PREVENTION TO BE GOAL SOUGHT AT PEACE BOARD

Not Vengeance Nor Retribution, Says George, but

London, Nov. 30.— David Lloyd State.

Henry White, former Ambassador for the Company Italy. George, the British Prime Minister, in a speech at Newcastle, said the victory of the Entente Allies General Tasker H. Bliss, representative of the American Army with George, the British Prime Minishad been due to the ceaseless valor sentative of the American Army with of their men, and that it would be a the Supreme War Council at Ver-ture thought that they, as the Prussian war lords hoped, "could overlook this little island in their reckoning."

"We are now approaching the peace conference," the Premier continued. "The price of victory is not vengeance nor retribution. It is prevention. First of all, what about those people whom we have received.

Section New York Common Massachusetts, the selection of Mr. White is bound to create criticism among Republican Congressmen. Particularly among the Senators. He has never been identified prominently with his party's affairs, and there was a widespread feeling in Republican circles in Washington that the President should have chosen William H. Taft, Elihu Root, or Charles E. Hughes. Nobody doubts Mr. White's ability as a diplomatist and expert in international law, but his selection as a recognition of their party is not apparent to Republicans.

"There is evidence that the President was vidence that the President should be presented by the wild on the counter, being replaced by chewing gum and cigarets.

The work required tact and precision and great credit must be given who spent a day they will long remember:
