be a yellow dog, My only home a hollow log or garbage can, Than have the boys, when they come home, Find out that I refused a loan To Uncle Sam. "But how about refusing, 'not a loan to Uncle Sam, but a gift to the boys themselves? How about having them, when they come home, find out that the reason why they had such a hard time during the year they had to spend in Germany was due to the fact that you and others refused to contribute to the seven associations, Jewish, Catholic, Protestant, and nonsectarian, that would have made it an easy time? For that is what it amounts to if you refuse to give."

ST. LEGER RINGS OUT WELCOME TO YANKEE SOLDIERS

Women, Children and Aged Men Embrace Their Deliverers in Belgium

With the American Forces of Occupation, Nov. 19.—The forward movement into Belgium halted at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon when the advancing elements of the Second division entered St. Leger. A detachment of cavalry first entered. This was followed a few minutes later by the officers and the staff in cars. A crowd of citizens had gathered in the streets and began rolling up the shutters of the little shops. The church bells were rung and the Mayor and his wife came out in front of their home and welcomed the officers and correspondents and invited them to become the Mayor's guests. Women, children and aged men crowded about the soldiers, embracing them. [Continued on Page 13.]

RIVERSIDE GETS CITY'S HELP IN REPAIRING HOMES

Relief Committee Named by the Mayor Makes an Inspection

To determine the extent of the storm damage at Riverside a complete survey will be made by a special relief committee appointed by Mayor Keister. Arrangements have already been made to clean up some of the wreckage and rebuild parts of some of the houses which were damaged by the storm late Sunday night. Commissioner C. W. Burnett, who is chairman of the relief committee, said that so far no reports of actual suffering had been received, and that although many families had suffered much loss because of the storm, present no outside relief was needed. Hard at Work Repairs to the houses which are being made to-day will be of such construction that the residents will only need to change the roofing. At present frame roofs are being constructed and later tin or slate can be spread over them. City Assessor James C. Thompson announced he will revise the valuations of at least thirty of the properties badly damaged by the storm. He also said that some of the assessments of vacant ground in the Fourteenth ward may be revised. Mayor Keister and other city officials and prominent businessmen worked all day yesterday in the district in which houses were wrecked or badly damaged by the tornado. Until last night every one living in the section had been provided for and made comfortable. Following a request from the mayor, Adjutant General Frank D. Beary, ordered a large truck load of canvas and some workmen on the scene and soon temporary roofs were placed on the dwellings. Students from the Technical High School also went to the district and started to work replacing windows and broken doors and repaired other places. Thirty carpenters most of them furnished by the Pennsylvania railroad, have offered to rebuild the storm stricken section and this morning started to work under the supervision of Joseph W. Pomraining, a local contractor.

MAJOR GRAY HERE TO DISCUSS RIVER DEEPENING PLAN

Noted Engineer to Speak at Public Meeting in Technical High School

IT CAN EASILY BE DONE

First Conference Held With State Officials Regarding Commonwealth's Part

Major William B. Gray arrived in Harrisburg last evening from Delaware City, where he is engaged in superintending a big government contract, to speak by permission of the War Department this evening at a public meeting to be held in the Technical High school on making the Susquehanna river navigable. While the meeting will be held under the auspices of the Harrisburg Rotary Club, and representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, the state government, the Engineers' Club, the Kiwanis Club and delegations from Columbia and elsewhere, will be present by special invitation, the public is invited. No tickets will be required and admission will be free. Major Gray, who has conducted many big water way projects in recent years, has spent all his leisure during the past few months in gathering data on the Susquehanna problem, and is convinced that the river can be made navigable for seagoing craft at a cost that would not be prohibitive. The idea, of course, is to have the government, assisted by the Commonwealth, perhaps, do the work, while interest in the project is to be aroused by a series of such meetings as will be held this evening. Major Gray has put his findings into concrete form, which will be given to the Telegraph for publication following his speech to-night. The plan will be followed by Chairman Zerkow of the state water supply commission, who also has made a careful study of the river problem. A preliminary conference with officials of the state government was held in the Senate Library at noon to-day.

FOOD SITUATION TO REMAIN SAME FOR COMING YEAR

Prices on Canned Goods Not Likely to Drop During the Winter

SHIPMENTS ARE BETTER

Relief From Possible Shortages Seen by Wholesale Grocers

The food situation is not likely to change materially with the advent of peace, according to the consensus of opinion of the city's wholesale grocers. To begin with, canned goods hardly will drop in price, as the government has taken over a large part of the canned goods products for a year to come. So far as is known, the government has not cancelled any of its contracts. Forty-five per cent of the tomato crop has been taken over by the government. Corn, peas and other products also have been contracted for by the government. The prices of products have been high in price and scarce in quantity for more than a year, their continued scarcity will not work unbearable hardships on consumers, it was said. California Hard Hit Nearly all California fruits will be rather difficult to procure, and stiff prices will prevail. Heavy rains in California affected the lima bean crops, and the fruit crops were below normal. However, the govern-

May Have Incubator For City's Smallest Baby

One of the smallest babies born in Harrisburg in recent years has been brought by the state to the home of L. J. McLeet, 1711 Appleton street. Mrs. McLeet, mother of the baby, was formerly Miss Mary Leasure, and is well-known here. The advisability of constructing a small homemade incubator is being considered as a means of protecting the infant from any change of temperature. The name of the baby boy is James Robert McLeet.
