

HUNDREDS GIVE THANKS SONG AT STATE HOUSE

Song Service Arranged by Community Singing Committee Well Attended

The community song service of Thanksgiving held in the Rotunda of the State Capitol yesterday afternoon under the auspices of the Community Singing Committee and Lycoming chapter of the Committee of Public Safety Music Division, of which Mrs. James G. Sanders is chairman, was a decided success, and an inspiration to many who attended.

STEELMAKERS PLAN MERGER; McADOO CHIEF

Great Combination Forming to Compete For Foreign Business

New York, Nov. 29.—Twenty-five steel companies in the United States are forming a steel company to compete with the United States Steel Corporation for foreign trade, it is reported here.

CONGRESS AT SEA ON PLAN TO GET IN GREAT TAXES

Joint Resolution May Be Rushed Through to Save Big Sums

Washington, Nov. 29.—Chaotic conditions in the collection of taxes next year now seems unavoidable, according to a Treasury statement which has been prepared commenting on the delay of Congress in enacting the pending revenue bill.

MARKETS

New York, Nov. 29.—Wall Street. Sentiment among traders again was bullish on the opening of today's stock market, but a further rally over the holiday offering little relief from prevailing uncertainties.

NEW YORK STOCKS table listing various stocks and their prices, including American Sugar, American Woolens, and various industrial stocks.

WEST SHORE COAL DEALERS BEHIND AT 1918 TONNAGE CONTRACT

Meeting at Camp Hill to Protest; Mr. Myers Promises Improvement

The coal shortage facing Camp Hill, Lemoine, Washington Heights and other West Shore towns was thoroughly aired at a citizens' meeting in the Camp Hill High School last evening.

OFFICIAL VOTE SHOWS GAINS FOR THE G, O, P

Aaron S. Kreider and Senator Beidleman Head Ticket by Big Vote

Official returns of the votes cast in the city and county at the November election were filed today at the office of Prothonotary Charles E. Pass.

GERMAN ADMIRAL PROTESTS ORDER LOWERING FLAGS

British Naval Commander Says eGrman Ensign Shall Not Fly Pending Peace

London, Nov. 29.—Admiral Von Reuter, commander of the German fleet which surrendered to the Allies on November 21, has protested against the order of Admiral Sir David Beatty, of the British fleet, directing that the German flag be hauled down.

LIEUT. BOAS IS BACK IN LINE AFTER WOUNDS

Harrisburg Officer Was Hurt in Fighting at Chateau Thierry

Among the names on to-day's casualty lists is that of Lieutenant Ross Herman Boas, who is the son of C. Ross Boas, 115 State street.

WAR CONTRACTS MADE DOUBTFUL BY REWRITING

Unless Actually Signed by the Government Agents They May Be Nullified

Washington, Nov. 29.—Government war contracts involving hundreds of millions of dollars were rendered doubtful in status today by a decision of the comptroller of the Treasury that orders have not been legally executed unless actually signed by responsible government contracting agents and the contractors.

GREAT MASS OF GIFTS DURING IN AT HOSPITAL

Stelton's Big Thanksgiving Contribution Yet to Be Received at Institute

A large donation from Stelton for the Harrisburg Hospital will be called for Monday, and when it is received at the doors of the hospital, will complete what is regarded as the most generous answer to an appeal the Women's Aid Society of the Hospital ever has made for funds and supplies.

FIFTH GERMAN ARMY STARTS ON WAY TO GERMANY

Crossing of Rhine Will Require Eight or Nine Days; Hindenburg Advises

With the American Army of Occupation, Nov. 29.—General Von Der Marwitz's fifth army is crossing the Rhine today. The crossing will require eight or nine days, according to reports reaching here.

PHILADELPHIA PRODUCE

Table listing various produce items and their prices, including corn, wheat, and various meats.

COUNCIL WORKS HARD PREPARING BUDGET

Worn out because of the increasing traffic.

In the water department budget an estimate will in all probability be included for the fourteenth ward. In a few days the ward will be supplied with filtered water by the city as an agreement has been reached with the water company in that district now owned by the Dauphin Consolidated Water Company.

Herr Barth Asserts Counter Revolution Is on Over Germany

London, Nov. 29.—At a Berlin meeting of the soldiers and workmen's council, Herr Barth, secretary for social policy in the Ebert cabinet, declared that a counter revolution was in full swing according to a Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company.

Soldier With Name on Honor Roll Turns Up Alive and Well

Waynesboro, Pa., Nov. 29.—Though Corporal Keller Benedict, this city, is listed on the county death roll, which appears on a tablet at Chambersburg, no Boche ever got him, and from a letter received by his relatives here yesterday, the young soldier is just as much alive as he ever was.

Dickinson College to Demobilize Its S. A. T. C.

Carlisle, Pa., Nov. 29.—Orders have been received for the demobilization of the Dickinson College S. A. T. C. and officers have begun their work.

Plan Church Company For Returning Soldiers

Tentative plans have been made to organize a church company at the Pine Street Presbyterian Church for returning soldiers, according to an announcement made at the Thanksgiving service yesterday by Dr. Lewis S. Mudge.

NEWS FLASHES OFF THE OCEAN CABLES

London.—American's share in winning the war was praised at a dinner here by "Iscount" Chiura, Japanese Ambassador to Great Britain.

Lansing, White and House Likely Peace Commission of U. S.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 29.—The impression is growing among those who have talked with President Wilson about the peace conference that the American delegation will be limited to three members, and speculation over the personnel has about narrowed down to these names:

Rich Teutons Sell Stock at Any Price

Geneva, Nov. 29.—Wealthy Germans and Austrians, headed by the former royal families are selling their stock holdings at any price, fearing revolution will result, as it did for wealthy families in Russia, in loss of their fortunes.

CHICAGO CATTLE

Chicago, Nov. 29.—(U. S. Bureau of Markets.)—Hogs.—Receipts, 30,000; market 4¢ to 4¢ lower than last week; heavy trade; market $17.50 to 18.00; light $16.85 to 17.75.

CUBAN ENVOYS HERE

New York, Nov. 29.—Cuba's delegation to the world peace conference arrived here by steamship on their way to France, where they will sail shortly.

Why Not Buy Shoes This Xmas? Dandy Line Shoes

Child's Smoked Horse Lace Shoes, in shoe that will stand the test: $2.95

SLIPPERS

Ladies' Cumfy Slippers, a most useful Christmas gift $1.95

Dandy Line Shoe Store, 202 Market Street, Made in Harrisburg by Devine & Yungel