Attache Louchlin and Military Attache Louchlin and Military Attache Wright and two first secretaries of embassy.

The ambassador and his staff drove from the embassy to the palace in royal carriages sent by King George. The ambassador was attended by Sir Arthur Walsh, master of ceremonies to the King. A large crowd which had assembled outside the ambassador's residence enthusiastically cheered Mr. Davis.

At the palace Arthur J. Balfour, foreign socretary, introduced Mr. Davis and the members of his suite to King George, who cordially received them. The audience lasted half an hour, when the Americans were driven back to Mr. Davis residence in the royal carriages.

DIVORCE GRANTED

The Court signed a decree in divorce separating Sylvia from James

Ming, the Army engineer at Aberdeen, Md.

Three incidents were given in Johnson's testimony which the defense held as reasons for his or-dering Major King to leave his home. On one occasion, Miss Osborne, who is a ward of the Johnsons, was sitended her and patted her hand.

A pair of palamas belonging to Major King entering the room sat beside her and patted her hand.

A pair of palamas belonging to Major King suggested, according to the testimony, that Miss Osborne put for mame in the coat so that Mrs. Horam would become angry.

Upon another occasion it was testified, Major King entered the bedroom of Mrs. Johnson, where she and Miss Osborne were sitting. He asked Mrs. Johnson to thread a the dinner table that evening and Johnson, it was testified, became angry.

Mrs. Johnson in her testimony said

Gideons Seek Help in Buying Bibles For New Penn-Harris Hotel

William S. Essick, who is head in Harrisburg of the Gideons, the Christian Commercial Travelers Association of America, has received permission of the Penn-Harris hotel management to place a Bible in each room of the new hotel. Mr. Essick to-day sent out a plea to the churches of the city to aid him in the purchase. The Gideons have placed copies of the Bible in hundreds of thousands of hotel rooms throughout the country.

thousands of hotel rooms throughout the country.

"We want the Penn-Harris to be as up-to-date as any hotel in the country," said Mr. Essick to-day, "and the last touch will be the addition of a Bible to the furnishings of each guest room. The Gideons have been instrumental in placing Bibles in hotels throughout the country and Harrisburg, headquarters of the state camp, must be included. We need help and I ask the churches of the city to aid in raising the necessary money."

Fuel Situation in Dauphin Fast Becoming Serious; Big Shortage

Dauphin, Dec. 19 .- The coal situaon in Dauphin is serious. Many tion in Dauphin is serious. Many families have little fuel in their bins and others have none. "We invite the Fuel Administration to send representatives to make an inspection of the cellars of the town, said Freeman C. Gerberich to-day," and I intend to lay the matter again before the authorities to-day. A cold snap or a blizzard would find Dauphin in a very bad way and I hope for some relief before that occurs."

Turn About Is Fair Play, Say Soldiers

Soldiers from the quartermaster and Marsh Run have joined the Red Cross efforts to secure memberships. Harrisburg chapter furnishes many nurses for the two camps during the recent influenza epidemic. The soldiers are taking part in the campaign voluntarily.

They have set themselves the following task:

When they meet a man in the streets of Harrisburg who does not display a Red Cross membership button for 1919 they ask him why he is without the emblem, and then question him as to whether he intends joining or not.

"We're for the Red Cross," say the soldiers. "They were for us. Turn about is fair play."

ARSENAL EMPLOYES OUT
Boston, Dec. 19.—One thousand employes were dismissed from the Watertown Arsenal yesterday and Brigadler General Tracey C. Dickson, the commandant, said that unless new work was assigned to the arsenal soon, 2,000 other employes might be let go in consequence of a cancellation of war orders. Among the men affected are some of the highest paid in the plant, including machinists, blacksmiths, patternmakers and molders, as well as laborers, machine operators and helpers. task for the latitude in boasting that he allowed his wife. "Say, Jack," said he, "why on earth do you permit your wife to go round telling the other women that she has made a man of you? You never hear my wife say anything like that." "No," remarked Jack, with a merry chuckle, "but I have heard her say on more than one occasion that she had tried her hardest." TO ATTEND CONFERENCE

TO ATTEND CONFERENCE
Professor Frank E. Shambaugh, county school superintendent, and Professor W. R. Zimmerman, assistant, will attend a conference in Reading on Saturday of superintendents and assistants from Southeastern Pennsylvania. The proposed bill to increase teachers' salaries twenty-live per cent, will be discussed. It is believed action will be taken by the superintendents favoring the move to raise the pay of teachers.

Splendid Prophecy Is

Fulfilled by Allied Victory

When in 1871 France lay bleeding on the ground, and her provinces, Alsace and Lorraine, were torn from her side, the great poet, Victor

Hugo, arose in the National Assembly on March 1, 1871, and said:

"Oh. the hour will strike—we feel the Rhine. And you will hear soint to Rhine. Rhine. And you will hear soint to Rhine. The Rhine for all! Let us be the same republic. I am the Rhine. And you will hear soint to Rhine. The Rhine for all! Let us be the same republic. I am the Rhine. And you will hear soint to Rhine. The Rhine for all! Let us be the same republic. I am the Rhine.
