Coats With The Lines of Youth

Mid-Winter coat models are still full length, still made of very soft materials and many are trimmed with fur — yet they are different from the models shown earlier in the year.

There is a new grace and youthfulness in the lines, a quality which distinguishes them instantly from previous models in the same general style.

The new coats I have just brought back from New York are the last word in outer garments for the present season. As coats of this quality are very scarce and becoming scarcer, you are advised to see them at the earliest possible moment.

Two Special Values

No. 1—Mandarin Coat of silvertone, lined throughout in Burgundy, plum, navy and overseas blue, unusual at$39.75

No. 2—50 coats, fur trimmed, in Bolivia and Evera Bolivia, in all the new desirable shades, unusual at $19.50

My Store is closed every Saturday evening. It was the first store in Harrisburg to adopt this policy.
