

BIG DAY FOR FOOTBALL; PITT PLAYS GEORGIA, HARRISBURG TECH MEETS FAST FOE HERE

How They Used to Slaughter Ducks As Related by Tom Marshall

Modern vs. ye olden methods of duck hunting. Progress, luxury, convenience with improvements in firearms, ammunition and hunting accessories have kept abreast of the "Call of the Wild."

AROUND THE BASES

A hundred Huns on a submarine; Yo-ho ho, and a bottle of rum! Drink and the Devil is all that they mean!

Long live the German navy under the British flag!

A lawyer who for many years had shocked a large number of his friends by his rather liberal views on religion recently died.

A friend of the decedent, who cut short a trip to hurry back to the legal office, entered the late lawyer's home some minutes after the beginning of the service.

Scandal at Franklin and Marshall! Says a Lancaster dispatch: "Three star players, Goodman, Mellinger, and Snyder, were yesterday afternoon when the athletic faculty discovered the men were not students at the college."

The men played against Lafayette last Saturday night. Blue and White students. The committee declared that the playing of the men on the varsity was an oversight and not known to the committee.

Lewistown Army Officer Home From War Front

Lewistown, Pa., Nov. 23.—Lieutenant John Milton Reed has returned from the war front in France. He was met at Lewistown Junction by a few friends. He sailed from France November 10 and learned by wireless that peace had been declared, while he was at sea.

Three cheers for Doc Kalbus, of the State Game Commission! He will soon have the deer running wild in Market street, and fish will disport in the extensive creek. Yesterday a hunter near Mauch Chunk ran into so many deer that he sent for the State Police to protect him.

Wake up you lazy blind old Dutch. Strategy you never put ask to me. "Destined monarchs!" You mean Hell's brew!

Joe Welsh will meet big game when he undertakes the measure of Lew Tendler at the National A. A. in Philadelphia, to-night. Tomi Covatta meets McFadden at the other half of the double windup.

New York, Nov. 23.—Final practice for two of the football teams in tomorrow's doubleheader for the "Cup of War" at the Polo grounds was held here to-day. The Harvard Radios, who are to meet the Princeton Aviators, had their final workout at the Polo grounds, while the Georgetown team, which meets the Newport Naval Training station eleven, went through signal practice at Columbia University field.

Baltimore, Nov. 23.—Only a light workout was the order yesterday for

SNODDLES

BY GRACKY - I DON'T SEE WHO COULD BE COOKING AROUND THIS HOUSE WITH THE WIFE AND LIZA JANE BOTH OUT.

SMELLS LIKE FRIED HOG

LOOKY POP! I'M ROASTIN' GERMIN DOGS!

By Hungerford

Tech and the Academy In Football Here Today

The cancelling of George Cockhill's Steelton team in its game with Gettysburg High school left two pig-skin battles to be witnessed here this afternoon, Tech vs. Williamson Trade School, of Philadelphia, and Academy vs. Gettysburg Prep. School.

Turkey Day Tech Card Will Be a De Luxe Production

One of the features of the big Thanksgiving game between Tech and Steelton will be the souvenir programs designed and arranged by Professor J. F. Rees, of the Technical High School.

FARMER COMMITS SUICIDE

Lewistown, Pa., Nov. 23.—William Youtzy, a well-known farmer of Longfellow, aged 68 years, committed suicide early yesterday morning by placing a shotgun against his head and sending it off by the trigger of a single.

MRS. BOWER BURIED

Blain, Pa., Nov. 23.—Funeral services of Mrs. Miles Bower was held to-day, the Rev. Dr. J. W. Welter officiating. Burial was made in the Blain cemetery.

Penn Seeks Revenge on Swarthmore Today

Rarely in the realm of football does a team get the chance to revenge itself on a conqueror the same season. To Penn falls this chance to-day.

GLADIATORS

Table with columns: Players, F.G., Fla., Ttl. Lists players like Bowman, Blizzard, Krebs, Kindler, Bricker, etc.

