

REDCROSS AIDS WOUNDED HEROES TO FIND PLACES

Meeting Next Friday to Discuss Rehabilitation of Wounded Soldiers

Next Friday will be Reconstruction Day. The reconstruction committee of the home service division of the Harrisburg Chapter of the American Red Cross, of which Henry B. McCormick is chairman, and Mayor Daniel L. Keister is vice-chairman, has charge of the reconstruction day.

What has been done for the help of wounded heroes so that they can take a place in the industrial and social world, what should be done for their rehabilitation, and what can be done locally, will be demonstrated by authorities on reconstruction.

Prominent Speakers Here A joint meeting of the Harrisburg Chapter of the American Red Cross, the Board of Trade building at noon, and meeting of the Harrisburg chapter of the American Red Cross, the Civic Club, and the organization of Representatives in the afternoon, are included in the committee's program to bring the question of rehabilitation before the proper agencies.

Chief of the department of education of the Red Cross Institute for Crippled and Disabled Soldiers, will bring the actual workable methods for helping wounded heroes returning from the battle zones, before his listeners.

Mr. Dowling 35 years ago lost both legs, his left arm, and the fingers of his right hand in a mine explosion. He will show a man from his neck up, even though worth $100,000 a year, even though from his neck down, he might be worth only a dollar and a half a day.

The reconstruction committee under Mr. McCormick hopes soon to be able to formulate definite plans for the aid of Harrisburg's wounded heroes shortly will return from overseas.

Home Within Four Months

So far as transportation is concerned, the chief of staff said, it would be easy to bring home all National Guard and National Army divisions with the exception of the two camps to which each large unit will be sent for demobilization will be announced as soon as General Pershing cables that the unit has started for home.

Reserves Loan Guns to Academy Cadets

The Harrisburg Reserves last night held their final drill for the year at the City Grays Armory and will meet hereafter only on call. The company organization will be maintained with the present officers and members on the active and call lists will be retained.

Reserve Officers' Training Cors to Be Established in Many Colleges

Many students will be interested in the arrangement for a reserve officers' training corps in the several educational institutions of the state and throughout the country. The Government will detail an officer to each of these institutions, who will serve as professor of military science and tactics. It will also supply uniforms and other equipment, maintain summer camps at which members of the R. O. T. C. will receive transportation and subsistence, pay commutation and subsistence to members who have taken two or more years in the R. O. T. C. and will issue commissions to the reserve corps to a limited number of qualified men who complete advanced training. The institution on its side agrees to maintain a two years' course of military training—a minimum of three hours per week—as a prerequisite of graduation on the part of such students—not less than one hundred—that voluntarily join the R. BERNSTORFF NOT ABLE TO CLAMP LIPS OF AGENTS

Sinking of Lusitania, Too, Helped Wreck Hun Propaganda Plot

Washington, Dec. 7.—Shipwreck of German propaganda initiated in America by Bernard Bernstorff in his explanation to the Berlin foreign office to the impossibility of keeping secret the German American newspaper is subsidized, and to the sinking of the Lusitania.

The former ambassador's explanation was laid before the Senate committee investigating bribery and German propaganda to-day along with other secret documents from the files of the Department of Justice by A. Bruce Bielaski, chief of the bureau of investigation.

In a letter to the foreign office in 1915, Bernstorff asked the subsidizing of papers always ended with him being held responsible for all the articles of such papers. For that reason, he said, he had succeeded in getting free of all relations with the Fair Play for Marcus Braun, and that also would like to be free from the Fatherland, which he added, "has shown itself of little value."

The letter spoke of an unfortunate experience with the Times Mail and said only the future could show "whether we will have better luck with Mr. Huntington Wright and Mr. T. E. Love."

Men Indicted Aroused

With Choir and Organist

Music foreshadowing the Advent season is being prepared by city choirs. A subject for the Episcopal Church to-morrow evening the solo, sung by Eleanor H. Sigler, will be "The Day of His Coming," from Handel's "Messiah." The evening anthem is to be Woodward's "From My Heavenly Home." One of the most striking of this writer's compositions, sung frequently by Messiah Lutheran choir, is "The Radiant Morn Hath Passed Away."

A much underrated anthem of Berthold Tours, "The Pillars of the Earth," gives opportunity for massive chorus work, to be sung at Messiah Lutheran Church to-morrow evening.

Two numbers by Guilmant and two by Mendelssohn are to be the organ program at Market Square Presbyterian Church to-morrow. The prelude at Market Square, by Guilmant, is by a Guilmant number, the "Andante Moderato."

It is expected to have Charles Heimroth, organist of Carnegie Institute at Pittsburgh, and Ralph Kinder, organist of the University of Chicago, to play in Harrisburg churches during the coming season.

Mrs. Florence Ackley, Ley, of the Messiah Lutheran choir, will direct the choir in the evening. The choir will sing for the grand ball, entertainment and vaudeville show to be staged in the Chestnut street Auditorium, Friday evening, January 3. Mrs. Ley was formerly prima donna with the Joseph and Elmer H. Ley, who is bass soloist of "Pine Street," and will be assisted by an assistant. In addition there will be a salesmen's chorus of forty voices and a number of attractive number on the program.

Alfred C. Kuschwa, choirmaster and organist of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, has been chosen president of the Harrisburg Association of Organists. Other officers are: Secretary, Mrs. J. E. Pank, of Steelton; Treasurer, Dr. J. E. Pank, of Steelton; Secretary, Dr. J. E. Pank, of Steelton; Treasurer, Dr. J. E. Pank, of Steelton.

KEYSTONE BOYS TO BE IN ARMY

130,840 Coming Home

The personnel assigned by General Pershing for early return home was given by General March as 5-323 officers and 125,515 men. Additional units of the 92nd and 87th divisions, with some coast artillery regiments and engineers, are included.

