

SPARTACUS RIOT IN BERLIN IS LED BY LIEBKNECHT

Group Organizes to In flame Population to Strengthen Revolution

Zurich, Switzerland, Dec. 13.—Ad- vices received here say that at the time of the riots in Berlin the munitions factories in the northern outskirts of the city were pillaged by order of Dr. Karl Liebknecht, head of the Spartacus group of So- cialists.

This group is organizing meetings everywhere and exhorting the popu- lation to revolt. The advice says that forty-two meetings have been announced for the present week.

The Red Flag, organ of Lieb- knecht and his followers, has pub- lished in large type the following note to working men: "Be ready because the troops which are returning to Berlin are for the purpose of serving against the revolution."

No Decision on Hypothetical Points

The Attorney General's Depart- ment will not render an opinion on "a hypothetical proposition," such as whether trustees of a state hos- pital would be liable, individually or collectively, for damages in the event that any person was killed or injured by the hospital ambu- lance or in case bills were incurred when there is no state appropriation made to pay them, according to a decision given to-day by Deputy At- torney General Hargett to officers of the Scranton State Hospital. He says they are speculative questions and that the department will ren- der opinions upon consideration of the facts when certain situations arise. The trustees are informed that they may place insurance upon the hospital's motor ambulance against theft, but that the state in- surance fund covers the fire hazard and that liability insurance may also be taken out.

State Health Department authori- ties to-day said that investigations were being made into the situations in a number of communities in east- ern counties where recurrences of influenza had been reported. No serious outbreaks have been re- ported this week, it was stated.

The Public Service Commission to-day made an order for the Pitts- burgh Railways Company, to pre- pare all of its cars for immediate service except summer cars. This is the result of prolonged investiga- tion.

ROGER O'MARA DIES By Associated Press Pittsburgh, Pa., Dec. 13.—Roger O'Mara, one of the best known poli- ticians and detectives in the coun- try, died at his home here to-day, aged 73 years.

GERMANY'S PLOT FOR WORLD WAR SHOWN IN PROBE

Government Informed 130 Hun Civilians Before the Net Was Spread

Washington, Dec. 13.—The Ger- man government on July 10, 1914, in- formed about 130 German civilian em- ployees at a conference in Berlin that a world war would be started soon, Captain G. B. Lester, of the Army in- telligence service, testified to-day be- fore the Senate committee investigat- ing German and brewers' propaganda. These employees then were dis- patched to all parts of the world, thir- ty-one coming to the United States, to stimulate pan-German propaganda, Captain Lester declared. He said his information came from an unnamed informant, now interned in this coun- try.

The German propagandists landed in the United States in August, 1914, on the same boat with Dr. H. F. Albert, known as the paymaster of the enemy propaganda system in this country, and immediately formed the nucleus for German propaganda.

These propagandists were chosen by the German government, Captain Lester testified, because of their knowledge of foreign languages, their ability to write and their knowledge of legal and public matters in gen- eral.

WOMEN TO PLAY BIG PART IN THE RED CROSS DRIVE

The Campaign For Volunteer Members Ends Tonight at 8 O'clock

The Red Cross volunteer campaign for members, which began yester- day morning, ends to-night at 8 o'clock; and while the volunteer push is in its last hours the several thousand workers who will take part in the big drive for members next week are gathering up loose ends and preparing to "show up"—to what they call the queen's taste—the men's teams which have been canvassing Harrisburg for war work purposes.

While men will take some little part in next week's Red Cross mem- bership campaign, the real work will be done by the women of Harris- burg and the balance of the dis- trict. There will be over 4,000 of them on the job in Harrisburg alone. In addition, several thousands will canvass the balance of Dauphin county, all of Perry county and the river towns of Cumberland county.

The three colonels who will di- rect the drive next week—Mrs. G. L. Culmery, Mrs. C. H. Hunter and Mrs. J. Bradley Markward—to-day united in making this statement: "The women of Harrisburg next week will make an effort to surpass the results attained in any previous war work campaign conducted in Harrisburg."

BOTTLE TRADE MAY CLOSE THE SALOONS [Continued from First Page.] more undesirable, at this time, than ever before.

Military police from Middleton and Marsh Run patrol the streets every night trying to keep down the practice of drinking among the soldiers as much as possible.

Charles B. Mallet, chief of the Bureau of Investigation for the Department of Justice, addressing a meeting of liquor men in Philadelphia yesterday, said that bootlegging is on the increase there, and called upon the liquor men to cooperate in its suppression.

It was the action taken by federal authorities in Philadelphia that caused the local liquor men to fear that unless indiscriminating dealers here mend their ways, federal authorities will step in and take a hand. Numerous arrests for bootlegging have been made by military and Harrisburg police within the last few
