

WAR FUND GROWS WITH BELATED SUBSCRIPTIONS

Checks May Be Mailed to the Treasurer, George W. Reily

With the campaign officially closed two days ago, Harrisburg still is contributing toward the United War Work fund. The quota of $130,000 has been oversubscribed to the amount of $197,107.

Campaign headquarters, Room 704, Kunkel building, will remain open indefinitely. It is known there are numbers of persons who have not been solicited during the campaign, and E. R. Eckenrode, secretary of the Harrisburg committee, urges that these call at headquarters with their voluntary subscriptions. Checks should be mailed or given to George W. Reily, treasurer of the fund, who is at the Harrisburg Trust Company.

Two more wards have gone over the top in their race for their quotas, leaving only two wards still under their allotted amounts. It is reported that the canvassers of these two wards are working hard to secure their quotas, to make the fourteen wards of the city one hundred per cent patriotic. The other ward committees, even though they have secured their quotas, still are working in an effort to get a subscription from every house.

The subscription of $197,107 by the city is peculiarly gratifying to the campaign committee, inasmuch as that is in excess of the quota which was allotted the entire county by the headquarters of the Eastern Division, of which Pennsylvania is a part. The city managers now are working to secure a fifty per cent. oversubscription.

NOVELTY ACTS AT MAJESTIC

Expert Juggler, Variety Entertainers and Fine Sketch Are Features

The bill at the Majestic the latter part of this week is distinctly novel, an offering of very original and good-beyond-the-ordinary acts. The bill is headed with a Charlie Chaplin picture entitled "His Matrimonial Venture."

Right with the first act—Ardo, Comedy Juggler—the audience is presented with something exceptional. Ardo is no common plate and pun singer, he performs some very difficult, delicate and quite remarkable feats of juggling. He is followed by Brown and DeMont, "The Black Diamonds" who offer good singing, dancing and patter.

Earl Cavanaugh and company, presenting "Mr. Inquisitive," is a good, long laugh. The act is novel in that it is a farce, and is a very difficult, delicate and quite remarkable feat of juggling. He is followed by Brown and DeMont, "The Black Diamonds" who offer good singing, dancing and patter.

Earl Cavanaugh and company, presenting "Mr. Inquisitive," is a good, long laugh. The act is novel in that it is a farce, and is a very difficult, delicate and quite remarkable feat of juggling. He is followed by Brown and DeMont, "The Black Diamonds" who offer good singing, dancing and patter.

AMUSEMENTS

High-class Vaudeville — To-day and to-morrow — Earl Cavanaugh and company in the musical comedy, "Mr. Inquisitive," McClure and Dolly, variety artists; Brown and Demont, and two other Keith acts.

To-night and to-morrow, matinee and night — "The Million Dollar Doll" Tuesday, night only, November 26 — "You'll Like It," the musical comedy with the Camp Dix Soldier Boys.

To-day — Mary Pickford in "The Eagle's Mate," Gail Kane in "Love's Law," Monday and Tuesday — Douglas Fairbanks in "Bound in Morocco."

To-day and to-morrow — Earl Williams in "A Diplomatic Mission," Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday — "Laughing Bill Hyde" comedy.

To-day and to-morrow — Mary Pickford, Louise Glaum, Blanche Sweet, Fannie Ward, Dustin Farnum, Charlie Chaplin and other notable stars in "How Stars Twinkle Away From the Studio," also George Walsh in "On the Jump."

The plot of "The Million Dollar Doll" which will be presented at the Orpheum to-day and to-morrow, is a novel musical comedy. The guardian of a very beautiful young woman has invested her money in a wonderful smoke consumer, which does not prove a great success, and they are about to lose all their money when they hit upon the idea of selling the young woman to the Panama Exposition and have her compete for a $100,000 prize, which is to be given to the young woman to California by way of the Panama Exposition.

The Camp Dix show, "You'll Like It," is coming to Harrisburg. Arrangements have been completed and the show, written by soldiers, produced by soldiers and with a cast of nearly all professionals, will be given at the Orpheum Theater on Tuesday evening. Most of the camp shows in the past have only been seen in the larger cities like New York and Philadelphia, but this will offer an opportunity of seeing our own boys in their own show here at home.

The attraction at the Colonial Theater to-day and to-morrow is a five-part Vitagraph blue-ribbon feature, "A Diplomatic Mission." A swift-moving drama of love, adventure and German intrigue on a faraway island, with Earl Williams in the role of a Yankee diplomat, who, by his bravery and wit, rescues the girl he loves. Grace Darmond is the leading woman for the star. The picturesque island of Somona is the setting for the most of the story. It's a corking good melodrama, one you will want to see.

To-day, the famous screen star, Mary Pickford, is appearing in the famous picture, "The Eagle's Mate," at the Regent Theater. This is a re-issuance of the wonderful play, which is just as popular to-day as it was when it was first presented with the star and the picture are known from coast to coast. It will be shown here to-day for the first time since its recent release.

