CHAPTER LXII
At the sound of Jim's voice Terry took Anthony Norreys by the shoulders and fairly shoved him out of the hall door.

My Stomach Was Bad Had Pains Around Heart

says Mr. E. Gans, 120 Liberty street, Harrisburg. "My stomach was very bad. I would bloat with gas and the pressure would cause pains around my heart; had sharp knife-like pains under my ribs and under my shoulder blade. I think it was my liver, had gripping pain in stomach after eating.

jealousy that brought you out so suddenly?"
"Terry, you rooze—I'd misjudged the fine boy's heart and the square soldierly honesty of you as soon as I would the love and loyalty of my Lilac girl here—and that's never!" declared Jim with a smile that was all tender sweetness and had no undercurrent of meanness.

LIFE'S PROBLEMS ARE DISCUSSED

In so many of the letters which reach me I find the same complaint: "I am so tired of it all. I feel as if I never could go on, and that is natural when one has been struggling with adverse conditions or attempting to solve a problem all the time."

We have seen it demonstrated again and again in this present war, do the dogged determination to hold on which brings up that reserve force and wins out in the end. It is the soft things of life have, without a murmur, accepted conditions they would have denied the ability to accept in times of peace.

POP! CALLS FOR PRAYERS. Rome, Dec. 6.—Pope Benedict has addressed an encyclical letter to the Catholic episcopate throughout the world exhorted them to offer universal public prayers so that Providence may guide the members of the approaching peace conference.
