"When a Girl Marries"

By ANN LISLE

A New, Romantic Serial Dealing With the Absorbing Problems of a Girl Wife

CHAPTER X.
(Copyright, 1918, by Kings Features Syndicate, Inc.)
Jim's dinner was what I believe is called "a special success." Yet it was a nightmare to me.

Once upon a time I boasted as proudly as the next one that I had a "sense of humor." Now I often wonder where I've mislaid it—and if I'd have any use for it if it were around.

Certainly it wouldn't apply to the ugly changes I saw come over my husband in the dice game and in the excitement of the race on which he had staked his money. Nor can humor deal with this problem.

If Jim acts so nearly like a madman when he's winning, what will he do when he loses?

And I challenge the hosts of all the humorists since the world began to find anything laughable in Virginia's manner at sight of her husband—or of her treatment of me thereafter. She acted as if I had betrayed and deceived her and

DANGER AFTER SPANISH INFLUENZA OR GRIPPE

Now it Can Be Avoided and Treated. Simple Rules to Be Followed. No Occasion for Panic

No need of anyone being afraid of the after effects and slow recovery from Spanish Influenza, hard colds or Grippe, if they will use common sense and start in building up their health and strength the right way.

The main thing is to get the blood rich, red, and pure, so it can carry life-giving oxygen and strength to every part of the body. Impure blood is the cause of so many slow recoveries and run-downs.

Doctors say: "Get the blood right and the rest is easy, that nine-tenths of all sickness is due to lack of iron and phosphates; the healthy strong, vigorous man or woman's blood is always loaded with these two life-giving elements."

Physicians also claim with fresh air and nourishing food nothing equals Phosphated Iron as a blood tonic and health builder. Phosphated Iron takes hold from the first dose. Results are seen and felt; the appetite improves, food digests, appetite picks up, sleep is restful, there is a color in the cheeks and a sparkle to the eye that only blood charged with iron and phosphates can give.

It is the duty of everyone who has had Spanish Influenza, Grippe or a hard cold to build up their system with nature's tonic, Phosphated Iron. It sure is health protection. Safety first. The results will repay you many times. Give yourself a show-up. Special notice: To insure doctors and their patients getting the genuine Phosphated Iron we have put in capsules. Do not take pills or tablets. Insist on capsules.

On sale by G. A. Gorgas, the druggist, and leading druggists everywhere.

SKIN ERUPTIONS DISAPPEAR BLISS NATIVE HERB TABLETS REMOVE PIMPLES AND BLACKHEADS

Face eruptions are caused by blood impurities, which in turn result from poor digestion, sluggish liver and nervous debility. If your skin shows blotches, pimples or eruptions of any sort, do not neglect it, but take Bliss Native Herb Tablets and the result will be a clear complexion, a healthy skin, bright eyes and general good health.

This condition is brought about by the action of the tablets on the blood, liver and kidneys. The blood is purified, the liver becomes active, the kidneys are cleansed of all impurities, your appetite improves, your digestive organs perform their functions easily and effectively and general good health is yours.

I have used Bliss Native Herb Tablets for a bad condition of the blood. When I commenced using them I suffered from boils. Now I am free from boils and feel better than I have for a long time. In making this statement, Morris Long, Freedom, Ohio, reiterates the testimony of thousands of others who have been greatly benefited by Bliss Native Herb Tablets.

For over thirty years they have been acknowledged as the only standard herb remedy. They contain nothing of a harmful nature, are used by old and young, and have proved their value as a blood remedy weak in and weak out during all that time.

If you suffer from constipation, heartburn, sick headache, biliousness, bad breath, or rheumatism, be sure to use Bliss Native Herb Tablets. They never disappoint. They are put up in a yellow box of 200 tablets, on the cover of which is the portrait of Alonzo O. Bliss. Every tablet is stamped with our trade mark. Price $1 per box. Be sure and get the genuine. Look for our money-back guarantee on every box. Sold by leading druggists and local agents everywhere.

mol of my own thoughts. I was in no mood to play "neglected wife" while Jim and Evvy raved over the success of her "snunch."

