Ten-Year-Old Boy Is Killed by Automobile

Foster William Stotz, ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Stotz, East Main street, was run down and killed on Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the corner of Spruce and Main streets by an automobile driven by Russel Harbold, of Clifton, who was on his way home from work at the local car plant.

AROUND THE BASES

Of all the tales from this ghastly war most pitiful, that, the fate of the Czars; Most murdered, with all his family; While he who caused it in luxury; Picks out his own castle, free from care; The mills of the gods grind slowly there!

Hearst tells you how to get a character. It's hot stuff. Writing to Carvalho, his office boss, March 3, 1917, he said: "If situation quiets down, please remove color flags from first page and little flags on inside pages, reserving these for special occasions of a warlike or patriotic kind. I think they have been good for this week, giving us a very American character and probably helping sell papers, but to continue effective they should be reserved for occasions."

American League to Bar Players Who Deserted to Join Shipyard Teams

Chicago, Dec. 12.—The status of baseball players who deserted their clubs last season to join teams in shipyard leagues will be one of the problems up for settlement at the annual meeting of the club owners of the American League here to-day. These players, it was said, will be barred from playing in the league.

To Hold Annual Meeting of Advancement League

This association, of which the Harrisburg Branch takes an active part, is composed of both white and colored people who are working for the uplift of the latter and the inculcating of a better understanding between both races in all parts of the country. It aims to break down discrimination and segregation of all kinds and the enforcement of the laws to the end that lynchings will be done away with in this country.

San Francisco, Dec. 12.—The Metropolitan Golf Association decided at its annual meeting last night to resume the championship matches which were suspended when the United States went into the war.

God's curse on the coward who lacks human heart

And fees from the damage he's done; It was hoped that his kind had all been confined in the country that gave us the Hun. New York, Dec. 12.—B means of a deal put through yesterday the Giants have secured the services of Jake Daubert for next season. In exchange for Daubert the Giants gave the Dodgers Walter Holke, first baseman and George Smith, pitcher.

Big Leagues to Get Together

President Heydler Urges Cooperation So All May Make Money. As the National League finished its annual session yesterday, the American League began its annual confab at Chicago, and the prospects are they will get together shortly in a general pow-wow. John Heydler, the newly elected National president, emphasized in his speech: "We are now more concerned with the future, and how the game is to be generally conducted; also that the sport will be safeguarded and perpetuated, and those financially interested will have a living chance after paying the players adequately and fairly."
