

Scouts Keep Busy as Merry Billposters

Many a hungry man as he ate his fill of the wonderful Thanksgiving dinner yesterday occasionally let his glance fall on a brilliantly-colored poster of various fruits and vegetables displayed on the wall. These "thankful" posters were distributed for the Food Administration by the scouts as early as a week or more ago.

Scouts are always ready for service, but when the service is connected with their big brothers in khaki, they are on the jump before you can think. The soldiers of Camp Dix who presented their play, "You'll Like It," last Tuesday night at the Orpheum, were a great portion of their audience to the scouts, who last Saturday morning hustled around distributing the leaflets advertising the play. Did they like it? Just ask them.

Danger Follows Grip

REBUILDING HEALTH AFTER ANY ILLNESS

Getting Well Means Gaining Strength--A Wholesome Tonic

The getting-well stage of grip, pneumonia or other illness is the most dangerous of all because the body, weakened by the disease, is wide open to attacks of other lurking germs.

Proof:

One of the best known professional men in New York City says: "After an acute attack of typhoid pneumonia, I had a racking cough and lost twenty pounds in eleven days. I never was so completely run down in my life. I was about to go to a hospital when I began to take Father John's Medicine, which after I had taken it faithfully, restored me to sound health. I regained flesh as well as ever in my life. I have since learned that my physician has been in the habit of prescribing Father John's Medicine in such cases."

QUARTER MILLION MEN DRAFTED FROM STATE

Pennsylvania Furnished Great National Army in the War Against the Hun; Thousands More Entered Regular Branches of Armed Service of Nation

The first compilation of figures showing the number of men sent into the United States service under the operation of the draft law made by Major William G. Murdock, the state draft executive, presents the fact that the 282 local draft boards furnished 195,205 Pennsylvanians to the American Army. If the exact number of men sent to replace drafted men at cantonments and delinquents and slackers could be ascertained and added to the 10,094 individual inductions and the student army training corps inductions, it is believed here the total would be well along toward a quarter of a million men furnished to the Army from the Keystone State.

MR. RELY HOST TO BOY SCOUTS

Troop 19 Has Glorious Hike to Fort Hunter; See Interesting Relics

Troop 19 had the good fortune to be invited up to the cabin of Mr. Rely on November 15. We left Harrisburg on the 4:20 car for Rockville and met Mr. Mitchell, our scoutmaster there. We then hiked to the cabin which is between the second and third mountains. After reaching the cabin, we gathered wood for a big fire in the old fireplace. We all forgot about supper for awhile in the excitement of looking around at Mr. Rely's treasures of skins, furs and relics which decorate the walls, but it would have taken half a day to find out what everything was.

After a good supper, Mr. Mitchell told stories and we toasted marshmallows until somebody suggested that we really ought to start home. We thanked Mr. Rely for the pleasure he had given us and began our hike back to Rockville. On the way down Scout Welsh showed us an old graveyard which was very interesting. When we reached Rockville, we were all tired and were delighted when Mr. Mitchell suggested that he all come down in his automobile.

On November 22, Mr. Saltzman was cordially welcomed by our troop at our meeting, and gave us a splendid talk on War Saving Stamps. Scout Augustus Towson was awarded an Ace Medal for selling over $1,000 worth of W. S. S. Troop 19 defeated Troop 11 on the Island on November 23 to the tune of 18 to 0. We have a strong enough team to claim the championship of the city scouts. If any scout team disputes the fact and will step out and play us on November 30 we are willing to play. Our troop's line held like a stone wall, while the backfield did considerable road work. Troop 11 was on the defense. Crist and Ginley were the stars.

