

CAPITAL ISSUE GETS RESULTS

Changes in Capitalization of Companies Incorporated Are Noticeable Now

An interesting development in the incorporation of new companies lately has been that very few have applied for letters patent with statements of authorized capital amounting to more than $100,000. This is owing to the requirements of the federal Capital Issues Committee. During the first half of this month only two of the new corporations were chartered with more than $100,000 and both of those were coal companies.

In a number of instances companies have been chartered with $75,000 and $90,000 authorized capital and the number that are chartered with a nominal capital of $5,000 to be later increased has diminished.

Coal, iron and steel manufacturing and land development companies have been the chief ones to be incorporated.

State Warns—Warning that the big traffic between the United States and countries have been allied in war against Germany may increase the danger of infection in cattle diseases has been issued by Dr. T. E. Munce, deputy state veterinarian, who has been observing the movement of livestock. The warning is especially against signs of the foot and mouth disease and county, farm and commission agents have been asked to send immediate information of any signs. The last foot and mouth outbreak cost the state of Pennsylvania many thousands of dollars.

Mr. Palmer in Demand—Lew R. Palmer, former Acting Commissioner of Labor and Industry, was today summoned to Washington where he was requested to assist in developing a bureau of accident prevention and safety standards within the Federal Department of Labor. Mr. Palmer's long experience in industrial safety and his knowledge of labor conditions from the standpoint of the worker caused him to be sent for. It is not known what Mr. Palmer will do about the offer as he has been asked to go to France to assist the Y. M. C. A. in organizing the 6,000 sent overseas on reconstruction work and that he is wanted as a safety expert by one of the biggest establishments in Pennsylvania.

Many Hearings On—The Public Service Commission is holding hearings in four cities to-day. The list is rapidly being cleaned up after the big interruption due to the influenza ban.

Pen Argyl Case—The complaints against gas rates and service in Pen Argyl were heard by Commissioner John S. Kelling.

Pardons Will Be Late—Owing to the time required to write out the reasons it is very improbable that any of the pardons recommended by the State Board at the meeting yesterday will be prepared before the end of the month. The rules of the Board now provide that two weeks shall be allowed in which to prepare the papers.

Gets Five Shovelers—Albert E. Swayer, appointed prothonotary of Wayne county yesterday, will receive five commissions from the state. He was named to fill a vacancy due to resignation and becomes clerk of quarter sessions, oyer and terminer, orphans and common pleas court and is also commissioned ad interim postmaster.

Ballots in Safe—Ballots returned to the Department of the Secretary of the Commonwealth by election commissioners to camps and stations have been placed in one of the safes at the Capitol. The Luzerne county ballots will be sent to Wilkes-Barre for use in event of a contest of the congressional vote.

McKenty's New Title—John McKenty, parole officer of the Eastern Penitentiary, got a new name yesterday. He is often abused, but yesterday announced that it favored more money because of increased costs of maintenance.

Jail Condemned—The Lancaster county prison which has been much in the public eye because of the steps taken by the State Board of Charities to improve it has finally been criticised by the county grand jury.

WILLIAM C. REITER DIES
Waynesboro, Pa., Nov. 22.—William C. Reiter, aged 68, died yesterday at his home here. He had been ill for several months. He was the inventor and manufacturer of the Reiter holster spring for wafers. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Mary Cornman, of Cleveland, Ohio. He was born in Pittsburgh and came to Waynesboro thirteen years ago.

to the State Department of Health. The Ministerial Association wired Dr. B. F. Royer, Acting Commissioner of Health, as follows: "In now extreme seriousness influenza situation Johnstown Ministerial Association earnestly recommend pastors and official boards to abandon public services until danger passed. Also express judgment that ban should again be placed on all public gatherings." The latest reports bring the total number of deaths from influenza and pneumonia throughout the state since the first of October, up to 42,465.

Draft Work Orders—State Draft Headquarters to-day issued notice to all local boards that registrants who had attained their thirty-seventh birthday on September 12 are not to be reported as delinquents as these men are not to be classified or examined. The eighteen-year-old registrants must be classified and will be reported as delinquents if they fail to file questionnaires. All boards have also been notified to complete their classifications and records for permanent filing. Reports on classifications are asked. Local boards will forward no more cases to district boards and no more appeals will be taken now to district boards. It is hoped to finish initial classification by local boards on November 30 except for late registrants and no late registrants are to be classified whose questionnaires are received after December 3.

Tested Machine Guns—Adjutant General Bery was at York yesterday for tests of the new Militia machine guns.

Favors More Money—The State Board of Charities in closing its work of hearing applications for recommendations for appropriations for charities in the western district yesterday announced that it favored more money because of increased costs of maintenance.

No Clue to Identity of Motorist Who Ran Down and Killed Miss Horstick

As the result of injuries received when she was struck by an automobile, Miss Mary Horstick, Paxtang, died at the Harrisburg Hospital yesterday afternoon. Miss Horstick was widely known here.

No clue has yet been found which could give the identity of the automobile driver who ran Miss Horstick down, authorities said this morning. The coroner is withholding the verdict until this is done. Miss Horstick lost her arm several years ago in an accident, when the carriage in which she was driving was crushed by a railroad train.

State Troops Face Christmas Abroad

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 22.—No Pennsylvania troops now in France will reach this country for Christmas, and there is no definite time set for the return of the Keystone boys now overseas.

That official statement was made here last night by Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War, who was the principal speaker at the conference of the National Consumers' League.

Mr. Baker said that his department had been overwhelmed with letters and other messages from anxious parents, who wanted to know if their sons would be home for the annual festival in December. He said that he wanted all of these to know that none of the troops in France could be returned by that time, and that the entire matter of their journey back would be taken care of later.

British Cavalry Cross the Battlefield of Waterloo

London, Nov. 22.—British cavalry to-day were riding across the field of Waterloo on their way to the German frontier. Large numbers of guns were taken over yesterday in groups by the British. Field Marshal Haig to-night reports as follows:

"The movement of our troops is being conducted in accordance with program, without incident. On our right advanced detachments are pushing forward toward the Meuse, south of Namur. On our left we have reached the general line of Gembloux-Wavre."

American Bolsheviki Leader Sent to Prison

Auburn, N. Y., Nov. 22.—Following a vehement denunciation of the United States, John L. Randolph, I. W. W. and American Bolsheviki leader and outcast from Australia, was yesterday sentenced to serve ten years in the Atlanta Federal prison and fined $5,000 on conviction of sedition.

Judge Ray, of the Federal court, on two other occasions attempted to sentence Randolph, but each time he burst into speeches which made it necessary to send him back to jail.

FRANCIS REACHES SCOTLAND
By Associated Press
London, Nov. 22.—David R. Francis, the American Ambassador to Russia, has arrived at Strathpeffer, Scotland. He stood the trip from Archangel well and was met by his son. (A Washington dispatch of October 31 said that Ambassador Francis was leaving Archangel for the British Isles, where he would undergo a minor operation.)

COL. HOUSE HAS INFLUENZA
Paris, Nov. 22.—Col. E. M. House, the special representative of the United States government, is confined to his home here with influenza. He has canceled his engagements.

Itching, Scratching, Skin Diseases That Burn Like Flames of Fire

Here is a Sensible Treatment That Gets Prompt Results

For real, downright, harassing, discomfort, very few disorders can approach so-called skin diseases, such as Eczema, Tetter, Boils, eruptions, scaly irritations and similar skin troubles, notwithstanding the lavish use of salves, lotions, washes, and other treatment applied externally to the irritated parts. No one ever heard of a person being afflicted with any form of skin disease whose blood was in good condition. Therefore, it is but logical to conclude that the proper method of treatment for pimples, blotches, sores, boils, rough, red and scaly skin, is to purify the blood and remove the tiny germs of pollution that break through and manifest their presence on the surface of the skin. People in all parts of the country have written us how they were completely rid of every trace of these disorders by the use of S. S. S., the matchless, purely vegetable, blood purifier. S. S. S. goes direct to the center of the blood supply, and purifies and cleanses it of every vestige of foreign matter, giving a clear and ruddy complexion that indicates perfect health.
