

Unfortunate Shot of Son Causes Wagaman's Death

Gettysburg, Pa., Dec. 17.—The hunting accident in the mountains above Cashtown on the opening day of the deer season when Alphonso L. Wagaman, of Square Corner, was shot in the leg by his son, has proved fatal, lockjaw developing from the wound. Wagaman and his son were members of an independent party who went to the mountains to try their luck in the hunt for deer. Early in the morning of the opening day they shot a deer, but did not hurt it sufficiently to stop it in its flight. Believing that the animal had entered some brush not far away the party stationed themselves at different places in the vicinity and young Wagaman started out to round the animal up. While he was gone the father moved away from his position and went into the brush. Not knowing the man had moved and seeing the stir in the brush the son thought it was the deer and fired, the ball going through his father's right leg just below the knee. He was hurried home where he was tenderly cared for and was getting along nicely until last Thursday, when tetanus developed and he rapidly grew worse, lingering for only a few days. He was fifty years old and is survived by his wife and three sons.

RHEUMATISM LEAVES YOU FOREVER

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer in this vicinity that if two bottles of Allenru, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenru has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiable and where the patient was helpless.

Allenru relieves at once. Immediately after you start to take it the good work begins. It searches out the uric acid deposits, dissolves the secretions and drives rheumatic poison out of the body through the kidneys and bowels.

It's marvelous how quickly it acts. Relief often comes in two days, and even in cases where the suffering is most painful all traces disappear in a few days. G. A. Gorgas can supply you.

MAN ACCUSED OF MURDER INSISTS "SHELDON" SLEW

Michigan Insurance Man Still Clings to Story Other Man Used His Name

By Associated Press. Muskegon, Mich., Dec. 17.—Three mysterious figures injected into the case of Milo H. Piper, insurance man accused of having killed Miss Frieda Weichman, Chicago bookkeeper, were being sought by the local police to-day. According to Piper, who was brought here from Hamilton, Ontario, to face the murder charge, any of these three persons, whom he named as "Jack Goldberg," "John Sheldon," and "Edward Benton," can substantiate his story that Sheldon used the name of "M. H. Piper" in marrying Miss Weichman at Rensselaer, Ind., in March, 1914.

According to Prosecuting Attorney Broek, Piper yesterday told him that several months after Miss Weichman's marriage to "Sheldon" the latter gave her to him to live with as his wife. Piper and Miss Weichman, he added, traveled about in an automobile for some time, registered in various cities as man and wife. "Benton," Piper said, accompanied them. He insisted, however, that he knew nothing of the girl's death or burial in a lonely spot along the railway tracks between here and Grand Rapids.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

An Admirable Selection

To the Editor of the Telegraph: The proposed appointment of Lewis S. Sadler of Carlisle as State Highway Commissioner under Governor Sproul cannot be improved upon. The writer has known Mr. Sadler since he was a boy. Governor Sproul can make no better choice for this office. Mr. Sadler is a lawyer by profession, but is essentially a businessman; just the type needed at the head of this most important department of the state government. This department, ever since its establishment, has been more or less involved in factional politics, and this has proven somewhat of a handicap. While Mr. Sadler is a stalwart Republican, he is too big a man to permit a department of which he is the head to be made the football for politicians. He would conduct the department as he would any other legitimate business enterprise. While his acceptance would involve a considerable sacrifice of time and leisure, he has such a high sense of civic duty that he might be induced to make a personal sacrifice. The Governor-elect is to be congratulated on his sagacity in designating for this highly important office the high type of businessman and administrator which Mr. Sadler's friends know that he really is. Indian Princess Pleases With Her Native Songs

Probably the most unique concert in the musical history of Harrisburg was given last night in the Stevens Memorial Methodist Church when Princess Watawaso and assisting artists presented a charming and original program as a part of the Capital City Lyceum Course. The Princess, a member of the royal family of the Penobscot tribe, is a member of one of the last families of un-mixed Indian blood. She sang a host of the old Indian melodies harmonized by the composers, Charles Wakefield Cadman and Thurlow Leaurance, bring a bit of variety in singing a number of the newer American songs.
