lots of places from 900 Pennsylvania employees. A statement issued at the Capitol says: 'It is estimated that not more than 1,000 Pennsylvania soldiers are so disabled as to need educational training for a new occupation under the Federal Board for Vocational Education. Consequently, less than one-fifth of the places offered by Pennsylvania employers for disabled veterans will be filled.

The vast number of employment opportunities available for such disabled men in Pennsylvania will, however, give wide range of choice for the disabled veterans ready to enter the task for which they have been 'reeducated.'

The 20,000 employment opportunities for disabled soldiers throughout Pennsylvania are classified and card indexed in the Bureau of Employment in the Department of Labor and Industry at Harrisburg. Classification is made as to the nature of plant offering employment, occupation or trade offered, and disability of worker who could perform the task.

BANDITS BOLDLY ROB BANK; SLAY TWO; WOUND ONE

Get $13,000 From East Brooklyn Savings Institution; Make Their Escape

New York, Dec. 14.—Two officers of the East Brooklyn Savings Bank were killed yesterday by two daring highwaymen who escaped in a taxicab with $13,000 after shooting a detective who tried to stop them and holding a crowd at bay with their revolvers. The robbers chose the busiest time of the day for their purpose. Entering as if to make a deposit, one advanced to the paying teller's window and suddenly thrust a revolver through the bars, while his companion "covered" other persons in the bank.

When Daniel C. Peal, the teller, failed to "come across as ordered" he was shot through the heart. His slayer then took his turn at "covering" the crowd, while his companion ran to another window, forced a clerk to retreat to the rear of his cage and then crawled through the small opening. From that cage he hastened to the one where the murdered teller lay. Hastily he thrust rolls of bills into a linen bag and when Henry W. Coons, assistant treasurer of the bank, ran forward to guard the money, he, too, was shot. He died later at a hospital.

Later the chauffeur, who said his name was George W. McCulloch, gave himself up to the police. He claimed that he was not implicated in the robbery, but that he had had a pistol pressed to his head and had been threatened with death if he did not obey orders to the rear of his car.
