· Allied Capitals Protest Peace Censorship

Washington, Nov. 29.—The prospect of a repressive censorship of press dispatches dealing with the peace conference is causing protests in Paris, London and Washington.

In Paris, despite the armistice, the censorship has suddenly become more extreme than at any time in the war. The cause for the reversal of Clemenceau's recently announced abolition of political censorship is impossible to discover.

American correspondents in London have organized a corporate body to fight the reported seizure by Creel's Bureau of Public Information of two of the four available transAtlantic cables during the peace conference and to obtain proper means of communication with the United States.

LUCKNOW BOY WRITES OF LIFE

Wagoner Harry F. Behm, Former Railroad Employe, Tells of Experiences

HARRY F. BEHM

Mrs. Elizabeth C. Behm, of Luck now, has received many interesting letters from her son, Harry F. Behm, Headquarters Company, 79th Behm, Headquarters Company, 79th Division, "Somewhere in France." The young man, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Behm, was employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company as a brakeman in the yards before entering the service and was a well-known baseball player and most efficient pitcher. He was in training at Camp Meade, leaving for overseas service last July. Behm is now a wagoner for his division.

DEBATING CLUB TO MEET MONDAY

IN WAR ZONE A. S. Patterson Will Address First Meeting in the Y. M. C. A.

> The committee on arrangements of the Y. M. C. A. Self Expression and Debating Society announced today that Andrew S. Patterson, president of the Union Trust Company, will be present at the opening session on Monday evening, December 2. He will deliver a short address on the value of public speaking from the standpoint of a businessman and benker.

> banker. General Secretary Reeves deserves much credit for his foresight in making this work a part of the Y. M. C. A. curriculum. In discussing the matter to-day he said: "Dr. Becht's idea of a Y. M. C. A. parliament has met with instantaneous response. The idea is to conduct the sessions so that every man will feel it his duty to take part in the proceedings. From time to time certain members will be asked to give dramatic declamations. On another occasion a man will be selected to give ten minutes of instruction in public speaking; later on a member will be asked to inform the society as to the best places to get matrial for an address, how to use the dictionary, the library, etc. After the class gets in full swing, a peace celebration will be staged, one member representing General Pershing, another the Governor of the state, another a French hero, etc. The program committee will, of course, be open to suggestions at all times." General Secretary Reeves deserves

Promises Boche Helmets

"I am sending you a souvenir of France and will later send a Boche helmet so you can hang it with the service flag you have for me, in the window. Go to all the lectures you can, for all the stories you hear about life here are all too true—this way you wilk know what is really going on over here." I enclose a coupon for which you can send me a little Christmas gift. I will be glad for anything but really would like another wrist watch for mine is on the burn. Whatever you send. Mother Dear I am sending you a clipping of a poem I ran across in a newspaper which I thought nice and very true and my sentiments to the word, especially these:

"We fight for every mother as she sings Her babe to sleep upon her throbbing breast:
We battle for the womanhood of Earth For Liberty, for Honor and for Right."
