

Crew of Hun Destroyer Throws Commander in Sea

naval commanders are receiving short shrift from their men is indicated in a story related here yesterday.

stroyer where the commander of the vessel was, the junior officer replied: "Oh, he gave us some trouble four days ago, so we threw him overboard."

The story was confirmed by a representative of the German Workmen's and Soldiers' Council on board the destroyer.

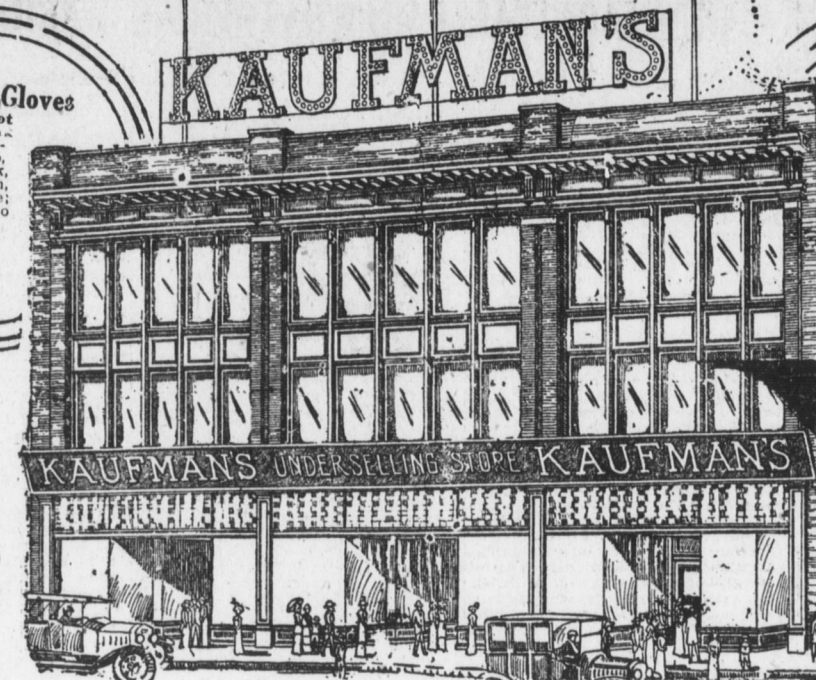

BRITISH SHIP SINKS AT PIER New York, Nov. 27.—After fire had destroyed part of the British steamship City of Lahore, of 6,948 gross tons, the vessel sank at her North river pier under the weight of the water which the firemen poured into her holds. Only the smokestacks and part of the upper deck were above the water last night.

EPIDEMIC IN JAMAICA New York, Nov. 27.—An epidemic of influenza, which has brought business to a standstill and caused many deaths, is raging in Jamaica, according to passengers who arrived here on the American steamship Jose from Kingston.
