

16,000 CASUALTIES OF MAJOR DEGREE TO BE REPORTED

War Department Hopes to Clear Up the Arrears of Names Within a Week

Washington, Dec. 7.—The War Department announced yesterday that 16,000 major casualties, including killed in action, died of wounds, died of disease or other causes, severely wounded and missing, have not yet been finally reported to the next of kin.

From cable reports now expected, the department hopes to clear up the arrears in major casualties within a week, except for a few names with respect to which identification has not yet been completed.

The official statement issued today shows that of the total major casualties reported by General Pershing on November 27, 60,928 have been reported to the next of kin, with 7,550 still to be reported.

Serious Disorders Are Reported in Berlin

London, Dec. 7.—Serious disorders have arisen in Berlin and considerable firing has occurred in the principal streets, according to reports reaching the Dutch-German frontier, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Amsterdam. The trouble is said to have been caused by the German Bolsheviks.

FLIER CONQUERS STORMS

Washington, Dec. 7.—Despite heavy snowstorms over the Allegheny mountains, which forced an ascent to 12,000 feet, the trip from Pittsburgh to Washington, a distance of 175 miles, was made in seventy-five minutes yesterday by Glenn Martin in a bombing plane equipped with twin Liberty motors and piloted by Major Harley W. Lake, inspector for the division of military aeronautics.

A RAW, SORE THROAT

Eases Quickly When You Apply a Little Muterole.

And Muterole won't blister like the old-fashioned mustard plaster. Just spread it on with your fingers. It penetrates to the sore spot with a gentle tingle, loosens the congestion and draws out the soreness and pain.

Muterole is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. It is fine for quick relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsilitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds on the chest. Nothing like Muterole for croupy children. Keep it handy for instant use. 30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.