200,000 Yankees Out of War

General March announced that at home during the past week more than 200,000 men had been released. The total number of officers released up to yesterday was 10,000. The charge system is being rapidly speeded up as the men in charge of it become more accustomed to the operations.

Transports on Way Over

Announcement was made of the sailing from France of the transports Susquehanna, Santa Anna and De Kalb, with sick, wounded and casuals. The Santa Anna, Captain Kalb sailed December 2 and may be expected to arrive in New York about December 17. The De Kalb has on board eleven naval officers and 574 sailors.

Qualities Among New Yorkers

To select the numerous reports regarding enormous casualties in the 27th (New York) division, General March announced that after a careful examination of casualty lists it had been determined that the casualties reported from all causes in the division was 44 officers and 1-109 men.

New Enlistment Law Needed

Since the start of the army of occupation abroad is indefinite, General March said it would be necessary to ask Congress for new enlistment legislation. Under the present law no provision is made for such a force as will be needed after the four months from the signing of peace, when the war army must be discharged.

EISNER LIKELY TO GET SOLF'S CABINET PLACE

Negotiations in Progress Between Berlin and Munich on Diplomatic Change

London, Dec. 7.—Kurt Eisner, the Bavarian premier, probably will succeed Dr. W. Solf as German foreign minister. Negotiations on the subject now are proceeding between Berlin and Munich, according to the Cologne Gazette, quoted in an Amsterdam dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company.

Munich, Dec. 7, via Geneva.—Anxiety is being shown by the German government, especially the Bavarian, over the financial stability, and even the honesty, of many of the hundreds of Workmen's and Soldiers' Councils now conducting affairs in this country. Reliable reports say the disbursements of these councils for the past two weeks have totaled 800,000,000 marks. If this rate of expense continues to be the usual cost of operating the government, it will exceed the total German budget, with its enormous outlay for military upkeep, by several times.

Money Difficulties Become Acute The Bavarian Gazette says the money difficulties of the councils now drawing salaries, are acute. The financial problem was simple in the beginning because, it is said, the soldiers occupied state buildings which were heated and lighted by the old staff and requisitioned state automobiles. When money needs arose, however, difficulties began, says the newspaper, which at first were met by individual well-wishers, but now have become urgent and serious consequences are threatened.

An undreamed of perspective opens up for the state treasury," the Gazette continues. "If the workers and peasants' councils, without least 30,000 members in 8,000 Bavarian communities, become active and spend twenty marks daily per person."

Newspaper Attacks Eisner

This newspaper says the situation for an attack on Kurt Eisner, the Bavarian Premier, it says the neighboring south German states are growing suspicious of Bavaria and are expressing a desire to separate from her.

DOLLAR BILLS TO TAKE PLACE OF THE HUZZAS

Harrisburgers Who Cheered Victory to Aid Soldiers Through Red Cross

The "Hill" district of Harrisburg is getting ready to show other parts of the city just how to "put over" a Red Cross membership campaign. Col. Mrs. Gilbert L. Culmery, who directs the activities of the military forces of the "Hill" this morning announced a portion of the personnel of her fighters.

Colonel Culmery's appointees are all majors in charge of ward activities. They are: Second ward, Mrs. C. A. Snucker, 1311 Vernon street. Seventh ward, Mrs. C. M. Spahr, 327 South Sixteenth street. Eighth ward, Mrs. W. J. Stewart, 1837 Whitehall street. Ninth ward, Mrs. E. F. Doehne, Market, near Twenty-third street. Thirtieth ward, Mrs. C. P. Turner, 1042 Rollston street.

What the "Majors" Do Colonel Culmery's majors proceeded to get to work early to-day. Their job consists of selecting capable women who will captain the various precincts in the Second, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth and Thirtieth wards. These captains, in turn, will select block lieutenants, who will take charge of the membership drive on the four streets of their own blocks and the courts and streets inside the blocks.

Cash in the Cheers The population of Harrisburg is estimated to be beyond the 74,000 mark. Of these 74,000 persons the large majority spent a portion of Monday, November 11, on the downtown streets, cheering and huzzing because of the fact that Germany had capitulated.

The Red Cross believes that cheering and huzzing was not the beginning and end of the Harrisburg joy over the near approach of peace. The Red Cross is of the opinion that every man, woman and child who took part in the huge celebration of November 11, considers his share of that celebration as worth repeating. The constant stream of volunteers the organization expects a huge membership at the close of the Christmas roll call.

Volunteers Have Started

Merced B. Tate, in charge of roll call headquarters in the old post office building, Third and Locust streets, this morning said that the volunteers have started in earnest. "When we fixed on Thursday and Friday of next week for the 'volunteer' drive—the days on which men and women are urged to volunteer—the Red Cross membership instead of waiting for the solicitors during the following week, we did not imagine that the interest in the Red Cross was such that volunteers would come in immediately. And we have been very agreeably pleased with the constant stream of volunteers which is coming to the membership headquarters.

What many of the volunteers are telling us. And in the majority of cases the volunteers are enrolling for the entire membership of their families.

Supplies Going Out

Mr. Tate, who directs the shipping of supplies for the drive, will have everything ready to ship to the various workers throughout the big district by Tuesday, so that the district's entire can take part in the volunteer drive.

Light Touring Car Is Stolen From Street

A light touring car belonging to J. K. Bowman was stolen from in front of the Chestnut street market this morning while Mr. Bowman was inside the market house purchasing household supplies. The license number is 79199 and the engine number is 184945.

According to Mr. Bowman, his chauffeur drove him to the market and went inside with him to carry the provisions he purchased. When they returned the machine was gone. The police were notified.