This was my husband's first party, and—Evvy serenely took charge of it. It was like Jim's generosity and gratitude to let her, but why couldn't he see how this belittled me?

Evvy practically ordered the dinner. She made the seating arrangements. Jim was at the head of the table—I at the foot. And stretching between us were Betty, Terry, Virginia, Sheldon at one side and on the other Evvy, Neal, Phoebe and Tom. It looked natural enough, but as I sat between Sheldon Blake and Tom Mason I wondered why Evvy had put her old friend Sheldon as far from her as possible and had chosen to place Neal on her right.

There was dancing in the big dining-room behind us, and without even waiting for their clams, Neal and Phoebe ran in at the first note of a fox-trot and circled the room happily in each other's arms. I saw a quick flash of glances between Betty and Terry, and then the handsome Englishman leaned down the table and said coaxingly:

"Mrs. Jimmie—first a toast to our bride and groom—and then this very dance with the bride herself, please."

Tom Mason replied for me, lifting his glass high:

"We'll raise to your toast, Captain Winston—but the dance is mine. And Phoebe ran in at the first note of a fox-trot and circled the room happily in each other's arms. I saw a quick flash of glances between Betty and Terry, and then the handsome Englishman leaned down the table and said coaxingly:

MAKING THE MOST OF OUR CHILDREN

A Series of Plain Talks to Parents

By Ray C. Beery, A.B., M.A. President of the Parents Association.

(Copyrighted, 1918, by The Parents Association, Inc.)

Most of us have seen children who were badly crippled physically as a result of climbing too far above mother earth. And sometimes we meet a disabled adult who tells us that his handicap was caused by a fall in early childhood.

So we need to be careful and we should teach our children to be cautious, but it would be unnecessary and unwise to prohibit all climbing among children.

Let us take a case. A mother writes:

"My two-year-old son is an active, healthy child and has a large number of toys of all kinds, but most of all he delights in climbing. He has had several hard falls due to his climbing and surely I am not to have the daily dread of a severe fall which may leave him crippled for life. I have given him lessons on not touching things he climbs on, but he turns to something else and wants to climb on it, perhaps a pan or tumbler or the bed. Tell me how to control this habit and what toys to buy for him."

From your description you have your boy under very good control. When you tell your boy not to climb up on a certain thing and he obeys but soon turns to something else and climbs on it, this result is considered natural and good.

It would be very unwise to discourage all climbing, even though it is true, as you say, that it keeps one a little in suspense sometimes. Climbing is good for children and while it should be made very clear to your boy that he is not to miss the beds by standing on them and that he is not to climb certain other things from which you fear he may fall and which you specify, it is wise to tell him on what things he may climb. Let him climb up and down the porch steps in your presence. Have him go down hands first, sidewise, etc.

In other words, give him experience in doing things while you are near to make suggestions and teach him carefully so that, when you are not present, he will be in less danger because of his experience.

Take him for a stroll occasionally and let him climb up and down some hill. This sort of co-operation in the thing he likes to do will simply win his confidence and make it easy for you to control his climbing on forbidden things.

Give him a reasonable amount of freedom. Do not discourage his standing on old pans or any objects which do not take him far off the ground, because even if he did fall

Women Question Men in Congress

St. Louis, Missouri—Women prominent in the club life of St. Louis, and Missouri have addressed a letter to the newly-elected congressman of Missouri, asking their views on various questions, among which are those dealing with their attitude toward a League of Nations and to what degree they favor disarmament.

The questions follow: "Do you believe in a League of Nations as outlined by President Wilson?"

"Do you believe in an international parliament which shall be something more than a court of arbitration? How do you believe the decrees of this parliament should be enforced?"

"To whom do you believe this parliament should be responsible?"

"Do you believe in putting American foreign policies under direct congressional control?"

"Do you believe in government or private ownership of munition plants?"

"Do you believe in universal military service in time of peace?"

"Do you believe in government support of private investments in foreign countries?"

"What degree of military disarmament would you consider feasible?"
