12,000 Handkerchiefs

Will Be Placed On Sale Tomorrow

In Sets Of

6 for 35c. or 69c. a Dozen

Three hundred and sixty thousand Handkerchiefs were purchased by our New York office. Our allotment is twelve thousand. One of the largest manufacturers of handkerchiefs makes a cleanout on the first of December. Every year this store gets its quota. The handkerchiefs are known as "irregulars." All kinds of handkerchiefs, plain and beautiful patterns; but some may be cut slightly off square; others may have a little misprint in design—but only such irregularities as are noticeable to the trained inspectors of a first-class factory. The average person would seldom distinguish the difference unless attention was called to some slight irregularity.

These Handkerchiefs are made up in shamrock, linen, cotton, nainsook—plain hemstitched and embroidered—in white and colors. Sold only in sets of six, but two out of the six were made up for 25c quality. So you can readily see that you are getting excellent values in these sets of six for 35c, or twelve for 69c. Just in time for gifts.
