The popularity of the Majestic's vaudeville bill the latter half of this week is drawing enormous crowds to that theater. The result that there isn't a dull moment from the rise of the curtain to the fall of the curtain. Julian Rose, late singing star of the Park Street, is offering a monolog by Aaron Hoffman, entitled "A Tenderhearted Man," which is one long laugh. Rose is funny, and his mere appearance on the stage is a signal for a hearty laugh. Erbs and Alton, neat-looking young couple, offer a singing act that is refined and entertaining. Riatio and Lamont are never juggling, and present their act in novel fashion. It is full of good comedy throughout, and being the opening number on the bill, things start along at a pretty lively pace. Kennedy and Burt, a well-dressed and talented couple, are presenting a bright skit entitled, "Love, Honor and Obedience," while Kalaluhus' Hawaiian Entertainers, in their songs, dances and instrumental music, close the show in a way that makes the audience feel that they are seeing themselves and the world.

Pietro, the celebrated accordionist, who is undoubtedly Harrisburg's foremost vaudeville favorite, will open a week's engagement at the Majestic on Wednesday next. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of the bill will be up to standard, and includes a popular singing comedian, "Jack" Marley.

This is the last opportunity patrons of the Colonial Theater will have to see the picture "The Ordeal of Rosetta." In this picture Miss Brady is in a role different from any she has ever portrayed. In this picture she is called upon to play a dual character, the early stages bordering on light comedy. In the latter part of the picture she develops strong emotional power. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Clara Kimball Young will be seen in a picture of strong appeal, "The Road Through the Dark."

To-day, Gladys Leslie is appearing in a modern vehicle, said to be the best in which she has yet appeared. The picture is an up-to-the-minute love story, in which a certain young man steals an invention from his employer in order to win her love and in which he loses out. There is plenty of comedy and stirring moments. Monday and Tuesday the famous Players Lasky Corporation's Paramount picture, "The Mating," will be shown at the Regent. The picture for those two days is "Vive La France," starring the famous star, Dorothy Dalton.

Beaver Springs, Nov. 30.—A limited session of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, I. O. O. F., will be held in the Odd Fellows Hall at Beaver Springs Wednesday evening. It is promised that the event will be a notable one in the Odd Fellows history of this district. It will be held for the purpose of admitting Past Grand Lodges to membership in the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania. The Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania is now composed of 18 or 20 lodges, and it is deemed a great honor to be the host lodge. A number of Harrisburgers including Grand Master Roy D. Beman are expected to be present.

Adamsburg Lodge No. 550 will be host for the occasion. This town has been selected on a number of occasions for the special invited guests of the Grand Lodge. Inasmuch as these sessions are held on an average of about 18 or 20 times a year, it is deemed a great honor to be the host lodge. A number of Harrisburgers including Grand Master Roy D. Beman are expected to be present.

CATS USED AS FOOD New York.—Butchers in the poor quarters of French towns are slaughtering cats, which are sold as rabbits, says a statement issued by the Young Women's Christian Association. The statement indicated that cats are being raised to meet the demand. National restaurants where the prices have been opened in France and England, according to the statement. Individuals are limited to 300 grams of bread a day, obtainable only when a bread ticket is presented.

A Used Cadillac Is Better Than Most New Cars NOW is the time to buy a used car. The law of supply and demand regulates the price of used cars the same as it does wheat or meat or any other commodity. The demand for used cars is not as great now as it will be in the spring. Hence you can buy a good car now at a price considerably lower than it will be next spring. A used Cadillac is much better than the ordinary new car. It means a real investment for the prospective owner. We have a few that we must close out this week. They comprise touring cars and one Coupe. THEY MUST BE SOLD THIS WEEK. Let us show them to you at once.
