SPANISH INFLUENZA MORE DEADLY THAN WAR

Said That Epidemic Cost More Lives Than American Loss in Battle. Danger Not Over. Great Care Necessary to Prevent Further Outbreak.

The appalling ravages of Spanish influenza in this country are perhaps best realized when the statement is made that more deaths have resulted in little more than a month from this disease than throughout the whole of the European war.

Red Cross Plans to See That No One Is Overlooked on Christmas

Disconsolate Harrisburgers, who had no opportunity to send Christmas boxes to soldier friends overseas have been asked by the Harrisburg chapter, American Red Cross in a statement issued this morning, to contribute gifts to the boys on this side of the ocean.

"We are planning a real victory Christmas for the sick and wounded soldiers in this hospital to include also the men who with most unselfish devotion have cared for their comrades through the trying days of the epidemic of influenza."

"One large (or two small) packages of cigars. One package of chewing gum. One box safety matches. One cake plain chocolate. One stamped Christmas card. One small cake toilet soap. One-fourth pound pure Christmas candy."
