

BIG LEAGUE WILL OPEN ON MAY 1; PAL MOORE GETS DECISION OVER WILDE, BRITISH CHAMP

Von Holtren Was First Southpaw With His Club

Chicago—George Van Holtren is well known to the baseball fans of to-day as a great batsman and outfielder, also for his long connection with the New York Giants; but to the oldtimers Van was first known as a pitcher, one of the phenomenal type.

Van Holtren was a remarkable ballplayer and pitcher. He pitched for 17 seasons, but fame first came to Van through his ability to hurl the most astonishing curves and drops with his mighty left arm.

Chicago Baseball At Start Anson signed Van Holtren for the express purpose of beating Detroit and its famous left-handed slugger.
