The bullet passed close enough to the detective's head to graze the skin. The detective, however, secured the weapon and landed his man safely in jail.

MOTORISTS JOIN IN A MOVEMENT AGAINST BUREAU

Charge For Registering Machines Against Theft Is Not Popular

Greater storms are appearing on the sea than which the Chiefs of Police Association of Pennsylvania is sailing its clearing house for the recovery of stolen automobiles scheme. The Pennsylvania Motor Federation, following an agitation for action on its part, by the Harrisburg Motor Club has declared war on the ambitious plan.

Charge For Registering Machines Against Theft Is Not Popular

Plans are being made to warn every automobile owner in Pennsylvania against registering their car with the clearing house, as the chiefs of police are endeavoring to have them do. Every organization in Pennsylvania, affiliating with the Pennsylvania Motor Federation, is being warned now by its officials, advising them to post their members against following the solicitations of the organization. The Pennsylvania Motorist, the magazine of the American Automobile Association, read by the greater number of auto owners in Harrisburg, and a great influence among them, has been asked to open its columns against the plan.

Hunter's Joke Leads to Loss of Limb; Leg Amputated Above Knee

Chambersburg, Dec. 16.—John Foreman, who got the famous Parnell knob, and Harry Stoner, a neighbor, went hunting in Bear Valley, across the mountain from their homes. Jokingly, Foreman, the father of a large family, crawled back of a bush while Stoner was eating lunch. He gave out several turkey calls. Stoner, not knowing his whereabouts, got his gun and blazed into the bush from which the call came. The bullet hit Foreman above the right knee, shattering the bone. The injured man was brought to the hospital here and surgeons found it necessary to amputate the limb in order to save his life. For several terms he had been a county auditor.
