

Two Landmarks in York County Disappear
 Mount Wolf, Pa., Dec. 13.—Several old landmarks were removed, one in the borough and the other at Saginaw, during the past several weeks. The Old Red Mill property, which stood for many years at Maple and Railroad streets, was raised, the property having been purchased by E. O. Poff from George A. Wolf & Sons. Mr. Poff will use the timber in erecting a fishhop.
 A chestnut tree, known to have stood for more than a century on the Union Church grounds at Saginaw, was cut down a few days ago. The tree was six feet in diameter at its base, while one of its branches was four feet in diameter. The tree produced nine cords of wood.

Pastor Serves Columbia Church Thirty-five Years
 Columbia, Pa., Dec. 13.—The Rev. Dr. J. H. Pannebecker yesterday observed the thirty-fifth anniversary of his pastorate at Trinity Reformed Church. Dr. Pannebecker has been identified with every public movement in Columbia in the past generation and has been a director of the Columbia Hospital since that institution started. He is a graduate of Franklin and Marshall College, was connected with the Order of Pages and later with the Knights of King Arthur, in the latter receiving the degree of Earl, a distinguished honor for long and faithful service. He is regarded as an authority on boys' work, which he has been engaged many years.

Four Lancaster County Soldiers Reported Wounded
 Marietta, Dec. 13.—Mrs. Matilda Tangert, of near Lancaster, has been notified by the War Department that her son, Private Earl Tangert, was wounded in action, degree undetermined, on September 16. He is attached to Company D, Eleventh Infantry.
 Sergeant Thomas Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson, of Marietta, who was gassed several months ago, has now been reported wounded in battle. He was trained at Camp Meade with the Three Hundred and Sixteenth Infantry and went overseas last summer. He was recently made a sergeant.
 Private George E. Myers, of Barreville, Lancaster county, a member of the Seventy-seventh Division, Fuld Artillery, has been reported wounded in France. Prior to enlisting in the service he was employed by the Levi Tobacco Company, Lancaster, and trained at Camp Meade, which was then commanded by Edward R. White, of Company D, Three Hundred and Eleventh Infantry, son of Mrs. Alice White, Concord Lane, Lancaster county, who was wounded in France in October. The young man, trained at Camp Dix, Wrightstown, N. J. Prior to his enlistment he was employed as a foreman in a cigar factory.

BATTLE ANNIVERSARY
 Columbia, Pa., Dec. 13.—Amos R. Hougendobler yesterday observed the fifty-fifth anniversary of the Battle of Fredericksburg, Va., as the only survivor of Company K of the Cook's Rangers, of Columbia, which participated in that memorable fight. This company was organized by Captain, afterward General, Joseph W. Fisher, who became Governor of Wyoming, and the other survivors in the county are Abram Reese and Edward Schreiner, of Lancaster. Mr. Hougendobler is still an active man and a prominent merchant. He was formerly postmaster of Columbia.

WOUNDED MEN REACH CARLISLE
 Thirty-five Soldiers Who Participated in St. Mihiel Fight Brought to Hospital
 Carlisle, Pa., Dec. 13.—Carlisle's War Department General Hospital was formally put to its new uses yesterday with the arrival of the first wounded men from overseas who will be given treatment here. The first contingent, numbering thirty-five men, were mainly from western states. Several of them were among the first contingent to arrive in this country after the signing of the armistice, they having left France on November 6. The men are mainly from the First Army and helped to smash the St. Mihiel salient.
 More wounded men are expected daily. Within the past three days the medical corps and supply units have been enlarged by the arrival of men and a new influx of soldiers is expected from medical stations in Georgia. The staff of the institution is being enlarged daily.

Forty Cases of Influenza at Grantham Orphanage
 Mechanicsburg, Pa., Dec. 13.—In the rural district in this and other sections of the county influenza is again raging to such an extent that in many instances entire families are afflicted and in others one or two members are stricken. The Grantham orphanage, at Grantham, Pa., is no exception. Forty cases of influenza were reported at the orphanage on Tuesday. The epidemic swept those localities earlier in the season.
 At Grantham there are probably forty cases at the orphanage, and Shepherdstown about three miles south of this place, is undergoing the second scourge.

York Haven Sergeant Had 55 Days Active Service
 York Haven, Pa., Dec. 13.—Being recalled from the trenches to enter an officers training school probably saved the life of Sergeant Roger L. Shearer, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Shearer, of York Haven, as only a short time after leaving the company to which he had been assigned the outfit was wiped out almost to a man. This information was contained in a letter received yesterday by Sergeant Shearer's parents. Since Shearer has successfully passed through the Fifth Company, Fourth Platoon candidates' school, he is now awaiting a commission. Being a member of the Seventy-eighth division, he is destined to see further service in France, as this division has been ordered to remain overseas. Sergeant Shearer has seen fifty-five days of active service at the front, seventeen successive days on one occasion and thirty-eight days on another. His letter bears the date of November 17.

