CITY OPENS ITS HEART AND PURSE TO THE RED CROSS

Patriotic Men and Women Don't Wait to Be Solicited

Harrisburg didn't have to wait to be asked to join the Red Cross. Beginning at 3 o'clock this morning on every one of the 402 city blocks men and women were going to Red Cross headquarters on their own block and volunteering their membership.

The sign of volunteer headquarters on each block is the Red Cross poster bearing the word "Join" at the top, and "all you need is a heart and a dollar" at the bottom.

They may join—but not indefinitely. There is a time limit on volunteer membership. No volunteers

HARRISBURG SOLDIER WINS CROIX DE GUERRE IN FIELD

Samuel Bloom Modestly Carries War Cross in Pocket, According to Letters Received Here From the Front

Cited for bravery in action against the murderous Huns and proud possessor of the Croix de Guerre, Sam Bloom, eighteen years old, after fifteen months' foreign service, is so modest that he carries the emblem safely tucked away in his pocket.

No reference was made in the letter as to the condition in which Bloom found Bloom, but from the manner in which the story is related, it has been assumed from later reference that he has almost fully recovered.

"I met Sam Bloom yesterday. He was wounded three times and has a citation and a medal from the French. He is very modest and carries the medal in his pocket. He is only 18 years old now and has already been over here for fifteen months.

WILSON'S FLEET NEARS COAST OF FRANCE IN PEACE

Brest in Holiday Attire; President's Arrival Awaited by French Deputies

Brest, Dec. 12.—Brest has put on its holiday attire and is eagerly awaiting the arrival of President Wilson tomorrow. The Presidential fleet is not far off the coast.

If the weather early tomorrow is rough, the Presidential ship may enter the sheltered roadstead towards 10 o'clock. Otherwise the regular program will be carried out, the steamer entering the harbor about noon and the President landing from her at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

A large delegation of Socialist members of the Chamber of Deputies has arrived to greet President Wilson. Cabinet ministers and officials will arrive tomorrow.

The Vice President Wilson and the Count Dajot, along with the President will pass, are elaborately beflagged.

London, Dec. 12.—The United States battle fleet which is to form part of the escort of the U. S. S. George Washington into Brest, left Portland this morning. It was commanded by Vice-Admiral Sims, who was on board the battleship Wyoming.

Whoever heard of a loving couple having marital troubles? It doesn't seem likely that such would be the case, but facts are facts, and Prothymonary Charles E. Pass and his deputies to-day found that loving folks sometimes have difficulties, too.

Counsel for Mrs. Amelia C. Loving filed a libel in divorce for her today. Mrs. Loving alleges her husband, William E. Loving, has just been the opposite in his treatment of her, and because of his cruelties she is compelled to seek a separation decree.

Two other similar actions were started to-day, George W. Walsong asking for a divorce from Alice C. Walsong, alleging desertion; and Eva B. from Edward J. Blosser, charging cruel and barbarous treatment.

MOTORISTS NOT PLEASED OVER POLICE BUREAU

Automobile Owners See No Need For Fees to Recover Stolen Cars

THE CLUB DISAPPROVES Dollar Registration Brings Forth Protest by Many Individual Owners

IT MEANS A DOUBLE TAX Vast Revenue Would Come to New Offices Opened by Police Chiefs of State

The Harrisburg Motor Club as a unit and local motorists in general are entirely out of sympathy with the Clearing House for the Recovery of Stolen Automobiles, established in Harrisburg by the Pennsylvania Chiefs of Police Association...

The vociferous outburst of disapproval and protest which has arisen here, is being followed too by grumblings which forecast later trouble from car owners in other sections of Pennsylvania.

The infant prodigy of the chiefs of police was instituted but a short time ago. Letters, inviting car owners to register their autos with the association as a method of protection, are now being mailed out, and already a number of them have been received here in Harrisburg.

The letter inviting registration is: "As an owner of an automobile you are deeply interested in the plan of the Pennsylvania Chiefs of

SOLDIERS' FAMILIES GET BELATED CHECKS

Activities of Home Section of Red Cross Saved Many Harrisburg Wives and Children From Want While Money Was Held Up

Belated checks long overdue to the dependent kin of the men in the service arrived in large measure to-day in Harrisburg. In many instances the money came after months and months of delay and came at a moment some of the relatives said when they had given up all hope of ever getting it.

Meanwhile announcement was made by the local Red Cross home service section that not a single check was reported to the home service section of the Red Cross in Harrisburg because of the activity of the organization, but in many Pennsylvania towns and cities throughout the country, there has been much suffering.

No actual cases of privation caused by the long delay in sending checks were reported to the home service section of the Red Cross in Harrisburg because of the activity of the organization, but in many Pennsylvania towns and cities throughout the country, there has been much suffering.

Further inefficiency of the Washington bureaus is cited by Washington correspondents in dispatches dated this morning, in which it is stated that American soldiers returned in France are being returned to the United States without having received any pay for months, and are being sent from debarkation points to interior points without being provided with funds.