Scout Executive Virgin Speaks to Troop Four

Troop 4 held its weekly meeting Monday night. We did some important business, inasmuch as we voted in new members, who, we hope, will show Troop 4 spirit and get into the scouting game. Scout Executive Virgin visited us and gave us an interesting talk, which we all enjoyed. We then learned how to "whip" the end of a rope, which is one of the necessary things to know in handling rope. As many of our fellows stick on one point in the examinations--passing swimming--he talked that over. Troop 4 has three veteran scouts and eight merit badges to its credit. After the adjournment of our business meeting, we held an outdoor tug-of-war. We all hope Mr. Virgin comes to see us soon again, for he certainly can put "pep" into a troop, and that's one thing we can't have too much of.

Pains in the Back, Kidney and Stomach Troubles Have Vanished Since Using Tonnal

Mrs. Catherine Klingler, living on Rural Route No. 2, Lebanon, Pa., has used Tonnal for several months to herself and feels it her duty to make this statement to the reading public: "I had for years pains in my back and I suffered from kidney and stomach troubles. I fell some years ago and never fully recovered. This circumstance did not help my condition."

Hearing people talk about Tonnal and reading about it in the newspapers, and because Charles E. Roger, druggist at Lebanon, Pa., recommended Tonnal, I began using it, and must say it has done me a wonderful amount of good. I am feeling so much better that I shall continue to use it."

This testimonial was given August 3, 1918. Tonnal is sold at Gorgas' Drug Store, Harrisburg; Hershey's, at Hershey, and Martz, at Steelton.

Lieutenant Zimmerman Has Crossed the Seas

Lieut. G. A. Zimmerman of the Medical Corps, former scoutmaster of Troop 12 is in an Evacuation Hospital in France. He enlisted several months before he was sent over, in the Medical Corps. The Scouts of "12" are all very proud of the star in our service flag that represents our first scoutmaster.

We are also proud to state that we have another start in our service flag, for Private Kreamer, former assistant scoutmaster. He is in the Quartermaster's Corps at Camp Hancock, Georgia. Our troop is jumping together for fluza since the epidemic of influenza had given us and began our hike back to Rockville. On the way down Scout Welsh showed us an old graveyard which was very interesting. When we reached Rockville, we were all tired and were delighted when Mr. Mitchell suggested that he all come down in his automobile.

Scout Tyson Now Wears Ace Medal For Merit

Troop 20 held its regular meeting last Friday. Scout Tyson was awarded the Ace Medal. He was the first scout in the troop to receive one, but we are all hopeful. A meeting will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock. An inter-patrol first-aid contest will be held. Buglers are requested to bring their instruments. All scouts are requested to bring several bandages including one triangular bandage if possible. HENRY A. BAER, Scribe.

Boys Asked to Aid in Christmas Roll Call, Local Scouts Volunteer

The man who carried the famous message to Garcia did it all in the day's work--it was just routine--risking his life--facing death. He was told to deliver the message and he did it. The Boy Scouts of America have a message to deliver to the people of America. That they will do it--as a matter of the day's work--is certain, for the Boy Scouts always make good.

In this case the message will be the story of the American Red Cross--what it has done to help suffering humanity--what it is doing--what it must do before the misery and want in Europe are relieved. The message must be delivered, for the task confronting the Red Cross is stupendous--the greatest any organization, aside from a national government, has ever had on its hands.

The thing all Boy Scouts should know--and this applies also to scoutmasters--is the best method and means of spreading the gospel of humanity and brotherly love--of permitting the American Red Cross to continue its helpful campaign. To do this, the active and continued co-operation and assistance of the American people is a vital need. Without the heart and soul of the people behind it, the Red Cross work will lag and falter. With that help, the Red Cross will continue to battle for the betterment of stricken humanity.

Christmas Roll Call

During the week of December 16 to 23 the American Red Cross will hold its second annual Christmas roll call, when it is expected that every American will affix his or her name to the roster of the Red Cross as a renewal of last year's nationwide pledge to uphold the flag, when 22,000,000 adults and 8,000,000 children vowed to stand behind our men overseas that all people might be free and live in peace and happiness.
