My Prophecy Came True Early in the season I advocated the one-piece velvet dress as the best investment of the season. Every day has made this type of gown more popular. It is very effective under either small furs or fur coats, and it may be worn suitably at almost any time and place. Also velvet gowns are warmer than the afternoon gowns of transparent fabrics which we have been wearing and they afford adequate protection against changes of temperature or draughts. Two Velvet Frocks Specials No. 1: One piece Velvet Frock in taupe, navy and black, very smart lines, belted and button trimmed, unusual price for $25.00 No. 2: Russian model Velvet Frock, trimmed in soutache braid, navy, taupe, black and burgundy, unusual for $29.50 My store is closed every Saturday evening. It was the first store in Harrisburg to adopt this policy. Mary Sachs North Third Street at No. 210
