GIRL SCOUT MEETING
Sunflower Troop, No. 1, Girl Scouts, of Market Square Presbyterian Church will meet this evening. The Rev. Dr. George Edward Hawes will speak to the scouts of "The Work of the Girl Scouts in the Reconstruction Period."

The work of the organization is keeping in touch with families of mem who have gone into the service from the Pennsylvania railroad. Over 400 have gone from the Harrisburg shops.

A report from the visiting committee showed a number of cases helped, and although the war is over the women feel there is much work abead this winter.

Seventy-three new members were reported, making a total membership for this department of 2,638. A social hour followed the business session, at which coffee and doughnuts were served.

and Harry E. Beitzel Are Quietly Married

MRS. HARRY E. BIETZEL

Miss Marietta Sultzaberger and Harry E. Beitzel, both of Mechanicsburg, were quietly married last evening at 6 o'clock. The ceremony was solemnized in the parsonage of the United Brethren Church of Mechanicsburg, the Rev J. A. Gohn of-chanicsburg, the Rev J. A. Gohn officiating.

The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sultzaberger, wore a dark blue suit with Hudson seal trimmings and hat to harmonize.

Mrs. Beitzel has recently won success in the musical world. She is an artistic pianiste, a graduate pupil of Miss Laura Appell. Her playing at the Emergency Aid Benefit given last May in the Orpheum Theater, was greatly appreciated by music lovers. Mrs. Beitzel is an active member of the Wednesday Club and will be the piano soloist at the Wednesday Club concert to be given next Tuesday evening at Fahnestock Hall by the solo choir.

The bridegroom is connected with the coal and ice business in the firm of his father, D. J. Beitzel, of Mechanicsburg. He is a graduate of Norristown College, a member of the Business Men's League and the school board.

During the Year

At the annual meeting of the Harrisburg branch of the Needle-Work Guild of America held this morning in the assembly hall of the Y. M. C. A., Mrs. John Fox Weiss, president, was in the chair.

After the reading of the secretary's minutes and the treasurer's report the annual election took place with the following officers re-elected: Mrs. John Fox Weiss, president, Wrs. Henry McCornick, first fice-president; Mrs. John W. Reily, second vice-president; Mrs. Lyman D. Gibbert, secretary; Mrs. S. J. M. McCarrell, assistant secretary; Mrs. J. Roßs Swartz, treasurer.

The object of the guild is to furnish new, plain, suitable garments to our hospitals, homes and other charities. Men, women and children may become members by furnishing annually two new articles of useful clothing or by making a contribution of money.

Four thousand two hundred and seventy-one articles were collected this year. They were distributed among the following places: Children's Aid Society, city poor, Harrisburg Hospital, Home For the Florence Crittenton Home. In addition to the articles $100.93 was received in money contributions.

No meetings are held throughout the year. There are nineteen sections with presidents and they are notified at the time of the annual throughout the year. George T. Youngman, of Boston, The Eye Like a Camera
The eye is constructed so wonderfully and ingeniously that the handleraft of man has as yet not been able to construct so delicate in instrument. It is like a camera—the lens to focus, the lid as a shutter, the iris or color for a diaphragm, the thick coating of the cychall as a darkroom, the nerve as the sensitive plate, and, strange as it may seem, the images are bottom side up exactly as the images in the camera. Now so delicate and sensitive an instrument as the eye should have good care. Let us explain more fully to you how to care for the eyes. aunt, Mrs. Kenneth Grey, or Penn street.
