TO SOUND BUGLE FOR COLLECTION

Bugle Calls Herald the Coming of the Auto Trucks in Waste Bag Collecting

Huge auto trucks are making the rounds of the city this week. They are collecting from house to house, the basins filled with waste which the residents of Harrisburg have saved in the Nursery Home of Harrisburg waste bags.

Besides the crew of collectors of each truck is manned with a bugler. His function is to announce the approach of his truck by a blast on his bugle. Thus housewives are warned of the coming of the collector before he actually reaches them. This feature is picturesque and unusual and adds to the efficiency and speed of the collecting process.

The committee in charge reports a general spirit of enthusiastic support of the campaign. Harrisburg people are eager to do their bit to swell the collection. For the success of the campaign will bring many and far-reaching good results. In filling the waste bag which has been left at your home...

HARRISBURG MEN ON CASUALTY LIST

Keystone Division Suffers More in Battle Costs

Corporal Guy W. Ziegler, who is a member of Company A, 107th Machine Gun Battalion, is rapidly recovering from the effects of being gassed and from wounds, in a base hospital in France. This information was contained in a letter recently received by his wife, who resides at 1248 Walnut street.

Corporal Ziegler entered an engagement October 1. He was slightly wounded in the hand on that day, but after having the wound dressed entered the lines again. October 4 he was badly gassed and has been in a hospital ever since. In the letter to his wife he states that on the day he was gassed he was in a barrage fire from 5 o'clock in the morning until noon. The dead were lying about three deep, declares Corporal Ziegler in his letter.

Wounded and Gassed Among the names on today's casualty list are those of two Harrisburgers: Private Samuel B. Werner was gassed September 6, and Ralph Rode, R. F. D. No. 5, both are reported wounded. Private Werner was gassed in France, and has since been in hospitals in France, the gas having affected his eyes. A telegram was received from the War Department November 27.

Private Werner is a member of the 103rd Field Signal Battalion, 28th Division. He was formerly a member of the old Eighth Regiment, and was in training at Camp Hancock, according to latest reports he is improving rapidly, being located at present in a convalescent hospital a short distance from Paris.

Corporal Rode is a member of Company D, 7th Infantry. He was gassed in June, but is reported to have recovered. In a letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Rode, he stated that he is feeling fine and weighs fully 133 pounds. He trained at Camp Greene, and sailed overseas in April.

Memberships are a dollar. There are to be no junior memberships, but adults who have "hearts and dollars" will enroll their children as though they, too, were adults. Volunteers will be given buttons, receipts cards and window emblems. They will place the emblems in their windows so that during the week of the regular drive—December 16-23, solicitors will know the home has been covered.

Wood-Chopping Bee at Wildwood Park to Start With Contestants on Edge

B. F. Barker, manager of the Miller Auto Company, and captain of the businessmen's gym class team which is to compete for the prize in the Y. M. C. A. wood chopping bee to-morrow afternoon, read in last night's Telegraph that the Rotary Club and Kiwanis Club are racing for a box of socks and a box of cigars and protested.

"Let us in on this game," he shouted. "Doc" Miller, physical director of the 'Y' has been training us for a month to punch the heart out of any tree in Central Pennsylvania. The fight is going to resolve itself into a three-cornered battle, says Captain Barker and in a few minutes after the businessmen get to work, he claims there won't be any such thing as a Kiwanian or Rotarian.

The Kiwanians and Rotarians are not a bit daunted by the claims of the businessmen. Captain "Bill" German, of the Rotary team, this morning announced the personnel of his gang. He will be the boss, "Ed" Frazer, lumberman, the trainer, and "Jack" O'Neil, Frank Sussman, Rufus McCord and Captain Leon Pitcher will handle the saws. Wheeling battleaxes will be "Berl" Dickinson, Joe Wallace and "Bob" Lyons. "Ben" Saul and "Dwight" Baker will be in charge of the hospital detachment. "Bill" Robison will be waterboy. The team is thoroughly organized.

Notwithstanding the formidable statements of the Rotarians, Captains Barker and Schmidt, of the Kiwanians, are not scared. The party will assemble at the Kiwanis building, Second and Locust streets. After a walk around they will start for the scene of operations in Wildwood Park and spend the afternoon there making the chips fly.

A Diamond

---The finest of all Gifts.

All the cunning and skill of the world's craft has never brought forth an article that can vie with the diamond as a gift.

Every year its popularity gains. To-day is no exception to the rule of the past. The diamond is as it has always been—as it always will be—the finest, most desirable, most acceptable of all gifts.

But the diamond should be chosen with care. It is a gift not only for the life-time enjoyment of the recipient—but an heirloom that may pass from generation to generation.

It should, therefore, be worthy of the history which will surround it.

And here Tausig diamonds and Tausig service is of distinct value to you. The stock of mounted and unmounted stones comprises such a wide variety of weights and sizes as to meet your particular requirements.

What is of utmost importance, however, is Tausig service—a service that represents to you just what the stone actually is.

You can choose here with the full assurance that you will know just what you are buying, whether your purchase amounts to $5.00 or $5,000.