To-morrow, Gail Kane is the leading star in a modern picture, "Love's Law." The regular Screen Telegram of Current Events, as well as a popular comedy, comprises the attractions for the Regent.

Monday and Tuesday, smiling Doug, Fairbanks will be seen in a recent release, "Bound in Morocco."

Harrisburg movie fans in goodly numbers yesterday availed themselves of the unusual opportunity presented to view a score of Victoria internationally famous and same film, as presented at the Victoria Theater in "How Stars Twinkle Away From the Studio."

This unusual picture shows the leading motion picture celebrities of the day, and is a remarkable feat in that it brings before the spectator in a combination of a single picture, screen stars of the first magnitude.

Earl Cavanaugh and Company, in the musical comedy offering, "Mr. Inquisitive," is the reigning attraction of the new vaudeville bill that opened at the Majestic yesterday. The production has fully staged and is presented by six first-class musical comedy entertainers. Mr. Cavanaugh furnishes the comedy in the act and keeps his audience in constant laughter. A popular comedy number on the bill is Belle Montrose, very clever young girl, who is assisted by a young man, in a skit entitled "Her Only Chance." Brown and Demont entertain with songs and comedy. McClure and Dolly offer a pleasing variety number, while Ardo's novelty juggler, starts the bill off in true vaudeville fashion.

Mary Pickford, in "Eagle's Mate," at Regent Today

The famous screen star, Mary Pickford, given the credit for being the most popular, as well as the most beautiful and winsome of all motion picture celebrities, is appearing to-day at the Regent Theater in a re-issuance of the "Eagle's Mate." This is a story that has gained a national reputation through fiction, and Miss Pickford is portraying it on the screen.

Marked Improvement Is Shown in Checker Match; Hill Team Takes Honors

A large and interested crowd of checkerplayers gathered at Wise's cigarstore last night to see the return match between the West End and Hill checker teams. The games were of a high order, showing marked improvement over a week ago.

It looked for a long time as if the West Enders would turn the trick, but toward the finish, the Hill men made a desperate rally and won out by the score of 15 to 12 as follows:

Table with columns: Name, Won, Drawn, Lost. Total West End Team: 16, 8, 12. Hill Team: 12, 8, 16.

One of the West End players failed to appear, making it a little harder for the other three. Much interest is manifest in the result of the match to be played next week as the West End players are two games ahead and determined to make it more, while the Hill men are determined to win the odd match. A picked team from Harrisburg will play a team of experts from Altoona in the near future.

In the reshuffle at Milan, which is being enlarged, new sleeping barracks have been opened. Food, cigars, and post cards are being given to 25,000 men a month. Shirts, drawers, socks, and shoes are also provided when needed. In the Ancona reshuffle more than 50,000 men a week are being entertained, sometimes as many as 1,000 men being served every hour.

Demand Abdication of the Duchess of Luxembourg

QUEEN MARIE OF LUXEMBURG

The people and Parliament of Luxembourg have demanded the abdication of the Grand Duchess Marie-Adelaide, who is considered the symbol of German intrigue, according to a dispatch from London. The Liberal party, which recently has been gaining strength, is seeking the establishment of a republic, with ultimate annexation to France. The Grand Duchess, it is reported, has expressed her willingness to abdicate should a majority vote of the people indicate a desire for a republican government.

Labor Board Grants More Wage Increases

Washington, Nov. 22.—Wage increases for employes of nine street railway and interurban systems were granted in awards announced last night by the war labor board. The advances are for the duration of the war and in each case the board recommended that the companies be permitted to raise fares to absorb the increased cost of operation.

When Tongue Is Coated Drink Celery King

Take it yourself and give it to the children for it's a purely vegetable laxative tea that acts promptly on the bowels, and never causes the least distress. It puts you right over night and when you catch cold and become feverish you mustn't fail to drink a cupful hot before going to bed. For sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, disordered stomach and sluggish liver there is nothing that will do the work so well. Every druggist has it. Generous packages cost only a few cents.

A Dead Stomach Of What Use Is It?

Thousands yes hundreds of thousands of people throughout America are taking the slow death treatment daily. They are murdering their own stomach, the best friend they have, and in their sublime ignorance they think they are putting aside the laws of nature. This is no sensational statement; it is a startling fact, the truth of which any honorable physician will not deny. These thousands of people are swallowing daily huge quantities of pills and other strong digesters, made especially to digest the food in the stomach without any aid at all from the digestive membrane of the stomach.

Mi-o-na stomach tablets relieve distressed stomach in five minutes; they do more. Taken regularly for a few weeks they build up the run-down stomach and make it strong enough to digest its own food. Then indigestion, belching, sour stomach and headache will go.

Mi-o-na stomach tablets are sold by druggists everywhere and by H. C. Kennedy, who guarantees them.—Advertisement
