GAITHER PUTS IN AN OBJECTION

Former Public Service Commissioner Presents Point of Law to Auditor General

Auditor General Charles A. Snyder today received the protest of Walter H. Gaither against paying any money by the State Defense Commission for employment of the Governor anyone else as historian of the war, but as there was nothing before him in the way of a requisition made no comment or indication of his course.

The "War Board" is supposed to meet this week to discuss the matter but members refuse to say what action will be taken. The idea of a board to have the place made effective when the Governor's term expires.

Mr. Gaither's letter to the Auditor General, sent by his attorney, Charles C. Stroh, of this city, and his statement in the matter, are as follows: "As a taxpayer and citizen of this Commonwealth, I protest in the strongest manner against the payment of any money for the employment of a historian of the war."

"The commission is authorized to employ such a historian, and the aid of his compensation of such help, and to fix compensation of such help, and to fix compensation of such help, and to fix compensation of such help."

CITY HOMES ARE TO BE OPEN FOR GUESTS IN KHAKI

Holiday Dinner to Be Served Through Agency of Red Cross

Hungry, homesick soldiers and sailors who visit Harrisburg on Thanksgiving Day will be furnished with a real "home-go-go" home-made holiday dinner through the agency of the Harrisburg Chapter, American Red Cross.

This action was announced today by Mrs. Walter Spofford, acting secretary of the local chapter, following scores of requests from families who wish to bring cheer to some hungry lads in khaki.

Because Harrisburg is very near three big government operations, it is believed the number of boys in khaki spending Thanksgiving here will be very large.

Refers Inquirers to New Governor, but Capitol Gives Him Congratulations

Harry S. McDevitt, of Philadelphia, who is expected to be the private secretary to Governor-elect William C. Sprout, was at the Capitol today in connection with work as Deputy Auditor General, which he is handling in the Philadelphia courts.

Mr. McDevitt declined to discuss the reports of his appointment by the new Governor, who has been much impressed by his work as the expert of the economy and efficiency commission and the grasp of details which he displayed in the recent campaign.

Mr. McDevitt's friends in the Capitol extended their congratulations and best wishes for the new administration.

How he helped to make the final drive of the war a successful one is set forth in a letter from Lieutenant W. K. Gaither, Camp Hill, to his wife. He describes vividly the push and his part in it. He is widely known here.

DEPOSED CHARLES FEARS BOLSHEVIKI

Our coal and food situation is reported improved, influencing conditions. The railroad becomes badly disorganized lately. I am very glad to see an American, who represents a country which is working for peace.

He is said to be much hurt by stories which were circulated in Allied countries about his private life, especially drunkenness.

Before the correspondent left, after half an hour's conversation, Charles inquired if President Wilson was well.

He expressed no surprise when told that the President's hair has grown whiter since the United States entered the war, meaning, himself, to feel the undermining strain of the great conflict.

"Aching Bones; Tired Feeling, No Life, All Gone," Says J. Guy Bowman

"I had a bad cold, felt tired, could scarcely move along, and was barely able to work at my trade," says J. Guy Bowman, of 149 River street, Middletown, Pa.

"I worked at the shoe factory, my symptoms were aching bones, tired feeling, and was lifeless and listless, a feeling of malaria or ague."

"I have used three bottles of Tonalin, purchased at Whitman's Pharmacy, Middletown, and after using it I now feel fine, and do my work with pleasure."

"On account of the great benefits I received from Tonalin, after taking only three bottles I gladly recommended Tonalin to all, for I know it will do all it claims to do, and any person who has not used Tonalin does not realize what they are missing, for the roots, herbs and barks have certainly a wonderful effect. I am twenty-eight years old, too young to be knocked yet, but by the use of Tonalin, I have no fears now for years to come."

Tonalin is sold at Gorgas' Drug Store, Harrisburg; Hershey's, at Hershey, and Martz, at Steelton.