Luther League Elects New Officers at Mechanicsburg
 Mechanicsburg, Pa., Dec. 13.—At the annual business meeting of the Lutheran League of St. Mark's Lutheran Church on Tuesday evening the following officers were chosen for the coming year: President, Miss Lech Knoll; vice-president, Miss Beatrice Heiges; secretary, A. S. Hertzler; treasurer, Miss Edith E. Pegley; organist, Miss Dorothy Heiges; assistant, Miss Frances Mamma.
 Mrs. Will King entertained the members of the Ladies' Aid Society of Grace Evangelical Church on Thursday evening at her home in East Locust street. A musical and literary program was given.
 Mrs. George Coble has returned to her home in West Locust street after visiting her daughter, Mrs. Edgar Cole, in New Jersey.

WOUNDED SOLDIER HOME
 Carlisle, Pa., Dec. 13.—A Cumberland county boy wounded in action is back again on American soil. He is William Hall, a farmer, living near Carlisle. News of his injury was contained in the official casualty lists released Monday of this week and his ship docked at New York on Tuesday. News has been received of the death in action of Elmer L. Wiley, of Hummer's Run, who was in the field artillery. Private Clyde Barron, one of twin brothers, who went into service with the Pennsylvania National Guard, is also reported wounded. He is one of the five sons of Mrs. Michael Barron, of Carlisle, four of whom are in service.

NEWS OF MIFFLIN COUNTY SOLDIERS IN U. S. SERVICE
 Lewistown, Pa., Dec. 13.—A message has been received from John H. Goss, of Mount Rock, saying that his son, Vier Goss, had been severely gassed in France and is in a hospital.
 A letter from William Calahan from France states that he is well and that the other boys of the famous One Hundred and Twelfth are on their way to the interior of Germany.
 Wayne Crissman, a member of Company M, One Hundred and Twelfth Regiment, of Lewistown, is in a hospital in France, severely wounded.
 Mrs. Fred Edeline of Lewistown has received word that her son, Corporal L. J. Kirwan, was severely wounded in France and has arrived at Staten Island, N. J. for treatment. He was with the One Hundred and Fourth Engineers.
 West Hugh Rupert, of Lewistown, stationed at Camp Hancock, Statesboro, Ga., has been promoted to second lieutenant.
 Charles R. Beaver, Company D, Four Hundred and Sixty-first Telegraph Battalion, in France, has just completed one year in the service.

 Sylvester Albert Fry, of Lewistown, is reported to have been severely wounded in France.
 Lieutenant W. H. Neely, of Mifflintown, a member of the Fifth Aero Squadron, in France, has done a lot of flying in France and had some narrow escapes.
 A message states that Lieutenant George R. Phillips, whose plane was shot down shortly before the war ended, is safe and well. Longacre, reported missing in action on November 8, has written to friends here that he is on deck and in good health.
 First Lieutenant Robert P. Meyer, of the ship Mississippi, has been calling on friends here.

NO MAIL DELIVERY
 Cly, Pa., Dec. 13.—Influenza had stopped the delivery of mail to the rural district several days this week owing to the illness of both Rural Carrier William Eppley and his substitute, Cy Shelley. Both have been suffering from influenza. As a result the patrons of the Cly mail route received no newspapers and were therefore, cut off from the doings of the outside world.

AUTOMOBILE STOLEN
 New Bloomfield, Pa., Dec. 13.—On Tuesday evening the garage of John P. Adams was broken open and his automobile stolen. Taken with it were some surgical instruments of Dr. E. E. Moore, who had been using the machine for the past several days.

HEAVY PENALTIES EXACTED
 Sacramento, Cal., Dec. 13.—We will show that this organization levied on the agricultural interests of California penalties in excess of $8,000,000, said Robert Duncan, special United States attorney in the trial against members of the Industrial Workers of the World, a jury for which was completed yesterday.

DEER HUNTER WOUNDED
 Waynesboro, Pa., Dec. 13.—A gunning accident occurred about two miles from Pine Grove Furnace, in Adams county, as a result of which Harvey Taylor, aged 24, of Wenckeville, is in the hospital with a hole in his left foot. A party of deer hunters belonging to the Taylor camp were hunting in the mountains, when Harvey Taylor tramped upon a stick, which flew up and struck the trigger of the gun of a companion, causing it to explode. The bullet entered Taylor's foot, with the result reported.

MOTOR CLUBS NEW OFFICERS
 Waynesboro, Pa., Dec. 13.—Last evening the Waynesboro Motor Club at their meeting elected the following officers to serve for the ensuing term: President, J. J. Schmidt; vice-president, Paul Stoner; secretary, H. R. Pinney; treasurer, C. W. Sexton. The following board of governors was also elected: S. A. Funk, chairman; J. R. Arthur, H. E. Henneberger, D. E. Harshman and Ralph Stoner.
