'Sweet Land of Liberty' A Thanksgiving Prayer 'O'er the Land of the Free'

Dear Father, God, whose footstool is the earth, And yet whose throne is in each heart, We come to Thee on this Thanksgiving Day, And thank Thee, as we humbly pray:

We thank Thee, Lord, for our dear country, free, This wonderful 'sweet land of liberty' Of which we sing.

We thank Thee for our banner bright Of starry, spangled blue, and red and white, Which true to liberty and Thee, Doth ever proudly wave 'O'er the land of the free, And the home of the brave.'

We thank Thee in these past hard days of war, When our dear men have faced the awful gore Of battlefields, That those at home, with purpose never turning, Have kept within each heart and hearth "the home fires burning."

And most we thank Thee, dearest Lord, In times of war and peace Without a broken chord "Our God is marching on!" Amen.

RECIPE TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Mr. Frank Harbaugh, of Cincinnati, O., who has been a barber more than forty years recently made the following statement:

Thanksgiving Day Greetings A Great Nation pauses to acknowledge its dependence upon God.

The Great God who provides all good things permits death; but he has also given us the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company as a guardian for women and children.

Since Thanksgiving Day, 1917, we have done business with over 2,000 people and wish to make it very plain that we are deeply grateful for the manner in which the people of the community entrust their business matters to our care.

Very respectfully, W. H. COUGH, BRIGHTBILL & KLINE.