MIDDLETOWN Will Make Improvements

With the purchase of a plot of ground near the borough from the Lutz Brothers, the Middletown Car Company will make a number of improvements to the plant.

Council at a recent meeting decided to purchase another piece of fire apparatus for the Rescue Hose Company.

W. J. Rupp, secretary of the local board of health, reported that there are now only seven families in which there are cases of influenza.

Harold Martin, who had been working at Nova Scotia for the past few years, has returned to town, accompanied by his wife.

Mrs. N. C. Fuhrman entertained the Social Circle at her home, Swatara and Union streets, Thursday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock.

The annual Thanksgiving bags of the Harrisburg Hospital will be given out in the various churches of town on Sunday and will be gathered up Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

The United War Work Campaign closed on Wednesday noon and Middletown's quota was $5,000, and they reached the mark of $5,071.06, and the returns are as follows:

MIDDLETOWN CHURCHES

Methodist Episcopal—The Rev. James Cunningham, 10.30, Thanksgiving offering; 7.30, "Bless the Lord, O My Soul and Forget Not All His Benefits."

First United Brethren—The Rev. E. A. Bossler, Service, 10, Rally Day Missionary.

Presbyterian—The Rev. T. C. McCarrall, 11 a. m., subject, "Bread for Our Inquiries; 7.30, subject, "Jacob's Vision."

The United Brethren Sunday School will observe Rally Day tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock and the church will observe it at 7.30.

RELATIVES ATTEND FUNERAL

Blain, Pa., Nov. 23.—Mrs. Catherine Beck and Mrs. Grant Clay, of New Cumberland, attended the funeral of Mrs. Mervin Beck, at Mechanicsburg, yesterday.

NO CHURCH SERVICES

Blain, Pa., Nov. 23.—There will be no preaching services, Sunday school services or young people's meetings held in the churches tomorrow on account of the prevailing influenza epidemic.

DAIRYMEN'S MEETING OFF

Basketball Season Opens With Big Time at Chestnut Street Hall

Big night at Chestnut Street Auditorium! The Independents, that crack basketball troupe, will open their season against Rockwood, of Philadelphia, which has a six-cylinder team.

GOVERNOR-ELECT ENDORSES PLAN FOR WATERWAY

Senator Sproul in Full Sympathy With Improvement Plans

Middletown, Nov. 23.—Governor-elect William C. Sproul is in full sympathy with the improvement of Pennsylvania waterways, according to a letter recently received by Edwin Charles, Middleburgh, secretary of the Old Boatmen's Association and registrar and recorder of Snyder county.

NOTED MEN QUIT JOBS IN ONE DAY

Recession Led by McDoo Inclusion Americans, Britons and Teutons

New York, Nov. 23.—Six men of international note simultaneously announcing their intention of quitting the posts where they had achieved their fame made yesterday a great day of resignations.

SHOT WHITE PARTRIDGE

Waynesboro, Pa., Nov. 23.—James Mehaney, while hunting in the mountain yesterday, killed a white partridge. This is quite an unusual specimen in this section.

CHAMPION HOLDS TITLE

Chicago, Nov. 22.—Auggie Kleeckner, world's champion three cushion billiardist, successfully defended his title to-night by defeating Robert Cannefax, former champion, in their three-night match, 150 to 106 in 147 innings.

INFLUENZA NURSES NEEDED

Waynesboro, Pa., Nov. 23.—On account of the recent outbreak of influenza, after it was thought that the disease had almost been eliminated, a demand has been made for nurses, who are badly needed in looking after the sick in their Hospital Association is offering to homes. The Waynesboro Emergency pay nurses for their services, but these are hard to secure.

Play Safe--Stick to KING OSCAR CIGARS Because the quality is as good as ever it was. They will please and satisfy you 7c--worth it JOHN C. HERMAN & CO. Makers