Sees Smashing Point Near

"I am thoroughly convinced that the smashing point has been reached. Germany, as well as ourselves, has reached the end of her resources. Responsible political authorities do not deny'lt, but military circles in Berlin are indulging in self-deceit. I am convinced that, should Germany attempt another winter campaign, an upheaval will occur in the empires. That would be far worse than a disadvantageous peace. Predicts Wave of Revolt

"If the sovereigns of the Central Empires are unable to conclude peace within a few months, then the peoples of the empires will do it, and a wave of revolt will sweep away all lor which our brothers have been fighthig. Perhaps months will elapse before America can throw the strength of her battalions into the fight, but ther moral support is a very great facthore for new reinforcements. Delay is to our disadvantage, for our enemies can wait longer than we."

The letter then outlined the vlans

Theda Bara, in a remarkable vampire play, entitled "The Clemenceau Case," based on a story by At the Alexander Dumas, is the attraction at the Victoria Theater to-day only.

This picture gives Theda Bara opportunity for the display of the many artistic and dramatic talents which have helped her on her way to stardom in the motion picture world, and it cannot help but win her new admirers and hold tighter the throngs who already enthusiastically sing her praises. The story has a smashing climax that carries with it the strong play of human emotions of love, hate, revenge, jealousy and the rest. It should not be missed.

Charlie Chaplin, in "Doughnut Designer," is also booked for to-day.
