Thirteenth Ward—Mrs. C. P. Turner, major; Miss Ethel Wolf, 1901 Derry street, captain First precinct; Mrs. Charles W. Emrick, 2559 Perry street, captain Second precinct.

Globe Hundred Percent. The Globe store, Market street, this morning volunteered its Red Cross membership, covering every employe. A committee of store employes which canvassed the establishment did not encounter a refusal, and a large number of the store folks took our memberships for their entire families.

Can Get Posters. Market street and other downtown business streets are a desert, so far as Red Cross posters are concerned. Comparatively few of these posters are being displayed. Vice-Chairman Mercer B. Tate this morning asked that the merchants of the city generally be requested to send to headquarters, Third and Locust streets, for posters.

Can Volunteer Thursday. Thursday and Friday of this week are the big volunteer days for the city district. On each of the 493 city blocks there is to be one home or place of business where persons living on that block can go and enroll in the Red Cross, thus giving evidence that they not only have a dollar for themselves and the members of their family, but that they have a heart.

quarters will be distinguished through the placement of a special poster on the porch or in the window. It will be white, with red lettering. On the poster will be the word "Join" and a large Red Cross, and then the words "All you need is a heart and a dollar."

Following Mayor's Example. From different cities in Pennsylvania this morning came the information that the mayors of those municipalities, like Mayor Keister, of Harrisburg, are asking their citizens to "cash in" their armistice-day cheers for Red Cross memberships.

Volunteer Booths. All volunteer memberships will, of course, be credited to the blocks on which they belong—whether they be turned in down town or on the member's own block.

A number of booths for volunteers will be in prominent places in the central city. They will be found at the capitol, the county courthouse, the post office, Philadelphia and Reading station, Pennsylvania railroad station, Boyman's store and Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart's store.

Members of the Motor Messenger corps of the Red Cross will be in charge of the booths at these places.

COUNCIL MOVES TO WIDEN STREET

cut to North streets, to 16 feet, the abandoning of the eastern sidewalk and widening of the roadway to the present edge of the park. The eastern sidewalk will be retained in the park probably just at the top of the terrace along third street.

With this additional space the western sidewalk width will be increased 5 feet and the roadway to 48 feet.

To Cost $25,000. Commissioner Lynch said he will include in his budget estimate for next year $25,000 to pay for the paving of the additional space to be added to the roadway. Relaying of the street car tracks also will be necessary according to the plans which have been made.

City commissioners conferred yesterday with City Solicitor John E. Fox and City Engineer M. B. Cowden on the co-operation with the state in making the park improvements and the construction of the State street bridge as part of the development. They decided the city will do everything possible to aid in the rapid completion of the park extension improvements. It is likely the Legislature will be asked to authorize a referendum vote on the transfer of the $300,000 Walnut street bridge, the money to be used for the State street viaduct. Other plans approved are the widening of Third street, closing of Fourth and Sixth streets, through the park, and placing of the building line in North street, from Third to Seventh streets, on the north side twenty feet farther north, providing the state will meet the consequential damages.

Urges Street Paving. A petition was read in council today urging the paving of Walnut street, from Cameron street to the Parkton creek. It was signed by owners of property along the street. An ordinance was introduced by Commissioner Lynch, by request, which when passed finally will close Moorhead street, just west of Cameron street.

The ordinance transferring $1002 from a witness fee fund in the city solicitor's budget, to street grading funds in the highway department, was passed. Other action by the commissioners included appointment of Margaret L. Rohrer as clerk and stenographer in the city health bureau to succeed Ruth Witoughy, resigned, and Dr. William Tyler Douglas as parochial school inspector to succeed the late Dr. C. M. Sullivan.

Lloyd George For World Nation League

London, Dec. 10. — Premier Lloyd George, at a great meeting in Albert Hall yesterday, made an appeal for the vote of the women.

The premier pointed out that between 6,000,000 and 7,000,000 women would have a direct influence on the legislation of the future, which would largely depend on how they voted. "The coming peace must make war difficult, if not impossible," said the premier. "Those who made the war must play the penalty. The higher they are the more reason why they should be punished. The German people must also be made to pay the penalty. If it is an easy peace it will not be a just peace."

King George and Admiral Beatty Aboard M. S. Queen Elizabeth

KING GEORGE AND ADMIRAL BEATTY ABOARD THE QUEEN ELIZABETH. During the surrender of the German battleships to the British Grand Fleet, accompanied by an American battle squadron and French cruisers, King George witnessed the historic event from the deck of Admiral Beatty's flagship, the Queen Elizabeth. This British official photograph was taken at the time of King George's recent visit to the fleet and shows the King and Admiral Beatty aboard the Queen Elizabeth.

"OWN YOUR HOME" CAMPAIGN TO BEGIN

dent Gipple suggested that the "Own Your Own Home" campaign be revived at this time. This campaign was begun early last year, but the efforts of the board had to be relaxed on account of the prohibitive prices during war times. The movement has broad sympathies politically and economically as it aims to make a better citizen of the average workman, through the ownership of his own home.

The matter of permanent headquarters for the board was brought up, and a committee was instructed to secure an office, if possible, in the business section of the city. This move is almost imperative at present due to the ever-increasing business and the necessity for permanent headquarters, accessible to the general public has been recognized for some time.

The booster meeting, which has been planned for the near future, will bring some prominent real estate men to this city. William A. Garland, president of the National Association of Real Estate Boards was suggested. Mr. Garland is now directing general real estate activities with offices in Washington, in connection with the Federal government.

The members of the local board have received their realtor certificates from the national board. The term "realtor" applies in this connection applies to all active members of recognized real estate boards. Prior to the meeting last night a luncheon was given to the members of the executive committee at the Engineers Society, as the guests of President Gipple.

The committees appointed for the ensuing year are as follows: Membership—A. C. Young, chairman; W. E. Jones, P. Vanderbo, J. P. Rohrer. Press—S. G. Backenstoss, chairman; William P. Miller, H. W. Kony. Municipal Ordinance—J. C. Thompson, chairman; C. O. Backenstoss, E. M. Hershey. Legislative—Herman P. Miller, chairman; Charles Adler, H. M. Bird, S. G. Backenstoss. Taxation—J. H. Maloney, chairman; J. C. Thompson, Augustus Lutz, Barton Van Dyke. Arbitration—M. R. Alleman.

chairman; H. G. Pedlow, Edward Moeslein. Valuations (elective)—Edward Moeslein, chairman; A. C. Young, George A. Shreiner.

TO DEBATE WAR PROHIBITION. At its meeting next Monday night in the assembly room of the Central Y. M. C. A. building the class in public speaking will throw out the timely question, "Has Germany Forfeited Her Right of Admittance to the League of Peace?" Members of the class will debate the proposition. E. E. Unger presided at last night's meeting. A number of interesting talks were given.

DIRECTORS TO MEET. The monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Central Y. M. C. A. will be held Thursday noon in the "Y" assembly rooms. Routine business will be discussed.
