

CHILDREN TO GIVE PENNIES TO MILK FUND

Schools to Aid in Buying Necessary Food for the Youngsters

To add to the fund used for the purchase of milk for sickly Harrisburg children, Miss C. S. Reinhold, chairman of the Nursery Home, today announced that a special Christmas offering will be taken this year among the schoolchildren of Harrisburg, each child being requested to contribute one penny to the fund.

Teachers in the various schools throughout the city will act as receivers for the fund. Miss Reinhold estimates that $150 will be raised if each child contributes one cent, but that she believes the $200 mark will be passed since many will contribute five cents and even more.

DEIHL CHILDREN GIVING CONCERT

Fourth Annual Benefit Entertainment Given by Youngsters For Flu Sufferers

On Wednesday afternoon, December 18, at 4 o'clock, in the chapel of Old Paxton Church, Paxtang, the Deihl children, assisted by Helen Cordry and the Miller children, will give their fourth annual benefit concert. This concert has become an established affair, and much looked forward to. The wise ones with their nursery jingles, the older ones with their well-acted songs and good music have always charmed their hearers. The children are particularly anxious to "make good" this year, so that they may have a generous purse for the many little ones who have suffered the loss of home and parents through the influenza epidemic.

The program follows: Piano duet, (a) "Tis," (b) "Autumn Idyll," William Rendy, Mary Esther and Helen Cordry; piano solos, (a) "Scherzo," Kullak, (b) "Song Without Words, Opus 30," Mendelssohn, Helen Cordry; songs, "Always Do as People Say You Should," from Fortune Teller, Helen Deihl; comb solo, "Christmas Medley," Robert Deihl; Mother Goose, "Four and Twenty Tailors," "Sleep, Baby Sleep," "A Frog He Would a Wooley Go," "Simple Simon," David Deihl; piano duet, "Gayety Polka," Wohlforth, Helen and Mary Esther Deihl; Mother Goose songs, "Dame Get Up and Bake Your Pies," "See-saw Marjory Daw," "Curly Locks," "Old King Cole," "Rock-a-bye-baby," "Baby Irving," vocal duet, "Ring Out Ye Bells," Greenwald, Mary Esther and Helen Cordry; song, "Two Little Pickinikins," Helen and David and Baby Irving; piano duet, "Through Field and Forest," Vogel, William and Elizabeth Miller; song, "Oh, My Aviator," Robert Deihl; piano solo, "Under the Balcony," William Miller; songs, "Pretty Kitty and Bow-wow," Helen and David Deihl, by request; piano solo, "Album Leaf," Edward Greig; left hand arrangement, "Believe Me if All Those Endearing Young Charms," Mary Esther; piano solo, "The Band," Wright, Elizabeth Miller; songs, "Nancy Meency Nimbly Nan," Robert Deihl, by Lehman; piano duet, "Reverie," Behr, Robert and Esther Deihl; ending with patriotic and Christmas songs by Baby Irving and the audience.

Advice to the Lovelorn

BY BEATRICE FAIRFAX HAS A PICKLE LOVER

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX: I have been going about with a young man for a year. As he is a college student I did not expect him to spend any money on me. Now this young man tells my girl friend that there can never be anything between us.

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX: I am an inventor of 21 beautiful and timid with women. From childhood I have cared little for them. Now my reason I have not been able to attract the attention of some honest girl who would love me. I take more interest in thinking and developing new ideas than in going with girls to parties.
